Somebody's Gotta Do It Adrienne Martini, 2020-03-03 50 percent memoir 50 percent advice manual and 100 percent heart The New York Times Somebody's Gotta Do It is a humorous and instructive memoir about a progressive woman who runs for very small town elected office in a red county and wins yay and then realizes the critical importance of the job Back in the fall of 2016 before casting her vote for Hillary Clinton Adrienne Martini a knitter a runner a mom and a resident of rural Otsego County in snowy upstate New York knew who her Senators were wasn't too sure who her Congressman was and had only vague inklings about who her state reps were She's always thought of politicians as oily Then she spent election night curled in bed texting her husband who was at work unable to stop shaking And after the presidential inauguration she reached out to Dave a friend of a friend who was involved in the Otsego County Democratic Party Maybe she could help out with phone calls or fundraising But Dave's idea was she should run for office Someone had to do it And so in the year that 26 000 women up from 920 the year before contacted Emily's List about running for offices large and small Adrienne Martini ran for the District 12 seat on the Otsego County Board And became one of the 14 delegates who collectively serve one rural American county overseeing a budget of 130 million Highway repair Soil and water conservation Child safety Want wifi Need a coroner It turns out local office matters A lot

Somebody Has to Tell My Story Sylvia Schmidt, 2025-04-23 August 26 2021 is a day that changed Sylvia's life forever In a matter of four hours on that day she would learn that everything she thought she knew everything she thought she had and the life that she had lived for the past sixteen years was all a lie COVID had taken the man she was joined in marriage with and had loved for so long but that was only the beginning With his final breath her husband would deliver an emotional and mental blow on her so traumatic that it was only through her faith in God and his blessings would she rise again like a phoenix from the ashes

'Somebody Had to Do It' Barrie Williams, 2010 IF you're looking for the archetypal villain in a tale of class hatred they don't come any more tailor made than Christopher Pole Carew The roots of his aristocratic family tree are 32 generations deep and he exudes the aura of the upper class So when in the trades union dominated 1970s he became the newspaper industry's notorious Union Buster his role required no embellishment In the 70s and 80s as the maverick boss of T Bailey Forman Ltd publishers of the Nottingham Evening Post he tackled the enormous issues of union power and new technology a decade before anybody else dared to try Then he went on to mastermind much of Press mogul Rupert Murdoch's seismic move from Fleet Street to Wapping smashing the national newspaper unions The battles involving Pole Carew were among the bloodiest industrial conflicts of the 20th Century When the revolution he started had run its course thousands of jobs had been wiped out To this day he is a hate figure in union folk lore despised as a callous capitalist ogre an evil enemy of the working class ruthless in crushing workers rights a name to be spat out with revulsion Yet those the comparative few who have seen beyond the myth tell of Pole Carew's compassion and sensitivity a kind considerate generous employer a surprisingly multi talented creative and
