Meaning-Making for Living Koji Komatsu,2019-11-14 This Open Access Brief analyzes the dynamics in which children s selves emerge through their everyday activities of meaning construction both in their relationships with family and within school education It begins with a discussion of new psychological inquiries into children s selves and builds upon the innovative theoretical notion of the Presentational Self developed by the author over the last decade The book illustrates how the observation of children s meaning construction in their everyday lives becomes a starting point for theoretical and empirical inquiries into child development and gives a framework that promotes new inquiries in this area The book describes the Presentational Self Theory as a sense of how the notion of the Self is being worked upon in everyday life encounters Chapters feature in depth analyses of exchanges between adults and children in the Japanese cultural context Meaning Making for Living will be of interest to researchers and graduate students in the fields of cognitive social developmental educational and cultural psychology A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas,2018-06-21 Whether used for thematic story times program and curriculum planning readers advisory or collection development this updated edition of the well known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children's picture books for all aspects of children's services and this new edition does not disappoint. Covering more than 18,000 books published through 2017, it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras. Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic and subject headings arranged alphabetically, this reference applies more than 1,200 intuitive as opposed to formal catalog subject terms to children's picture books, making it both a comprehensive and user-friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians. It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections, to find books on particular topics for young readers, to help teachers locate titles to support lessons or to design thematic programs and story times. Title and illustrator indexes, in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name, further extend access to titles.

Fun for Kids III Marion F. Gallivan, 2002. An index to children's craft books published since 1991. Provides a guide to craft instructions alphabetically by project or by type of material used.

60 Hikes Within 60 Miles: Pittsburgh Donna Ruff, 2006-05-10. From a city of smokestacks to a city of culture, technology, and trees, Pittsburgh's revitalized city parks, abundant state parks, tranquil state forests, and enhanced riverfronts offer endless opportunities to hike and explore. 60 Hikes within 60 Miles: Pittsburgh has something for explorers of every ability and interest. Diverse hikes include Frick Park, which can be combined with a visit to the Frick Art and Historical Center; free Ohio State Park with views of the beautiful Youghiogheny River and Cucumber Falls; Beechwood Farms, where kids and adults can opt to participate in nature programs and walks; and Mt. Davis Natural Area, where hikers can stand on the highest point in Pennsylvania. History buffs will love Bushy Run and its museum, and other historical site hike combinations. Those seeking solitude will relish time spent walking in lovely Todd Sanctuary or one of the scenic and tranquil destinations of Forbes State Forest. Beautiful river, lake, waterfall, mountain, wildflower, and historical walks are all in your backyard. From the city's riverbanks to the Laurel Highlands mountains of the south and southwest to the lakes and meadows of the north and northwest, every hiker will find trails to their liking in 60 Hikes within 60 Miles: Pittsburgh.

Hiking Pennsylvania John L. Young, 2008-06-03. HIKING PENNSYLVANIA: 55 of the State's Greatest Hiking Adventures, 3rd edition. John L. Young, Falcon.
