Chance Ransom Kevin Stein, 2000 Winner of Poetry's Frederick Bock Prize and the Indiana Review Poetry Prize Kevin Stein casts a wide net over the ineffable befuddlement of everyday life His poems render history's chance larder of the consecrated and profane from which we ransom our fate Often improvisational and always lyrical Stein's poems move effortlessly through the art of Beckmann and Degas the music of Bob Marley and garage bands and the pathos of cancer patients factory workers and victims of bigotry Insightful and refreshingly unaffected Chance Ransom explores the shifting shore between self and other with clarity and compassion House of Poured-out Waters Jane Mead, 2001 In House of Poured Out Waters Jane Mead's substantial new collection she continues to grapple with a world both personal and cultural Poised in the slender moment between too early and too late between the difficult past and the unimaginable future Mead's poems remind us that the old debates about fate and free will nature and nurture are also matters of personal urgency More than anything it is her spiritual dimension that offers Mead a way into the future but that way must be paved image by image with the world before her Simultaneously conversational and lyrical these fearless poems extend the possibilities of narrative verse Turtle, Swan & Bethlehem in Broad Daylight Mark Doty, 2000 The winner of four major awards including the National Book Critics Circle Award and the T S Eliot Prize Mark Doty has established himself as one of the most courageous and eloquent poets of our time The University of Illinois Press is proud to present this one volume edition of Doty's first two collections of poetry Turtle Swan and Bethlehem in Broad Daylight Long out of print Turtle Swan and Bethlehem in Broad Daylight brought Doty to critical attention as the first post Stonewall gay poet to emerge as a major voice in American letters Stories of paradise pageant and fugitive peace course through these pages are lit by Doty's visions of the architecture and artifice of a lush world Exploring the forms of remembering and inventing Doty affirms that from the first loss we preserve by naming Michelangelo's Seizure Steve Gehrke, 2007 Providing poetic entry into the visual arts In Michelangelo's Seizure

Steve Gehrke seizes the lives of several classic and contemporary painters from Caravaggio and Magritte to Francis Bacon and Jackson Pollock to demonstrate how these artists transformed physical psychological and political suffering into art. Mirroring the brushstrokes in long metaphor laden sentences Gehrke moves freely through the canvas into and out of the artists lives into the public realm into history to capture the way the creative mind can transform even the most violent surroundings a prison cell a battlefield a madhouse into a masterpiece A Deed to the Light Jeanne Murray Walker, 2010-10-01 In A Deed To the Light Jeanne Murray Walker asks probing questions about the depth of grief about letting go and about the possibility of faith Her poems have been described by John Taylor writing in Poetry as splendid subtly erudite uplifting and funny Guide to the Blue Tongue Virgil Suárez, 2002 Shimmering with saturated color and heat Guide to the Blue Tongue is an intoxicating sequence of memory poems about growing up in the tropics threaded through the myth of Caliban from Shakespeare's The Tempest Caliban is the monstrous native in love with what he cannot possess lost to his own sense of identity In Virgil Suárez's vision the island of Caliban's imprisonment merges with the island of Cuba where the carboneros make charcoal and sell it door to door by the pound young boxers crackle with caged energy dock workers spill like ants out of the bellies of ships and the rain falls in torrents on corrugated tin roofs On this island of fire the Marquis de Sade joins other historical figures to drink absinthe and J Edgar Hoover lingers over mojitos and a cigar at the Tropicana Night Club in Old Havana Hovering behind the hotel shutters or half concealed behind their masks the old poets and prophets Shakespeare Tiresias Pablo Neruda are waiting to speak their passions Out of this rich imaginative brew Suárez evokes the mythical and historical landscape of Cuba and distills the hollow deep thudded pangs of exile's rootlessness the immigrant's constant longing to be possessed by a sense of place Steeped in a seductive incantatory language of desire Guide to the Blue Tongue gives entry to a place of blue possibility and daily undoing where the sting of salt fresh air is compounded by the ache of displacement and loss Poems William Carlos Williams, 2002 Before William Carlos Williams was recognized as one of the most important innovators in American poetry he commissioned a printer to publish 100 copies of Poems 1909 a small collection largely imitating the styles of the Romantics and the Victorians This volume collects the self published edition of Poems Williams's foray into the world of letters with previously unpublished notes he made after spending nearly a year in Europe rethinking poetry and how to write it As Poems shows his first tentative steps into poetry the notes show him as he prepares to make a giant transformation in his art Shortly after Poems appeared Williams went through a series of experiences that changed his life a trip to Europe a marriage to the sister of the woman he genuinely loved and the establishment of his medical practice In Europe he was introduced to a consideration of an unlikely trio Heinrich Heine Martin Luther and Richard Wagner resulting in an exposure that subsequently influenced his developing style Williams looked back on Poems as apprentice work calling them bad Keats nothing else oh well bad Whitman too But I sure loved them There is not one thing of the slightest value in the whole thin booklet except the intent and never republished the collection Now that Williams's work is widely read and appreciated his reputation secure his development as a poet is a matter worth serious study Poems can be seen as a point of departure a clear record of where Williams began before his life and ideas about poetry made seismic shifts Virginia M Wright Peterson's succinct introduction puts Poems in the context of his life and times discusses the reception of the volume his reconsideration of the poems and what they reveal about his poetic ambitions

When the three of us became the Sister Chicas who knew we'd each get the surprise of our lives And even though we don't always agree on things boys clothes and music come to mind nothing gets in the way of our friendship Three amigas Our story begins in autumn when the leaves and everything else in our lives changed La Joven Taina's turning fifteen and is so dreading her quincea era Being dolled up in front of hundreds of guests and making her Sister Chicas sport Pepto pink gowns isn't her idea of a good time She dreams of beautiful dresses and ankle strap tacones to die for And what about her secret her Jamaican artist boyfriend Should she let Mami choose her escort or follow her heart and ignite a family riot La autora Grachi's Mexican parents have sacrificed so much to give her the best they could How can she choose between being a good Chicana daughter and grabbing la oportunidad de la vida Now she needs her Sister Chicas more than ever as she tries to balance the world of her familia and the new world that's opened up to her including a handsome friend who's becoming more than a friend La rock era Leni's the rebel with a punk do and an attitude to go with it But her life's about to get more complicated And it's the Sister Chicas who help her make sense of her Puerto Rican roots Not to mention her new and confusing relationship with Carlos her childhood friend turned handsome rockero This year has been incredible But we've got each other's backs now y por siempre Includes a Readers Guide Imaginative Possibilities Maceo Montoya, Javier O.

Hurricanes and Carnivals Lee Gutkind, 2007 In Mexico writes Ilan Stavans in the introduction to this provocative new collection on Mexican culture and politics the essay is embraced as passionately as a sport While the American essay may be personal and confessional or erudite and academic it is presumed to be truthful By contrast the Mexican essay pushes the boundaries between fact and fiction as writers seek to make their opinions heard in literary journals in newspapers and even on cereal boxes What is real and what isn't in a Mexican essay only God knows concludes Stavans In Hurricanes and Carnivals Lee Gutkind a pioneer in the teaching of creative nonfiction brings together fifteen essays by Mexican Mexican American and Latin American writers that push the boundaries of style and form showing that navigating truth is anything but clear cut Although creative nonfiction is widely thought to be an American art form this collection proves otherwise By blending fact and fiction story and fantasy history and mythology these writers and others push the bounds of the essay to present a vision of Mexico rarely seen from this side of the border Addressing topics that include immigration politics ecology violence family and sexuality they take literary license on a whirlwind adventure C M Mayo shows us Mexico City as seen through the eyes of her pug Picadou Juan Villoro examines modern Mexico through the lens of demography Homero Aridjis uses the plight of nesting sea turtles to document a slowly changing Mexican attitude toward natural resources and Sam Quinones documents the decline of beauty queen addiction in Mazatlán and tells us about the flower festivals where according to lore only two things matter hurricanes and carnivals For readers interested in a literary view of contemporary Mexico as well as students of the creative nonfiction genre this volume is essential daily lives and representation such as art film poetry popular culture and stories Instead of keeping quiet queer Latinx artists and writers have spoken up as a way of challenging stereotypes prejudice and violence occurring in communities ranging from Puerto Rico to sites within the mainland United States as well as transnational flows of migration Such migrations are explored in several ways including the movement of queer people from Chile to the United States To address these matters artistic thinkers such as Gloria Anzald a Frances Negr n Muntaner and Rane Arroyo have challenged such socio political problems by imagining intimate social and intellectual spaces that resist the status quo like homophobic norms laws and policies that hurt families and communities Building on the intellectual thought of researchers such as Jorge Duany Adriana de Souza e Silva and Jos Esteban Mu oz this book explains how the imagined spaces of Latinx LGBTQ peoples are blueprints for addressing our tumultuous present and creating a better future

Men Without Bliss Rigoberto González, 2014-10-22 In cities and fields Mexican American men are leading lives of quiet desperation In this collection of thirteen startling stories Rigoberto Gonz lez weaves complex portraits of Latinos leading ordinary practically invisible lives while navigating the dark waters of suppressed emotion true to life characters who face emotional hurt socioeconomic injustice indignities in the workplace or sexual repression But because their culture expects men to symbolize power and control they dare not risk succumbing to displays of weakness Gonz lez shines an empathetic light into the shadows of Mexican culture to portray characters who suffer in silence men both straight and gay who must come to terms with their grief loneliness and pain By exploring the private moments of men trapped inside unforgiving stereotypes he critiques long held assumptions of Latino behavior He shows us individuals who must break out of various closets to become fully realized adults and makes us feel the emotional pain of men in a culture that recognizes only the pain and hardship of women Men without Bliss conveys the silent suffering of all men not just Latinos It will open readers eyes to unexpected facets of Latino culture and perhaps of their own lives
