Other Voices, Other Towns Caleb Pirtle III,2012-07-10 Other Voices Other Towns has in reality taken Caleb Pirtle III a lifetime to write During the thirty years he has been writing about travel across this great land he spent much of his time listening to those whose paths he crossed Pirtle collects people He collects their stories He is firmly convinced that everyone who has ever walked across the street has a great story to tell if only someone will take the time to listen Pirtle has recorded many of them in Other Voices Other Towns The sketches the anecdotes the tales they tell the memories they have stored their lessons of life make you feel better or make you want to cry Their stories are filled with disappointments and with inspiration The blind man who tends his beehives in the Smoky Mountains and knows that someday I m going to where the mountains are higher and prettier and you don t get bee stung The rancher who bought a whole town because it had a beer joint and he could get a drink any time he was thirsty The woman who built a major university on the strength of a dime The grieving father searching for the best little girl in the world The vagabond who became a great writer because he flunked grammar and could not enroll in college The last man on the mountain the last survivor on an island the last woman strong enough to tame though not civilize the Okefenokee Swamp The teacher who taught history in school by singing the lessons he had written as songs The men who created Lum and Abner The scientist digging for clues to prove a space ship had crashed in the backyard of Aurora Texas The performer who rescued the abandoned remains of a crumbling theater The actor who figured out that a theater ticket was worth a mess of greens or a gallon milk during the Great Depression The old con artist and wildcatter who defied the odds and discovered a great oilfield The politician who had one cause passed it in the legislature and went home because there were no other bills that concerned him The fishermen who stumbled across pearls in a landlocked lake The girl singer who rode in a small RV behind the star until she became the star The sad journey down the trail of broken promises And the greatest worm fiddler of them all For Pirtle other voices in other towns have all been joined together to form the traveler s story Library Journal ,1974 mountain chant literally chant towards a place within the mountains is one of a large number practiced by the shamans or medicine men of the Navajo tribe I have selected it as the first of those to be described because I have witnessed it the most frequently because it is the most interesting to the Caucasian spectator and because it is the best known to the whites who visit and reside in and around the Navajo country Its chief interest to the stranger lies in the various public performances of the last night Like other great rites of the shamans it has its secret ceremonies of many days duration in the medicine lodge but unlike the others it ends with a varied show in the open air which all are invited to witness Another ceremony which I have attended and which the whites usually call the Ya bichy Dance Y bitcai has a final public exhibition which occupies the whole night but it is unvaried Few Europeans can be found who have remained awake later than midnight to watch it Such is not the case with the rite now to be described Here the white man is rarely the first to leave at dawn      Teaching Children as the Spirit Leads Karen J.
