So Far So Good The First 94 Years:

So Far, So Good Roy R. Neuberger, Alfred Connable, Roma Connable, 1997-09-22 Mention the name Roy Neuberger and several awe inspiring images come to mind There s the stock market neophyte who arrived on Wall Street just months before the Panic of 1929 and protected his capital by shorting RCA stock There s the savvy businessman who founded Neuberger the creation of Guardian one of the first no load mutual funds his success with closed end investment trusts and his extraordinary winning run during the market crash of 1987 Generously sharing a wealth of professional wisdom Neuberger offers his ten principles of successful investing as well as penetrating and provocative ruminations on topics ranging from the economy and the federal budget to Social Security and the future of the market Neuberger speaks eloquently about his lifelong appreciation of art He describes the formation of his valuable and eclectic collection most of which he s now donated his firm commitment to supporting the careers of artists his role as trustee of both The Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Whitney Museum and his involvement with the creation and sustenance of the Neuberger Museum of Art in Purchase New York At the age of 94 Roy Neuberger is still going strong trading every day and enjoying life to the fullest His dramatic story told here with humor insight and complete candor is part social history part investment lesson part personal reminiscence So Far So Good The First 94 Years is a landmark work not to be missed Praise for So Far so Good the first 94 years The wisdom of Roy Neuberger is a beacon There is nothing like experience and here it is in spades We can all learn from the master Dr William F Baker President Thirteen WNET N Y Roy Neuberger has celebrated life for almost a century He roared in Paris in the 1920s assembled one of the great contemporary art collections of the world and built a great investment firm He has shared the journey with us through this book and it is one helluva ride Byron Wein Managing Director Morgan Stanley Co What a life Roy Neuberger s affecting memoir chronicles the passion and generosity that helped him overcome early adversity to fill his charmed long life with meaning and accomplishment Readers will benefit from his great advice about making money and will take pleasure in learning how he used his fortune to acquire and share wonderful works of art Agnes Gund President Museum of Modern Art Roy never fails to amuse and enlighten Over the years he s taught me many things I didn t know I didn t know Jim Rogers author of The Investment Biker Roy s memoirs read as if he d chatted them to you on his regular matinal walks sprinkled with engaging personal insights and no end of advice for which the most compelling argument is Roy s own success A most rewarding read Philippe de Montebello Director The Metropolitan Museum of Art

The Obits: New York Times Annual 2012 William McDonald, 2011-11-11 The obits It s the first section many of us turn to when we open the paper not to see who died but rather to find out about who lived to discover the interesting lives of people who ve made a mark A new annual that collects nearly 300 of the best of The New York Times obituaries from the previous year The Obits Annual 2012 is a compelling addictive as salted peanuts who s who of some of the most fascinating people of the twentieth century Written by top journalists each entry is a jewel a miniature nuanced biography filled with the facts we love to read with the surprise and serendipity of life There s David L Wolper the producer of Roots and the story of how he got his start purchasing film footage from Sputnik The jazz singer Abbey Lincoln and her change from glamorous performer she owned a dress of Marilyn Monroe s to civil rights activist she burned the Monroe dress Owsley Stanley the quirky perfecter of LSD who blamed a heart attack on the fact that his mother made him eat broccoli as a child Patricia Neal known by most as a movie star but her real life filled with tragedy adversity and incredible professional ups and downs is almost a surreal play of triumph and tragedy Arranged chronologically like the obits themselves it s a deliciously random walk through the recent past meeting the philosophers newsmen spies publishers moguls soul singers baseball managers Nobel Prize winners models and others who ve shaped the world The Winning Investment Habits of Warren Buffett & George Soros Mark Tier,2013-09-17 Warren Buffett Carl Icahn and George Soros all started with nothing and made billion dollar fortunes solely by investing But their investment strategies are so widely divergent what could they possibly have in common As Mark Tier demonstrates in this insightful book the secrets that made Buffet Icahn and Soros the world s three richest investors are the same mental habits and strategies they all practice religiously However these are mental habits and strategies that fly in the face of Wall Street s conventional mindset For example Buffett Icahn and Soros do not diversify When they buy they buy as much as they can They re not focused on the profits they expect to make Going in they re not investing for the money at all They don t believe that big profits involve big risks In fact they re far more focused on not losing money than making it Wall Street research reports They never read them They re not interested in what other people think Indeed Buffett says he only reads analyst reports when he needs a laugh In The Winning Investment Habits of Warren Buffett George Soros you can discover how the mental habits that guided your last investment decision stack up against those of Buffett Icahn and Soros Then learn exactly how you can apply the wealth building secrets of the world s richest investors to transform your own investment results Invest Like a Dealmaker Christopher W. Mayer,2008-01-07 Invest Like a Dealmaker outlines an approach to investing that is far removed from what most investors have been conditioned to believe but which has produced consistent profits for its practitioners decade after decade While the concepts covered are not well known by the average investor they are well appreciated by Wall Street insiders and dealmakers particularly those who think about stocks as whole companies as things with real assets and cash flows that exist in the real world The Mackay MBA of Selling in the Real World Harvey Mackay,2011-11-01 Harvey Mackay is a legend and now he s back with the sum total of decades of sales know how teaching go getters how to make the sale and hit the numbers day in and day out His advice is rooted in road tested real world experiences and include new tips on the Web LinkedIn and Facebook As a lifelong student of the sales game Mackay has spent decades collecting secrets wisdom and anecdotes He features his Mackay Morals life lessons such as Big shots are just little shots who kept shooting Helping someone up won t pull you down and could very easily pull them to your side Be like the turtle If he didn t stick his neck out he wouldn t get anywhere at all There is no one better to show you how to be a high energy determined creative sales dynamo than Harvey Mackay Investment Legends Barrie Dunstan, 2012-01-24 Part philosophy part business strategy and part biography Investment Legends provides fascinating insight into the key ingredients required for successful investing as explored through the experiences and tips of fifteen of the world's leading investors Drawing on his forty years in the business leading Financial Review journalist Barrie Dunstan has travelled the globe interviewing the cast of characters in this book Throwing the net far and wide Dunstan's subjects include those virtually born into the business such as Barton Biggs and Peter Bernstein as well as others who came to investment via the card tables at Las Vegas or the ski slopes of Switzerland Each interview provides insights about the legends who are they how do they think about investment what do they believe is most important why these beliefs matter and when they might change their mind In this captivating book you'll get to meet some of the world's leading lights in the investment world Share in their secrets to success and follow their dramatic journeys led by the guiding hand of wise and insightful author Barrie Dunstan Profit Margins Jeremy Groskopf, 2021-12-07 Between the advent of print advertising and the dawn of radio came cinema ads These ads aimed at a captive theater audience became a symbol of the developing binary between upper class film consumption and more consumerist media In Profit Margins Jeremy Groskopf examines how the ad industry jockeyed for direct advertisement space in American motion pictures In fact advertisers who recognized the import of film audiences fought exhibitors over what audiences expected in a theater outing Looking back at these debates in four case studies Groskopf reveals that advertising became a marker of class distinctions in the cinema experience as the film industry pushed out advertisers in order to create a space free of ads By restricting advertising especially during the rise of high class palatial theaters the film industry continued its ongoing effort to ascend the cultural hierarchy of the arts An important read for film studies and the history of marketing Profit Margins exposes the fascinating truth surrounding the invention of cinema advertising techniques and the resulting rhetoric of class division Kiplinger's Personal Finance, 2005-04 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums Paul van der Grijp, 2024-12-06 Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums questions why private collectors donate their collection or parts of it to museums and examines what the implications of this gifting process might be Presenting case studies from Europe North America East Asia and the South Pacific this book is concerned with both elite and popular collections and examines the act of donating art from the collector's point of view Demonstrating that art museums depend on donations from private collectors Paul van der Grijp emphasizes that it is crucial to understand the psychological sociological economic and educational motivations for gifting works of art to institutions Taken together the chapters argue that collectors donate to museums because the latter represent an imagined community to whom those collectors would like to bestow a sacred gift Private collectors are Van der Grijp maintains motivated to ensure the immortality of their collections and ultimately to
