Social Changes Crime And The Police:

Social Changes, Crime and Police Louise Shelley, József Vigh, 2023-03-31 Originally published in 1995 Social Changes Crime and the Police studies the relationship of social change and crime the role of the police amidst changing social conditions and the reaction of society and the state to the criminal problem It examines the essential differences and challenges which confronted countries in Western and Eastern Europe after the collapse of the socialist system In recent years many areas of Europe had experienced a period of rapid technological development which had changed economic and cultural structures creating temporary instability Within a relatively short period of time traditional values and beliefs had been undermined National boundaries and geographical differences had gradually lost their significance and the opening of frontiers had created easier conditions for crime The nature of crime itself had been transformed by the increasingly close relationships between countries While many Eastern European countries sought to undo the authoritarian legacies of the socialist period Western Europe faced new challenges to its urban order The editors and the contributors also examine the kinds of new policing concepts which may be formulated and the new practices which may develop during the next few decades Governments must determine the role of the police and the law in accordance with public demands for powerful policing combined with consideration of the individual's rights thus maintaining the vital balance between personal freedom and social peace Police Powers and Accountability in a Democratic Society European Committee on Crime Problems, Council of Europe, 2000-01-01 The position of the police in both the old democracies and in societies in transition is affected by occasional conflicting legal and professional standards for police work increasing public expectations changing crime patterns stricter standards of effectiveness and accountability and frequently inadequacies in the available financial and other resources This publication contains papers on topics such as the control of police powers the prevention of police corruption powers and accountability of private police police and the public Social Psychology and Social Change in Nigeria Denis Chima E. Heath, John Ermisch, Duncan Gallie, British Academy, 2005-02-17 These essays not only describe the major changes in British society in recent years but seek to understand and explain what is happening They consider the wide variety of mechanisms that underlie these changes in particular processes of social interaction The ill understood nature of these mechanisms may be a major reason why so much social reform has proved ineffective By highlighting the complexities of the causal mechanisms sociological research can make a major contribution to policy and public debate While these papers do not claim that sociology will provide all the answers they demonstrate that it has made real progress in understanding the social changes that Britain has experienced in recent decades      Mobilities, Social Change and Crime Konrad Buczkowski, Paulina Wiktorska, 2023-12-05 This book presents a synthesis of selected trends in the dynamics and structure of crime in Poland over the past 30 years in the context of ongoing social transformations in the wider region The book explores the impact of the deep systemic transformation of the late 1980s and early 1990s on the phenomenon of crime its structure and dynamics and the policy of its control in the following decades It also examines the impact of changes resulting from the dynamic development of Polish society in the 21st century in the context of global changes towards the emergence of a new form of collective life a mobile information society based on modern technologies The focus is primarily on those deviant behaviours that can most obviously be linked to social changes primarily political economic legal and technological The work examines disclosed crime figures available in official statistics It also looks to the future considering the global societal changes caused by the outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic Based on preliminary observations made in selected countries the authors describe associated changes in criminal behaviour and identify some pivotal developments that may influence future trends The book will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of criminal law criminology

Change Angus and Converse, Philip E. Campbell, Angus Campbell, Philip E. Becker, 2006 Updated for 2006 Social Change in America is a fascinating and fact filled overview of how American society has changed and evolved in recent times Topics covered include family life work and employment housing wealth and poverty education health crime volunteer activity religion and religious affiliation politics and more      Democratic Policing in Transitional and Developing Countries Michael D. Wiatrowski, 2016-05-13 Is it possible to create democratic forms of policing in transitional and developing societies This volume argues that policing models and practices promoted by the west are often inadequate for adoption by countries making democratic transitions because they do not adequately address issues such as human rights equity co production accountability openness and organizational change Therefore police reform is often limited to a one size fits all approach The book expands the dialogue so that discussions of democratic policing around the world are more realistic comprehensive and sensitive to the local context Detailed case studies on Iraq South Africa Northern Ireland and Kazakhstan provide a realistic assessment of the current state of policing The editors use the studies to suggest how to promote democratic policing and other important goals of democratic reform around the world The volume will assist academics policy makers NGOs and others in tailoring a local democratic policing strategy within a broader framework to enhance socioeconomic development and citizen capacity build social capital reduce various forms of conflict and support human rights     APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service ,     Team Policing National Criminal Justice Reference Service (U.S.),1976     LEAA Newsletter United States.
