Internationalization of Higher Education in East Asia Ka-Ho Mok,Kar Ming Yu,2013-11-12 The rise in demand for higher education in the Asia Pacific region is an undeniable reflection of the growing pace of globalization and the subsequent pressures imposed by it Aspiring to become globally competitive and to position favourably in the global university league tables governments in Asia have either engaged in a serious quest to become a regional education hub or they have concentrated on developing transnational higher education to create more opportunities in order to meet their citizens pressing demand for higher education Internationalization of Higher Education in East Asia critically examines and provides comparative perspectives on the major strategies that selected Asian countries and societies have adopted to transform their higher education sector and enhance their national competitiveness in the increasingly globalized world This volume by leading scholars in the field of education development and policy studies makes critical reflections on how Asian governments in particular and universities in general have responded to the growing challenges of globalization by promoting more internationalization student mobility and entrepreneurship in higher education This book is an essential collection for policy makers researchers and postgraduate students studying higher education Asian education and international education Europa World Year Taylor & Francis Group,2004 Lok Sabha Debates India. Parliament. Lok Sabha,2002 Separation of Powers in African Constitutionalism Charles M. Fombad,2016-03-03 The new series Stellenbosch Handbooks in African Constitutional Law will engage with contemporary issues of constitutionalism in Africa filling a notable gap in African comparative constitutional law Separation of Powers in African Constitutionalism is the first in the series examining one of the critical measures introduced by African constitutional designers in their attempts to entrench an ethos of constitutionalism on the continent Taking a critical look at the different ways in which attempts have been made to separate the different branches of government the Handbook examines the impact this is having on transparent and accountable governance Beginning with an overview of constitutionalism in Africa and the different influences on modern African constitutional developments it looks at the relationship between the legislature and the executive as well as the relationship between the judiciary and the political branches Despite differences in approaches between the different constitutional cultures that have influenced developments in Africa there remain common problems One of these problems is the constant friction in the relationship between the three branches and the resurgent threats of authoritarianism which clearly suggest that there remain serious problems in both constitutional design and implementation The book also studies the increasing role being played by independent constitutional institutions and how they complement the checks and balances associated with the traditional three branches of government Teacher Education Landscapes in India Pranati Panda,2024-09-18 This book examines the unexplored dimensions in the teacher education sector in India It engages with critical concerns and attempts to provide a comprehensive and holistic perspective on how governance and quality management are conceptualised debated developed and implemented in the teacher education sector in India Drawing arguments from research and contributions of academicians the book explores four central themes of teacher education namely governance and management in teacher education management of pre service teacher education quality management in teacher education and financing and political economy of teacher education It focuses on the current operational model situational efficiency and provides a comprehensive analysis of the various reforms and initiatives taken at theoretical and practical levels for the transformation of teacher education Presenting a focused overview of the critical dimensions of teacher education and rich in empirical evidence this book will be of interest to students researchers and teachers of education sociology of education urban education politics of education and educational studies It will also be useful for teachers teacher educators academicians scholars and policymakers in the education sector Handbook on the Politics of Higher Education Brendan Cantwell, Hamish Coate, Roger King, 2018 Understanding the politics of Higher Education is becoming more important as the sector is increasingly recognised as a vital source of innovation skills economic prosperity and personal wellbeing Yet key political differences remain over such issues as who should pay for higher education how should it be accountable and how we measure its quality and productivity Particularly are states or markets the key in helping to address such matters The Handbook provides framing perspectives and perspectives chapters on funding governance and regulation and pieces on the political economy of higher education and on the increased role of external stakeholders and indicators Parliamentary Debates New Zealand.
