Social Anthropology in the Arab World Abdullah Alajmi, Daniele Cantini, Irene Maffi, Imed Melliti, 2025-08-01 There are ongoing efforts in anthropology to decolonise its history and give fairer space to marginalised traditions This book examines the history and institutionalisation of anthropology in the Maghreb the Mashreq and the Gulf in an open and collaborative manner and from various perspectives Its primary focus is two fold first to reorient the anthropological focus towards studies conducted in the region particularly on the conditions conducive to the institutionalisation of anthropological knowledge second to shed light on anthropological studies in languages other than English offering different theoretical and epistemological perspectives An Introduction to Social Anthropology Clark Wissler,1929 Reason and Morality Joanna Overing,2003-12-16 First Published in 1985 What is the place of reason and conversely of the unreasonable the contradictory the emotional and the chaotic in social life What is the nature of general human rationality Are there such things as incommensurable world views How efficacious are typologies or modes of thought or cognitive styles These are some of the controversies addressed by the contributors to this volume which draws together papers from the 1984 Malinowski Centennial Conference of the ASA The Voice of Prophecy Edwin Ardener,2017-10 Edwin Ardener a new expanded edition of the collected works of one of the most important social anthropologists in Britain of his time Ardener worked on social economic demographic and political problems and was particularly influential in his sustained effort to bring together social anthropology and linguistics in a highly original attempt to reconcile scientific and humanistic approaches to the study of society This volume offers a theoretically and conceptually coherent body of work by this innovative and profound thinker which will continue to excite and stimulate new generations of students and researchers as it has in the past Towards a Social Grammar of Language Mathew C. Grayshon,2019-07-22 No detailed description available for Towards a Social Grammar of Language The Sierra Leone Royal Gazette Sierra Leone,1926 The Relevance of Models for Social Anthropology Michael Banton,1968 Linguistic Anthropology of Education Stanton E.F. Wortham,Betsy Rymes,2003 Over the years linguistic anthropological research has shown how classrooms are socializing institutions and how language functions as one medium through which this socialization is accomplished Early work in the field has captured the immediacy of social practice and language use in educational contexts and has created useful characterizations of variations in communicative competence The present work builds on the strengths of prior work showing how new theoretical concepts and empirical methods developed in linguistic anthropology over the last decade can further illuminate educational settings The authors introduce an updated Linguistic Anthropology of Education which recognizes that in the rapidly changing field of cultural production within which children and teachers operate today the exploration of multiple pre existing forms of communicative competence is not enough This volume elaborates theory and illustrates the tools and practices of the Linguistic Anthropology of Education to account for today s research context in which the multiplicity of identity and the multiple ways language can be used to represent it have important ramifications for how learning and social reproduction emerge within educational contexts Language ,1929 Proceedings of the annual meeting of the Society in v 1 11 1925 34 After 1934 they appear in Its Bulletin Multidisciplinary Approach in Research Area (Volume-7) Chief Editor- Biplab Auddya, Editor- Dr. Tarannum Khan, Bijanamula Supriya, Dr. Jyotsana Khandelwal, Mrs. V.Geetha, Smt. Language and Social Justice Kathleen C. Riley, Bernard C. Perley, Inmaculada M. García-Sánchez, 2024-02-22

Language whether spoken written or signed is a powerful resource that is used to facilitate social justice or undermine it The first reference resource to use an explicitly global lens to explore the interface between language and social justice this volume expands our understanding of how language symbolizes frames and expresses political economic and psychic problems in society thus contributing to visions for social justice Investigating specific case studies in which language is used to instantiate and or challenge social injustices each chapter provides a unique perspective on how language carries value and enacts power by presenting the historical contexts and ethnographic background for understanding how language engenders and or negotiates specific social justice issues Case studies are drawn from Africa Asia Europe North and South America and the Pacific Islands with leading experts tackling a broad range of themes such as equality sovereignty communal well being and the recognition of complex intersectional identities and relationships within and beyond the human world Putting issues of language and social justice on a global stage and casting light on these processes in communities increasingly impacted by ongoing colonial neoliberal and neofascist forms of globalization Language and Social Justice is an essential resource for anyone interested in this area of research

The Problem of Context Roy Dilley, 1999 The apparently simple notion that it is contextualization and invocation of context that give form to our interpretations raises important questions about context definition Moreover different disciplines involved in the elucidation and interpretation of meanings construe context indifferent ways How do these ways differ And what analytical strategies are adopted in order to suggest that the relevant context is self evident The notion of context has received less attention than is due such a central key concept in social anthropology as well as in other related disciplines This collection of contributions from a group of leading social anthropologists and anthropological linguists addresses the question of how the idea of context is constructed invoked and deployed in the interpretations put forward by social anthropologists The ethnographic focus embraces peoples from regions such as Bali Europe Malawi and Zaire Primarily theoretical in its aims the work also draws on expertise from anthropological linguistics and philosophy in order to set the issue as much in a comparative disciplinary perspective as in a comparative cross cultural one
