So Good Make You Slap Your Mama:

So Good . . . Make You Slap Your Mama! Marlyn Monette, 1999-04 J. R. Gavin, 2009-10 The Tragedy of Darkness Ted Bagley, 2011-02-16 A magnificent Novel of love and tragedy The Tragedy of Darkness is Teds first Novel This book was set in Chicago and is a strong depiction of how human values decisions and relationships help to mold the final outcome of AJs life A strong message rendered here by the author showing how impulsive decisions can lead to tragic outcomes Miss Velma's Journey of a Lifetime DeLois Jackson, 2010-11-30 From an early age Miss Velma realized her maternal purpose in life She began a lifelong journey of nurturing children both her nine siblings and her own four children Her nurturing instinct carried forward into two marriages She knew how to love and wanted that same love in return but she never felt truly loved or spiritually connected to either husband Hard work spanned over the majority of her life She is a proud woman with a strong and deep Christian belief which has been the glue and fortitude that brought her through troubling times TENNYBOOTS! Judy Edwards, 2019-12-03 TennyBoots is a narrative of two women on a journey back to love Their mother daughter relationship now caregiver care resister is fraught with all of the unresolved complexities that the typical mother daughter relationship entails It is also a story of how the Mother sees the daughter when her role changes in Mother s estimation from daughter to dictator In order for the reader to understand who this Mother is in her late nineties and the circumstances that have shaped her life the Mother s own prolific stories candid and unfiltered and in her own voice are interspersed between the daughter s narrative and reflections You will laugh You will cry Your loyalties will be challenged and your thoughts about aging upended TennyBoots lends a sympathetic yet powerful voice to the caregivers toiling in the vineyard daily without complaint The themes in this book are universal and ageless So Good-- Make You Slap Your Mama! Marlyn Monette, 2005 Paula Deen's 2008 Calendar Paula H. Deen, 2007 Miz Suzie's Boy Herman Flora, 2005-09-15 Miz Suzie s Boy is a remarkable book about a Negro boy born into abject poverty during the Great Depression to a teenage mother Hardships of the depression included shooting crows for meals and keeping hand me down shoes together with string and newspaper Negroes in the town of West Munden a few miles south of Norfolk cared deeply for each other Poverty was pervasive and the old folks talked incessantly about becoming millionaires but children were unaware of the degree of how badly things really were Together families banded together to combat blatant racism and rise above the negative impact of the Ku Klux Klan His early home training fostered a love of God Country and Family He was taught to work hard practice thrift speak honestly and with integrity maintain his individuality and relentlessly pursue an education Childhood was a happy time for Herman and he spent many hours playing with relatives neighborhood children and make believe toys Flora moved to an adjoining community South Norfolk when he was eleven and made new friends He joined the Boy Scouts and strictly lived by the Scout Oath and its precepts This later helped to keep him mentally awake and morally straight Friendship puppy love for a classmate hastened his efforts to enter the U S Army as an under aged youth with the hope of finding her in the Philippines Flora entered the Army trained at Aberdeen Maryland and cavorted with prostitutes and pimps whenever he was granted leave He journeyed overseas on a troopship with fifteen hundred soldiers The boredom and tedium of the voyage was downplayed by the laughter witty banter and frequent exchange of incredible lies Arriving overseas he started his first job as a latrine orderly Flora found the Army reasonably challenging thrived and became Acting First Sergeant of a medial detachment within months Frequent interactions and frank discussions with long time career soldiers constantly reminded him of the need for a good education He returned to Norfolk from the Army finished his last year of high school and enrolled at Howard University College was demanding of his mind and time during the week and only the weekends were available for frolicking football fraternities and girls Beautiful young ladies consumed every spare moment until he identified and pursued the one a ministers daughter Together they lovingly reared seven college educated children Herman pursued ownership of several businesses and finally decided to make his million dollars brokering real estate He accepted an Executive Level position with the U S Department of Commerce Office of Minority Business Enterprise OMBE where he patiently assisted national minority businesses with their growth and expansion In a very poignant letter sent from Africa to his grandchildren and other grandchildren of the world he reflected on several world problems encouraged them to diligently educate and prepare themselves for the next century and never lose sight of God goals and a good life
