Politics and the Environment Michael Howes, Griffith University, Australia, 2013-10-31 An evenhanded realistic and thoughtful approach to identifying environmental problems and management goals Stephen Zavestoski Assistant Professor of Sociology and Environmental Studies University of San Francisco a theoretically advanced yet accessible treatment of environmental governance drawing on an impressive range of material to investigate the roles of states and industries in addressing environmental problems Harriet Bulkeley Department of Geography University of Durham Written in the vein of critical optimism this book is pitched at the right level to inspire people trying to make pragmatic changes to their governmental and industrial systems trying to make a difference where it counts Timothy Doyle Associate Professor in Geographical and Environmental Studies University of Adelaide What is the future for our environment We face serious risks of major industrial accidents and global environmental degradation yet new technological developments promise a standard of living unimaginable only a few generations ago Michael Howes outlines the ways in which governments have responded to environmental risk over the past four decades He examines the key environmental issues and the claims of envirosceptics offering a new strategy for making major administrative decisions in the face of uncertainty He explains how governments have developed environmental policy and the ongoing tensions between science industry the state social movements and electoral politics In a clear straightforward manner he shows how to use the work of theorists Ulrich Beck Michel Foucault and John Dryzek to analyse environmental policy He also develops a new method of measuring the effectiveness of environmental governance in developed countries Howes draws on a wide array of sources from business government environment groups academic research and NGOs to illustrate his arguments with comparisons between the environmental policies of the UK the USA and Australia

Active Citizenship in Schools John Potter, 2003-12-16 Community Service Volunteers is known nationally for its citizenship and community learning schemes and provides a support and consultancy service for schools education authorities and government This book is based on that experience and carries

The Dynamics of Devolution Alan Trench, 2015-10-26 This book is the fifth and final volume in the State of the Nations yearbook series on devolution in the UK This book explores the future of devolution by examining the new political dynamics devolution has put into play These concern devolution's operation and also its impact how devolution has altered politics in the parts of the UK that experience devolution and in the UK as a whole Chapters examine the key topics in devolution and examine the interplay between institutional change and social economic and political forces both those that existed before devolution and those brought into being by it This interplay creates scope for varying forms of change but what that change means varies from topic to topic In some cases such as Wales institutional issues remain to the fore while in others such as Scotland pressures for institutional change are relatively limited but the devolved institutions create scope for new political factors to come into play

Challenging Multiculturalism Raymond Taras, 2012-12-17 Tackles the challenge of dismantling the multicultural model without destroying diversity in European society Have Europeans become hostile to multiculturalism When people vote for anti immigration parties do they also support their anti multiculturalism policies And are right wing extremists becoming the storm troopers of the struggle against diversity In recent years European political leaders from Angela Merkel to David Cameron have discarded the term multiculturalism and now express scepticism criticism and even hostility towards multicultural ways of organising their societies Yet they are unprepared to reverse the diversity existing in their states These contradictory choices have different political consequences in the countries examined in this book The future of European liberalism is being played out as multicultural notions of belonging inclusion tolerance and the national home are brought into question Justice of the Peace and Local Government Review ,1887 The State of Wisconsin Blue Book ,2001 Intergenerational Justice in Sustainable Development Treaty Implementation Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger,Marcel Szabó,Alexandra R. Harrington,2021-07-15

This volume analyses key theoretical institutional and legal aspects of intergenerational equity and justice in multi level sustainable development treaty implementation Making Sense of Cities Blair Badcock,2014-04-23 In 2000 for the first time a majority of the world s population was living in cities The trend towards increasing urbanization shows no sign of slowing and the third millennium looks set to be an unprecedentedly urban one Making Sense of Cities provides an up to date vibrant and accessible introduction to urban geography It offers students a sense of the patterns and processes of urbanization and the spatial organisation of cities recognizing the significance of globalization economics politics and culture from a range of perspectives Above all it seeks to provide a relevant approach inviting students to engage with competing theories of the urban and to assess them against the background of their own opinions and personal experience Examples and case studies are drawn from a range of international settings from San Francisco to Shanghai Sydney to Singapore giving a genuinely global coverage The book is written in a fresh and engaging style and is fully illustrated throughout It is designed to appeal to any student of the urban and will be essential to students of geography urban studies town planning and land economy Know it All, Find it Fast Robert John Duckett,Bob Duckett,Peter Walker,Christinea Donnelly,2008

There is a queue the phone is ringing the photocopier has jammed and your enquirer is waiting for a response You are stressed and you can feel the panic rising Where do you go to find the information you need to answer the question promptly and accurately Answering queries from users is one of the most important services undertaken by library and information staff Yet it is also one of the most difficult least understood subjects There are still very few materials available to help frontline staff often paraprofessional develop their reader enquiry skills This award winning sourcebook is an essential guide to where to look to find the answers quickly It is designed as a first point of reference for library and information practitioners to be depended upon if they are unfamiliar with the subject of an enquiry or wish to find out more It is arranged in an easily searchable fully cross referenced A Z list of around 150 of the subject areas most frequently handled at enquiry desks Each subject entry lists the most important information sources and where to locate them including printed and electronic sources relevant websites and useful contacts for referral purposes The authors use their extensive experience in reference work to offer useful tips warn of potential pitfalls and spotlight typical queries and how to tackle them This new edition has been brought right up to date with all sources checked for currency and many new ones added The searchability is enhanced by a comprehensive index to make those essential sources even easier to find saving you valuable minutes Readership Offering quick and easy pointers to a multitude of information sources this is an invaluable reference deskbook for all library and information staff in need of a speedy answer in reference libraries subject departments and other information units
