Things Janet Gezari, 2007-02-22 Emily Brontë's poems are more frequently celebrated than read. Ironically their very uniqueness and strangeness have made them less interesting to current feminist critics than other poetry written by Victorian women. This much needed study reinstates Emily Brontë's poems at the heart of Romantic and Victorian concerns while at the same time underlining their enduring relevance for readers today. Last Things presents the poems as the achievement of a powerfully independent mind responding to its own inner experience of the world while seeking always an abrogation of human limits compatible with a stern morality. Although the book does not discuss all of Brontë's poems it seeks to be comprehensive by undertaking an analysis of individual poems, the progress she made from the beginning of her career as a poet to its end, her poetical fragments and her writing practice and her motives for writing poetry. Last Things also brings the emotions and concerns that inform Wuthering Heights into sharper focus by relating them to the poems.

Simply a Whisper Lenni Nordloh, 2014-10-21. Does God speak to us today? Maybe He just whispers to our heart. This book was written to encourage believers to know that God does whisper to our hearts by the power of the Holy Spirit. Be still and know that I am God is His message. He prompts his whispers through nature, music, prayers, and generations past, through witnessing through the testimonies of other believers, through the power of grace, through the word of God, through angels, through mercy, through the journey of personal growth of faith at every age, and through the seasons of life. God whispers the truth of His love to humanity, but you need to take time to rest. Set aside the time to quietly listen. He wants to bless and draw close to all who would choose to believe. The author has been on a journey with God that she prays will open other hearts to the power of God's blessings and His personal message. God has offered forgiveness and a purpose to all those that would humbly surrender to Him in faith.
