Riggs,1994      Ancient Japanese Fairy Tales Y. T. Ozaki,Reed RK.,2016-02-24 Y T Ozaki was an early 20th century translator of Japanese short stories and fairy tales Her translations were fairly liberal but have been popular and were reprinted several times after her death Ozaki came from an unusual background She was the daughter of Baron Ozaki one of the first Japanese men to study in the West and Bathia Catherine Morrison daughter of William Morrison one of their teachers Her parents separated after five years of marriage and her mother retained custody of their three daughters until they became teenagers At that time Yei was sent to live in Japan with her father which she enjoyed Later she refused an arranged marriage left her father s house and became a teacher and secretary to earn money Over the years she traveled back and forth between Japan and Europe as her employment and family duties took her and lived in places as diverse as Italy and the drafty upper floor of a Buddhist temple      Japanese Folk Stories and Fairy Tales Various Authors,2020-09-28 A beautiful princess lived in Inaba She was called the Princess of Yakami and was the loveliest princess in all the land Her skin was like velvet her hair was dark as night and her eyes were as bright and soft as the stars She was sweet as well as fair but willful and when they said Fair Princess you must marry she replied The time has not yet come I see nowhere in Inaba the man who may be my lord At this the court was in despair The Princess would not marry until she was quite ready that the counselors knew They had not counseled the little pretty willful princess for nothing Had the king her father lived it might have been different but he was long since gone and the queen mother could do no more with the princess than could the wise men of the kingdom Early in her life the princess had learned that there was just one thing she could say which no one could answer She had only to look very sweetly at whoever was trying to persuade her to do something and then with a dainty little smile say simply But I don't want to That was all No one not even the wisest of the counselors had ever found an answer to that It was a strange state of affairs for all the little princesses before had been gentle and sweet and had done just what they were told The counselors at length proclaimed that all young men of proper age and rank should present themselves for the princess to look at and see if she liked any of them well enough to marry The news of this quickly spread everywhere It was no time at all before the road to Yakami was seen crowded with youths There were youths tall and short fat and thin handsome and ugly and each hoped he would be the favored suitor Among others there came eighty one brothers each of whom had seen the picture of the princess and wished to win her These brothers were of noble family but the youngest was the only one who was really noble He was as brave as Yositem Eighty of the brothers were ugly and jealous of one another It seemed as if they could agree upon nothing in all the world except treating the youngest meanly They despised him because he was so good and gentle and never rude or quarrelsome The eighty first brother never complained He tried to please his brothers and when he found that he could not he stayed away from them as far as possible When therefore they went to wait on the princess he lingered at the back of the train for his brothers scoffed at him and made him carry their burdens as if he had been a servant The eighty brothers went proudly ahead As they toiled up a mountain side they came upon a poor little hare stretched out upon the grass All his fur had been pulled out and he was ill and wretched Let me tell you what will cure you said one of the brothers with a wicked laugh to his companions Go down to the sea bathe yourself in the salt water and then run to the top of the hill The Wind God of the hilltop will cure you and your fur will grow again Thank you noble prince said the hare and as the eighty brothers turned away laughing he hurried to the sea shore Alas the salt water hurt his tender skin and the sun and wind burned him so that he cried out with pain The eighty first brother trudging along with his brothers bundles heard the cry and hurried to see if some one was hurt Poor little fellow he said pityingly What is the matter Your voice is kind your face is kind and I feel that you have a kind heart said the hare Perhaps you can help me if I tell you my story I will gladly do so if I can said the eighty first brother I was born in the Isle of Oki said the hare When I grew up I longed to see the world but I knew not how to reach the mainland After a long time however I thought of a way Great numbers of crocodiles were in the habit of coming to the beach to sun themselves One day I said to them boastfully There are more hares in Oki than crocodiles in the sea Not so said one of the crocodiles there are a great many more crocodiles Let us count I answered and then both will be satisfied I can count all of you crocodiles very easily You have only to form a line from here to Cape Kita and let the nose of one be at the tail of another and I will run lightly across on your backs and count as I go Then we shall know how many crocodiles there are But how shall we know about the hares asked a crocodile Oh that we can decide later I answered So they did as I had said They formed in a line and I ran across Their broad backs made a good bridge but alas why did I not know enough to hold my tongue As I jumped from the last crocodile to the bank I cried I have fooled you well I don't care how many crocodiles there are I only used you as a bridge to reach the mainland But just as I said this the last monster grabbed me with his teeth and tore off all my fur

Japanese Fairy Tales Various Authors,2020-09-28 Long long ago there lived in Japan a brave warrior known to all as Tawara Toda or My Lord Bag of Rice His true name was Fujiwara Hidesato and there is a very interesting story of how he came to change his name One day he sallied forth in search of adventures for he had the nature of a warrior and could not bear to be idle So he buckled on his two swords took his huge bow much taller than himself in his hand and slinging his quiver on his back started out He had not gone far when he came to the bridge of Seta no Karashi spanning one end of the beautiful Lake Biwa No sooner had he set foot on the bridge than he saw lying right across his path a huge serpent dragon Its body was so big that it looked like the trunk of a large pine tree and it took up the whole width of the bridge One of its huge claws rested on the parapet of one side of the bridge while its tail lay right against the other The monster seemed to be asleep and as it breathed fire and smoke came out of its nostrils At first Hidesato could not help feeling alarmed at the sight of this horrible reptile lying in his path for he must either turn back or walk right over its body He was a brave man however and putting aside all fear went forward dauntlessly Crunch crunch he stepped now on the dragon s body now between its coils and without even one glance backward he went on his way He had only gone a few steps when he heard some one calling him from behind On turning back he was much surprised to see that the monster dragon had entirely disappeared and in its place was a strange looking man who was bowing most ceremoniously to the ground His red hair streamed over his shoulders and was surmounted by a crown in the shape of a dragon s head and his sea green dress was patterned with shells Hidesato knew at once that this was no ordinary mortal and he wondered much at the strange occurrence Japanese
