is the Bricklayers I ll have gentlemen friends there and so ll you The Al Vista band ll be along an you know it plays heavenly An you just love dancin Twenty feet away a stout elderly woman interrupted the girl s persuasions The elderly woman s back was turned and the back loose bulging and misshapen began a convulsive heaving Gawd she cried out O Gawd She flung wild glances like those of an entrapped animal up and down the big whitewashed room that panted with heat and that was thickly humid with the steam that sizzled from the damp cloth under the irons of the many ironers From the girls and women near her all swinging irons steadily but at high pace came quick glances and labor efficiency suffered to the extent of a score of suspended or inadequate movements The elderly woman s cry had caused a tremor of money loss to pass among the piece work ironers of fancy starch She gripped herself and her iron with a visible effort and dabbed futilely at the frail frilled garment on the board under her hand I thought she d got em again didn t you the girl said It s a shame a woman of her age and condition Saxon answered as she frilled a lace ruffle with a hot fluting iron Her movements were delicate safe and swift and though her face was wan with fatigue and exhausting heat there was no slackening in her pace An her with seven an two of em in reform school the girl at the next board sniffed sympathetic agreement But you just got to come to Weasel Park to morrow Saxon The Bricklayers is always lively tugs of war fat man races real Irish jiggin an an everything An the floor of the pavilion s swell But the elderly woman brought another interruption She dropped her iron on the shirtwaist clutched at the board fumbled it caved in at the knees and hips and like a half empty sack collapsed on the floor her long shriek rising in the pent room to the acrid smell of scorching cloth The women at the boards near to her scrambled first to the hot iron to save the cloth and then to her while the forewoman hurried belligerently down the aisle The women farther away continued unsteadily at their work losing movements to the extent of a minute s set back to the totality of the efficiency of the fancy starch room Enough to kill a dog the girl muttered thumping her iron down on its rest with reckless determination Workin girls life ain t what it s cracked up Me to quit that s what I m comin to Mary Saxon uttered the other s name with a reproach so profound that she was compelled to rest her own iron for emphasis and so lose a dozen movements Mary flashed a half frightened look across I didn t mean it Saxon she whimpered Honest I didn t I wouldn t never go that way But I leave it to you if a day like this don t get on anybody s nerves Listen to that The stricken woman on her back drumming her heels on the floor was shrieking persistently and monotonously like a mechanical siren Two women clutching her under the arms were dragging her down the aisle She drummed and shrieked the length of it The door opened and a vast muffled roar of machinery burst in and in the roar of it the drumming and the shrieking were drowned ere the door swung shut Remained of the episode only the scorch of cloth drifting ominously through the air It s sickenin said Mary And thereafter for a long time the many irons rose and fell the pace of the room in no wise diminished while the forewoman strode the aisles with a threatening eye for incipient breakdown and hysteria Occasionally an ironer lost the stride for an instant gasped or sighed then caught it up again with weary determination The long summer day waned but not the heat and under the raw flare of electric light the work went on By nine o clock the first women began to go home The mountain of fancy starch had been demolished all save the few remnants here and there on the boards where the ironers still labored Saxon finished ahead of Mary at whose board she paused on the way out Saturday night an another week gone Mary said mournfully her young cheeks pallid and hollowed her black eyes blue shadowed and tired What d you think you ve made Saxon Twelve and a quarter was the answer just touched with pride And I d a made more if it wasn t for that fake bunch of starchers My I got to pass it to you Mary congratulated You re a sure fierce hustler just eat it up Me I ve only ten an a half an for a hard week See you on the nine forty Sure now We can just fool around until the dancin begins A lot of my gentlemen friends ll be there in the afternoon Two blocks from the laundry where an arc light showed a gang of toughs on the corner Saxon quickened her pace Unconsciously her face set and hardened as she passed She did not catch the words of the muttered comment but the rough laughter it raised made her guess and warmed her cheeks with resentful blood Three blocks more turning once to left and once to right she walked on through the night that was already growing cool On either side were workingmen s houses of weathered wood the ancient paint grimed with the dust of years conspicuous only for cheapness and ugliness Dark it was but she made no mistake the familiar sag and screeching reproach of the front gate welcome under her hand She went along the narrow walk to the rear avoided the missing step without thinking about it and entered the kitchen where a solitary gas jet flickered She turned it up to the best of its flame It was a small room not disorderly because of lack of furnishings to disorder it The plaster discolored by the steam of many wash days was crisscrossed with cracks from the big earthquake of
