Small Communities in Religious Life Catherine Widdicombe, 2001 Like the author's previous book Meetings That Work this is a self help manual giving practical advice in an accessible way helping people to realise their full potential Aimed at those in small life giving communities practising collegiality subsidiarity and collaborative reflective ministry the book offers the benefit of Catherine Widdicombe's wide experience to leaders and members of communities who have no outside aid The importance of small communities in religious life is explored and the problems faced while living in them is examined from unfamiliar and unexpected relational demands to new spiritual challenges The author has spent over 20 years working in these areas primarily with women from widely different religious communities and has developed a highly accessible book to help leaders and members of communities who have little access to facilitators

Work, Family and Religion in Contemporary Society Nancy Tatom Ammerman, Wade Clark Roof, 2014-02-04 Until recently religious institutions have been organized to suit the traditional American family where the wife stayed at home caring for children Today churches and synagogues are beginning to adapt to the reality of the American family dual career marriages high levels of divorce interfaith marriages partnerships that may not be marriages Religious organizations must serve families that don't fall into the Ozzie and Harriet mold The first group of papers in this edited volume documents changing trends in the connection between religion work and the family In the second part of the book we see how changing families and flexible congregations are experimenting with new forms of religious life

Community of the Transfiguration Paul R Dekar, 2008-08-28 In the 1930s German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer anticipated the restoration of the Church after the coming Second World War through a new kind of monasticism a way of life of uncompromising adherence to the Sermon on the Mount in imitation of Christ Since then the renewal of Christian monasticism has become a great spiritual movement Imbued with a love for God and neighbour and with a healthy self love people are going to monasteries to deepen their relationship with God to pray and to find peace While some monastic institutions are suffering a decline in traditional vocations many Christians are exploring monastic lifestyles This book introduces The Community of the Transfiguration in Australia the story of a new monastic community and an inspiring source of hope for the world at another time of spiritual social and ecological crisis

British Cinema and the Second World War Robert Murphy, 2005-08-15 The author provides a decade by decade analysis of every film ever made in Britain about World War II It provides a comprehensive account of how Britain has portrayed the war through films

Mission, Ministry, Order David Noel Power, 2008-06-01 What is the mission of the church What are the ministries that further its mission How should the traditional orders of bishop overseer priest presbyter and deacon be reconsidered in the light of 21st century challenges and ecumenical unity These big questions involve a constellation of neuralgic issues both within the Roman Catholic Church and between it and its sister churches both East and West women priests women bishops married priests lay ministries the unaccountability of bishops to their flocks The rapid decline of priests in the US has led to an enormous number of lay people in leadership positions but they can't preside at the Eucharist the heart and soul of Catholic identity and practice and their roles are nebulous undefined and severely constrained Catholic women are voting with their feet over the church's failure to ordain women Lay theologians men and women now outnumber priest theologians but have little standing in the church outside of academia Far reaching agreements on theological issues have been made between Roman Catholicism and Anglicanism and Lutheranism but the practical consequences e.g. shared Eucharists are nil It is against this background that David Power the doyen of sacramental theologians in North America has written a magisterial work on the mission ministry and order of the church that is historically comprehensive theologically progressive ecumenically and globally focused and practical in its prescriptions

Change in Rural Appalachia John D. Photiadis, Harry K. Schwarzweller, 2016-11-11 Appalachia is a region in trouble Even in the more remote coves and hollows major social and economic changes are disturbing the traditional ways of life The conditions which have made it a pocket of poverty cannot be easily eradicated and the rapid changes of recent years have added further severe problems of adjustment which deeply affect the family church life education the folk sub culture and above all the individual Out migration psychological dislocation and cultural alienation are the result The nine contributing scholars have lived and worked in Appalachia they know the people and their customs their problems and their needs They are thoroughly familiar with the programs now in operation and are well qualified to evaluate their success or failure in terms of those needs Furthermore their findings can be applied to other regions and nations wherever an isolated group has been abruptly incorporated into the mainstream of society while many of its peculiar problems remain unsolved Rural Appalachia may in fact be considered a microcosm of the underdeveloped nations of the world the issues raised here far transcend the importance of a regional study The essays are grouped according to four general areas of research The first part deals with the individual in his society the second with six social institutions economy government family religion education and power structure the third with methods and objectives of change and the fourth with the aims of change agencies particularly the Extension Service of the future As the tangle of problems strains and tensions is explored the focus remains steadily upon immediate and long term effects on the individual The book is dedicated to the professional field workers in programs of directed change struggling on the one hand with ideas theories and conceptual innovations and on the other hand with the immediate realities of the local situations
