The Everlasting Man G. K.

Chesterton, 2021-01-05 The best modern argument for Christianity I've ever read Be careful you might just be converted Ross Douthat The Week Philosopher and literary critic as well as creator of the popular detective Father Brown G K Chesterton takes us on a journey through history and human civilization in this classic work of lay theology arguing against the views of some of his contemporaries H G Wells notable among them that Jesus was simply a historical figure albeit an extraordinary one and Christianity is no different than any other religion A book that had profound influence on C S Lewis author of the Chronicles of Narnia series The Everlasting Man is considered one of the great modern examples of Christian apologetics

Bonhoeffer's Christocentric Theology and Fundamental Debates in Environmental Ethics Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2017-05-04 There is widespread understanding of the close connection between religion and the ecological crisis and that in order to amend this crisis theological resources are needed This monograph seeks to contribute to this endeavor by engaging the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer His theology is particularly suitable in this context due to its open ended nature and to the prophetic and radical nature of the questions he was prepared to ask that is why there are many other attempts to contextualize Bonhoeffer's theology in areas that he himself has not directly written about In this monograph Steven van den Heuvel first of all addresses the question of how to translate Bonhoeffer's theology in a methodologically sound way He settles on a modified form of the general method of correlation Then secondly van den Heuvel sets out to describe five major concepts in Bonhoeffer's work bringing these into critical interplay with discussions in environmental ethics and eco theology. In making the correlations he thoroughly describes each concept situating it in the historic and intellectual background of Bonhoeffer's time. He then transposes these concepts to contemporary environmental ethics describing what contribution Bonhoeffer's theology can make.

The Everyman Chesterton G. K. Chesterton, 2011-04-05 The first one volume reader of the best of G. K. Chesterton's writing in the full range of genres he mastered. Chesterton was a towering literary figure of the early twentieth century, accomplished and prolific in many literary forms. A forceful proponent of Christianity and a critic of both conservatism and liberalism, he set out to describe nothing less than the spiritual journey of humanity in Orthodoxy and The Everlasting Man, his most enduring books. He is famous as well for his beloved Father Brown detective stories, his satirical and comic verse, his profoundly witty paradoxes and aphorisms, and his penetrating studies of such figures as Charles Dickens, St. Francis of Assisi, and St. Thomas Aquinas. The Everyman Chesterton contains samples of his poems, stories, essays, and biographies, as well as the influential works of religious, political, and social thought in which he championed the common man and for which he is most admired.

Light and Truth - The Old Testament Horatius Bonar, 2023-09-01 God speaks to us through the Bible. That Book embodies His words. Creation itself is the visible embodiment of His power and wisdom. It is the result of His words. This Book of His is in a different way the effect of His speaking. It is His written wisdom and power. There is His voice to us. The thunder and tempest are His loud voice of grandeur. The sunshine and the gentle breeze are His still small voice. But deeper, clearer keener softer and still more penetrating than all of these is His written Word to us The Bible is what it is because it contains the words of God It is through the Word and in connection with it that God communicates with us The Word revives Your word has revived me Psalm 119 50 The word produces faith Faith comes from hearing Romans 10 17 The Word strengthens comforts heals nourishes and revives It gets into contact with each part of our souls and works its own work there And it does this because it is divine No human words could be trusted to work the work in a human soul so unrestrictedly It is not eloquence poetry nor argument but something more than all these together It is something peculiar and indescribable which man could not have formed and which he cannot understand that makes it so suitable for the soul of a foolish and sinful man
