Lavastida, 1999-11-22 Studies the situation related to access to health care in the US Approaches the problem first by analyzing its history then synthesizing different philosophical and practical solutions that have been attempted in order to reform health care and finally presents and analyzes ways to solve problems of access to health using an ethical approach nourished according to the guidance offered by the teachings of the Catholic Church Lacks a subject index      Justice and Truth Shall Meet Albert Nolan, Mary O'Driscoll, 2024-08-01 This is a reprint of book originally published in the 1980s but its message is still as relevant today as it was when it was first published In this book two Dominicans Albert Nolan OP and Mary O Driscoll OP write on biblical and theological themes of justice and truth from a Dominican perspective On truth Mary O Driscoll writes that it is evident that when we look at Dominic or Catherine or any of our great Dominican brothers and sisters all of these responded to truth not merely with their intellects but with their whole beings and that the greatest Dominicans have always been those who have combined the pursuit of speculative truth with that of existential truth who have known how to maintain these two dimensions of the search for truth not in conflict but as complementing one another While on justice Albert Nolan writes that justice is first and foremost an attribute of God God is just not only because God is fair and honest in all of God's dealings with human beings but also because all God's activity is a matter of putting right what is wrong in the world and all God's laws and commandments are simply demanding that justice be done In fact justice is the distinguishing characteristic of the God of the Bible Both authors were vocal critics of the apartheid regime What they wrote in the 1980s regarding race poverty injustice and inequality the fruit of many years of study and theological reflection remains of relevance for today      Brimming with God Barbara J. Blodgett, Matthew Floding, 2015-08-13 The yearning to be a theologian is widespread Pastors students supervisors and mentors all wish to think theologically about their ministries but often feel inadequately prepared This book seeks to respond by showcasing a variety of approaches to theological reflection brought to bear upon actual situations in ministry It is written by theological field educators We define theological reflection as reflection upon lived embodied experiences in ministry that seeks to make sense of practice and form reflectors in habits for competent ministry An introductory chapter defines theological reflection as practiced within field education and points readers toward a diversity of approaches Eleven subsequent chapters present two reflections upon the same case each reflection written by a different author and representing a different reflection method The book's significance is as a resource for teaching theological reflection in a range of settings It not only offers a definition of and rationale for theological reflection but models various approaches to it Its use of cases furthermore models the use of case studies in theological education and pastoral practice more widely Caring for the Vulnerable Mary De Chesnay,2005 This text explores vulnerability from the perspective of individuals groups communities and populations and addresses the implication of that vulnerability for nurses nursing and nursing care Organized into six units the text presents a basic structure for caring for the vulnerable and forms a theoretical perspective on caring within a cultural context with the ultimate goal of providing culturally competent care Written specifically for nurses by nurses Caring for the Vulnerable is a timely and necessary response to the culturally diverse vulnerable populations for whom nurses must provide appropriate and precise care

De Maio,2021-09-07 Across the United States Black people have shorter life expectancies than white people reflecting structural racism and deep rooted drivers of population health But are some cities more equal than others The elimination of racial and ethnic inequities differences that are avoidable unnecessary and unfair has been one of the overarching health related goals of the United States for decades Yet dramatic differences in health outcomes between Black people and white people persist rooted in structural and social determinants of health Nationally a Black baby can expect to live four years less than a white baby But mortality outcomes and inequities vary widely across cities In Washington DC for example the average life expectancy for Blacks is twelve years less than that of whites But in other cities mortality differences between races are less striking or nonexistent If health equity can be achieved in some cities why not all This is arguably the most important health equity issue of our time In Unequal Cities Maureen R Benjamins and Fernando G De Maio gather a team of experts to explore these racial inequities as well as the ten year gap in life expectancy between our healthiest and unhealthiest big cities Rigorous analyses give readers access to previously unavailable data on life expectancy mortality from leading causes of death and related Black white inequities for the country s 30 biggest cities The theoretically grounded essays also explore how characteristics of cities including their levels of income inequality and racial segregation impact overall health and Black white inequities The first book to specifically examine racial health inequities within and across US cities Unequal Cities offers a social justice framework for addressing the newly identified inequities as well as specific case studies to help public health advocates civic leaders and other stakeholders envision the steps needed to improve their cities current health outcomes and achieve racial equity A powerful call to action for health equity advocates and city leaders alike this book is essential reading Contributors David Ansell Darlene Oliver Hightower Jana Hirschtick Sharon Homan Ayesha Jaco Emily LaFlamme Brittney S Lange Maia Kristin Monnard Nikhil G Prachand Pamela T Roesch Michael Rozier Nazia Saiyed Eve Shapiro Abigail Silva Veenu Verma the West Side United Metrics Working Group Ruqaiyah Yearby The Moral Bond of Community Bernard Vincent Brady,1998 Comprehensive in its approach yet written in plain language The Moral Bond of Community offers a biblically based concept of Christian justice that can be applied to moral questions in everyday life Brady examines four forms of Christian moral

Rhodes, 2023-10-10 Historically many churches and theologians defended and supported race based slavery and subsequent forms of racial hierarchy and violence The essays in Reparations and the Theological Disciplines argue that it is urgent that the theological disciplines engage the issue of reparations by revisiting Scripture and our theological traditions The time is now for remembrance reckoning and repair
