Ambient Media Paul

Roquet,2016-02-01 Ambient Media examines music video art film and literature as tools of atmospheric design in contemporary Japan and what it means to use media as a resource for personal mood regulation Paul Roquet traces the emergence of ambient styles from the environmental music and Erik Satie boom of the 1960s and 1970s to the more recent therapeutic emphasis on healing and relaxation Focusing on how an atmosphere works to reshape those dwelling within it Roquet shows how ambient aesthetics can provide affordances for reflective drift rhythmic attunement embodied security and urban coexistence Musicians video artists filmmakers and novelists in Japan have expanded on Brian Eno's notion of the ambient as a style generating calm and a space to think exploring what it means to cultivate an ambivalent tranquility set against the uncertain horizons of an ever shifting social landscape Offering a new way of understanding the emphasis on reading the air in Japanese culture Ambient Media documents both the adaptive and the alarming sides of the increasing deployment of mediated moods Arguing against critiques of mood regulation that see it primarily as a form of social pacification Roquet makes a case for understanding ambient media as a neoliberal response to older modes of collective attunement one that enables the indirect shaping of social behavior while also allowing individuals to feel like they are the ones ultimately in control

A Primer on Unified Feel Theory Jerome Jacob Rappoport,2006-06-02 For each of us life's dilemma can be reduced to two positions 1 The universe always existed you exist for a fleeting moment and the universe continues on 2 The universe was created when you were born and it will cease to exist when you die Both of these perspectives are absolutely true and they pose for the inquirer a dichotomous enigma Religion or what is purported to be so should be involved with these two aspects but it's not Unified Feel Theory is not religion but a religious process to be experienced and struggled with by every inquiring mind singularly and alone Not until the quintessential self is known by its own inquiring mind can it be of any meaningful service to its self or to others Society has managed to intimidate and encapsulate each inner self to such a degree that only those aspects and qualities needed and wanted by the collective are nurtured and allowed to make their presence known and be seen as the outer self The Equilibrium Texts outfit and encourage an inward journey to seek rescue and bring forth one's own inner being

Mortal Spirit Brian Gleason,2001-11 Mortal Spirit takes us on a compelling journey from naivete to wisdom from instinct to heightened consciousness In an age dominated by psychopharmacological and solution focused treatments for human discontents many of us have turned to spiritual teachings for succor Yet here too we often do not find the answers we desire Human development and spiritual evolution are part of a continuum of self transcendence Mortal Spirit is the recognition of our ever evolving nature The power of Brian Gleason's message is in his willingness to challenge the sacred cows of both psychology and spirituality Gleason cogently argues that until we accept the biological realities of our beingness we will forever flounder in a fantasy world of hoped for immortality To be fully alive in this very moment is the highest spiritual challenge We cannot get there through traditional psychotherapy or classical spiritual practices alone

Gleason's elegant work opens us to a new paradigm called spiritual somatics. Here we learn that the human energy field must embrace all the potent forces of the universe in a developmentally appropriate sequence. Both pleasure and pain must be fully experienced on this path. The capacity to tolerate strong emotions is fundamental to self-transcendence. Spiritual somatic theory suggests that body and spirit must develop in harmony for personal evolution to unfold. Sex, Ecology,

Spirituality Ken Wilber, 2001-01-02. Hailed as one of the most significant books ever published, this work of far-reaching vision is a comprehensive exploration of the evolution of human consciousness. In this tour de force of scholarship and vision, Ken Wilber traces the course of evolution from matter to life to mind and describes the common patterns that evolution takes in all three of these domains. From the emergence of mind, he traces the evolution of human consciousness through its major stages of growth and development. Wilber particularly focuses on modernity and postmodernity, what they mean, how they impact gender issues, psychotherapy, ecological concerns, and various liberation movements, and how the modern and postmodern world conceive of Spirit. This second edition features forty pages of new material, new diagrams, and extensively revised notes. The Physics and Metaphysics of Transubstantiation Mark P. Fusco, 2023-08-18. In this book, Mark P. Fusco offers a historical, philosophical, and theological review and appraisal of current research into quantum, post-modern, atheistic, mathematical, and philosophical theories that engage our interpretation of Hans Urs von Balthasar and Ferdinand Ulrich's accounts of Ur-Kenosis. This cross-disciplinary approach inspires a new speculative metaphysical theory based on the representation of being as a holo-somatic ontology. Holocryptic metaphysics gives us a novel interpretation of transubstantiation as it is founded on the findings of quantum mechanical theory. The quantum object and black hole's properties present a new way to explain physical matter based on its holographic identity. This scientific theory for representing physical matter's identity is recognized, for example, in the symmetry existing between a subatomic particle and its orbital shell, a single particle's identity in relationship to its thermodynamic system, Hawking radiation, and black hole entropy. Further, the properties of quantum non-locality and teleportation signpost a new way to understand the Eternal Logos relationship to Jesus Christ and the Eucharist. Compassionate Touch Clyde W. Ford, 1999. This chiropractor's guide to uncovering the emotional and psychological sources of physical pain includes exercises that may be done individually or with a trusted partner. 14 charts.

Copenhagen 2013 - 100 Years On: Origins, Innovations and Controversies Emilija Kiehl, 2015-12-25. The Nineteenth Triannual Congress of the International Association for Analytical Psychology (IAAP) was held in Copenhagen, Denmark, from August 18-23, 2013. Copenhagen 2013: 100 years on: Origins, Innovations, and Controversies was the theme, honoring the psychological transformations experienced by C. G. Jung beginning in 1913, while also reflecting upon the evolving world and Jungian Community a century later. Psychoanalysis and Projective Methods in Personality Assessment Benoît Verdon, Catherine Azoulay, 2019-10-15. This unique book synthesizes the work of leading thinkers of the French School of psychoanalytical projective methods in personality assessment. The French

School is a direct successor to Rorschach's and Murray's original approaches using the Rorschach Test and the Thematic Apperception Test TAT. Underlying this method is the idea of the coexistence of conscious and unconscious processes of opposite instinctual pairs and of agents that are ruled by conflicts. Freud's Transitional activity is seen as part of an intermediate space, a mediator space and bearer of messages between the subject and the clinician Winnicott. This book brings to life the important contributions of the French School, firstly exploring its theories and methods and then its clinical applications. Detailed case studies from different stages of life examine the psychopathology of everyday life with its severe and disabling states of suffering. Contemporary advances in research and clinical work are presented and the groundbreaking early work of Nina Rausch de Traubenberg, Vica Shentoub and Rosine Debray are also critically reread and discussed. Clinical tools adapted for clinicians and researchers in the appendices include a useful schema to facilitate the interpretation of the Rorschach and TAT together, a list of latent solicitations for the TAT and the current version of the TAT Scoring Grid. This book is essential reading for clinical psychologists, psychiatrists, psychotherapists, researchers and students interested in applying psychoanalytical theory to projective methods.

The Soul and its Instrumental Body A.P. Bos, 2003-04-10 For more than 1800 years it has been supposed that Aristotle viewed the soul as the entelechy of the visible body which is equipped with organs. This book argues that in actual fact he saw the soul as the entelechy of a natural body that serves as its instrument. This correction puts paid to W. Jaeger's hypothesis of a three phase development in Aristotle. The author of this book defends the unity of Aristotle's philosophy of living nature in De anima in the biological treatises and in the lost dialogues. Aristotle should therefore be regarded as the author of the notion of the vehicle of the soul and of a non-Platonic dualism. The current understanding of his influence on Hellenistic philosophy needs to change accordingly.

Flamenco and Bullfighting Adair Landborn, 2015-09-18 Flamenco dance and bullfighting are parallel arts with shared traditions, performance conventions and vocabularies of movement. This volume introduces readers to an ongoing discussion in Spanish scholarship about the links between these two quintessentially Spanish arts. The author, a dancer and a student of bullfighting, describes the informal practice of both arts in private settings and their emergence as formal public rituals in the bullfighting arena and on the flamenco stage. Key bullfighting techniques and their influence on flamenco dance style are discussed in the context of understanding the worldview and kinesthetic culture of Spain.

Living in the Borderland Jerome S. Bernstein, 2006-02-01 Living in the Borderland addresses the evolution of Western consciousness and describes the emergence of the Borderland, a spectrum of reality that is beyond the rational yet is palpable to an increasing number of individuals. Building on Jungian theory, Jerome Bernstein argues that a greater openness to transrational reality experienced by Borderland personalities allows new possibilities for understanding and healing confounding clinical and developmental enigmas. There are many people whose experiences of reality are outside the mainstream of Western culture; often they see themselves as abnormal because they have no articulated frame of reference for their experience. The concept of the

Borderland personality explains much of their experience In three sections this book examines the psychological and clinical implications of the evolution of consciousness and looks at how the new Borderland consciousness bridges the mind body divide Subjects covered include Genesis Evolution of the Western Ego Transrational Data in a Western Clinical Context Synchronicity Trauma and Borderland Transcendence Environmental Illness Complex Integration of Navajo and Western healing approaches for Borderland Personalities Living in the Borderland challenges the standard clinical model which views normality as an absence of pathology and which equates normality with the rational Jerome S Bernstein describes how psychotherapy itself often contributes to the alienation of Borderland personalities by misperceiving the difference between the pathological and the sacred The case studies included illustrate the potential this has for causing serious psychic and emotional damage to the patient This challenge to the orthodoxies and complacencies of Western medicine s concept of pathology will interest Jungian Analysts Psychotherapists Psychiatrists and other physicians as well as educators of children Jerome S Bernstein is a Jungian Analyst in private practice in Santa Fe New Mexico

The Environment of Compassion Cia Sautter, 2025-05-09 The Environment of Compassion explores questions of what it means to be in relationship to nature if and how it is a religious experience and how understanding humans as part of nature alters theology The book offers a performance perspective that looks at ritual dance and theatre as a means of presenting discussion of sacred values in the public realm The premise is that performance may serve as an effective means for developing human sacred values that recognize the more than human world as it increases intersubjective awareness to address issues of social and environmental justice The author investigates religion and theatre as a means of better understanding how eco consciousness requires an aesthetic of the sacred Rather than separate religion culture and nature the book presents an aesthetic looking at the relationship between them It considers how an embodied theatrical story might develop an inclusive community of compassion Weaving the chapters together is an account of The Garden A Refuge an eco centered play based on the biblical book of Job Ecotheology aesthetics and embodiment theories are examined throughout with scholarship and examples drawn largely from the Jewish tradition The book is relevant to scholars of religion and theology particularly those with an interest in the environment as well as theatre dance and performance studies

The African Other Abraham Olivier, 2020-06-29 This book provides a much needed philosophical response to the recurrent postcolonial call to uproot the prevalent workings of the colonial regime with a close focus on the African context The work addresses a range of questions concerning the othering of Africans in the postcolonial context specifically by focusing on the philosophical analysis of problems of justice the effect of injustice on the formation of the self and strategies of resistance against the injustice of othering Questions raised in this collection include who or what is the other Who is the African other In what ways are Africans othered What is the effect of unjust conditions on the formation of the self In what sense is othering an injustice How can justice concern itself with the problem of othering What are the strategies to resist the injustice of othering Can one ever do justice to the experience of the subaltern other in abstract terms of philosophical analysis In considering these questions this book will be of interest to all those studying the intersectional ways in which colonial injustice is manifested in the postcolony as well as those seeking greater philosophical reflection on postcolonial justice This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki

Creation and Evolution Friedrich S. Rothschild, 2018-05-04 The issues surrounding Darwin's theory of evolution as a function of the survival of the fittest have hardly abated since they were initially promulgated about 150 ago The reason is clear behind the theory of evolution is a doctrine of structure of organisms that can be explained only by fitting the adaptation to the external world The older doctrines of creation have been at odds with evolutionism from the outset sometimes utilizing straight theological arguments and at other times employing sophisticated scientific arguments Into the breach steps Friedrich S Rothschild a trained neurologist psychologist and physician On the basis of his researches in comparative embryology Rothschild argues that the central nervous system of animals as well as humans conveys meaning just like language and not just a system aimed at adaptation to the external environment His theory of biosemiotics introduces the concept of inner adaptation This adaptation to the principal forces assign meaning to life In monotheistic religions this force is called God The issue of adaptation is therefore both external and internal related to growth of the person no less than the environment This book is intended for those who are interested in life and its varied meanings to students of sociobiology and medicine as well as those concerned with humanities
