Small Firms Informally Financed Reazul Islam, Von Pischke, J. D., J. M. de Waard, 1994-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 253 Small firms are numerous in Bangladesh and contribute greatly to employment and to the provision of inexpensive goods and services The original hypothesis for the research presented in this paper was that invest Small Firms Informally Financed, 1995

China's Third Economic Transformation Ross Garnaut, Ligang Song, 2004-08-02 The Chinese economy is currently undergoing an institutional transformation as profound as the replacement of the people's communes with the household responsibility system in the early 1980s and the emergence of township and village enterprises as the main locus of economic dynamism in the second half of the 1980s This third dramatic transformation is the emergence of the private sector as the main source of the country's economic growth This book discusses the key issues in private sector development in China and includes An overview of the development of private enterprises in China Analysis of the development and emerging paths toward private enterprise Examination of the business environment in which private enterprises operate How the legal environment has changed through economic reform Managerial capabilities and state business interactions Suggestions of policy recommendations Perhaps controversially the contributors suggest that private sector development is necessary to maintain the dynamism of the Chinese economy and create greater employment opportunities China's Third Economic Transformation will appeal to scholars of Asian Economics and business who are interested in the rapid growth of the private sector in China

Sustainability of a Government Targeted Credit Program Shahidur R. Khandker, Zahed H. Khan, M. A. Baqui Khalily, 1995-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 304 Reviews the status and availability in developing countries of photovoltaic PV technology and looks at the prospects for using this technology in light of current energy use and costs of other energy sources The report provides the necessary background information and highlights the questions raised and the calculations that must be made whenever PV applications are being considered in the developing world

Land Quality Indicators, 1995 Spanish edition Reformas Laborales y Economicas en America Latina y el Caribe Examines key aspects of labor market conditions as they are affected by the economic reforms that are integrating Latin American and Caribbean economies with world markets Also available English edition ISBN 0 8213 3348 8 Stock No 13348 Portuguese edition ISBN 0 8213 3502 2 Stock No 13502

Colombia's Pension Reform Klaus Schmidt-Hebbel, 1995 IFC Lessons of Experience No 1F This report reviews the experience of the International Finance Corporation IFC in its role as advisor and investor in privatization transactions during the past decade In pursuit of its mandate to further economic development by encouraging the growth of productive private enterprise in developing countries the IFC has naturally and increasingly been involved in supporting this movement The premise of the report is that privatization will always be partly based on political considerations including expected redistribution of wealth and the resulting winners and losers It discusses the IFC's experience from two perspectives as an advisor involved before the sale which illustrates how the IFC assists in the trade off between political and economic goals to conclude a deal and after privatization which discusses the resulting economic benefits The IFC asserts that its role in privatization is defined by the evolving frontiers of political commitment Within those frontiers it can help expand privatization possibilities by performing advisory assignments providing necessary investments and developing capital market institutions The IFC demonstrates that privatization strategies can assume many forms with few set prescriptions Other language editions English ISBN 0 8213 3447 6 Stock No 13447 Russian out of print ISBN 0 8213 3545 6 Stock No 13545 Spanish out of print ISBN 0 8213 3451 4 Stock No 13451 Private Sector Development During Transition Michael S. Borish, Michel No 1, 1996-01-01 French edition World Bank Technical Paper No 298F Les filles et l'école en Afrique subsaharienne De l'analyse à l'action Summarizes the factors that constrain girls schooling in Sub Saharan Africa and outlines practical ways of designing programs that will accelerate female participation in education in the region Also available in English ISBN 0 8213 3373 9 Stock No 13373

Preshipment Inspection Services Patrick Low, 1995 Many governments have contracted preshipment inspection PSI services to address problems associated with the over and under invoicing of trade transactions tariff misclassifications shortfalls in revenue collections from trade taxes and the management Managing Primary Health Care Richard Heaver, 1995-01-01 This paper looks at the way in which the pattern of disease is changing in developing countries and the implications this has for the way in which primary health care PHC programs should be designed and managed In the absence of an accepted methodology for discussing health management issues it attempts to develop a conceptual framework suited to analyzing an environment of dynamic change It applies this framework first to the management of primary health care programs provided by governments and then to the role of the non government sector in primary care The paper draws broad clients If the general approach adopted seems useful the conceptual framework needs next to be applied to a series of specific country cases to test its validity and refine it and to adapt the general conclusions to local cultural administrative and political conditions Measurement of Welfare Changes Caused by Large Price Shifts Robert Bacon, 1995-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 273 This paper discusses the problems of measuring welfare changes caused by large price increases or decreases in the power sector for example when tariffs are raised to cover long term costs or when electrification
