Somewhat Troubled Waters:

Somewhat Troubled Waters Pete Sinclair, 2002 The author gives you no answer to anything but argues about and relate his experiences of what is to live on the wildwest territory maintaining a balance between environment and functioning in the modern society

Bridging Troubled Waters George Keith Pitman, 2002-01-01 Today 166 million people in 18 countries lack access to adequate water resources and it is estimated that by 2025 the number of people affected will increase to approximately three billion or 40 per cent of the worlds population There is now an international consensus that the severity of the problem requires a strategic approach that emphasises the equitable and sustainable management of water resources This report examines the implementation of the World Banks 1993 Water Resources Management policy and evaluates the effectiveness of strategies adopted which seek to address identified problems It also makes recommendations for improving World Bank policy and strategy in the water sector
