The origin of this publication lies in the continuing program at all levels of command to keep Marines informed of the ways of combat and civic action in Vietnam Not limited in any way to set methods and means this informational effort spreads across a wide variety of projects all aimed at making the lessons learned in Vietnam available to the Marine who is fighting there and the Marine who is soon due to take his turn in combat Recognizing a need to inform the men who are the key to the success of Marine Corps operations the enlisted Marines and junior officers of combat and combat support units the former Assistant Chief of Staff G 3 Major General William R Collins originated a project to provide a timely series of short factual narratives of small unit action stories which would have lessons learned as an integral part Essential to General Collins concept was the fact that the stories would have to be both highly readable and historically accurate The basic requirement called for an author trained in the methodology of research with recent active duty experience at the small unit level in the FMF and a proven ability to write in a style that would ensure wide readership This publication then is based upon first hand eyewitness accounting of the events described It is documented by notes and taped interviews taken in the field and includes lessons learned from the mouths of the Marines who are currently fighting in Vietnam It is published for the information of those men who are serving and who will serve in Vietnam as well as for the use of other interested Americans so that they may better understand the demands of the Vietnam conflict on the individual Marine The Marine Corps Gazette, 1979

An Annotated Reading List of United States Marine Corps History Harold A. Bivins, 1971 Defend and Befriend John Southard, 2014-07-08

After relatively successful military interventions in Iraq in 1992 and Yugoslavia in 1998 many American strategists believed that airpower and remote technology were the future of U S military action But America's most recent wars in the Middle East have reinforced the importance of counterinsurgency with its imperative to win hearts and minds on the ground in foreign lands In both Iraq and Afghanistan the U S military has studied and experimented with the combined action platoon CAP concept used from 1965 to 1971 by the Marine Corps in Vietnam Consisting of twelve Marines a medic and dozens of inexperienced local militiamen the American contingent of CAPs lived in South Vietnamese villages where they provided twenty four hour security and daily medical support for civilians and fostered social interaction through civic action projects such as building schools offices and wells Defend and Befriend is the first comprehensive study of the evolution of these platoons emphasizing how and why the U S Marine Corps attempted to overcome the inherent military social and cultural obstacles on the ground in Vietnam Basing his analysis on Marine records and numerous interviews with CAP

veterans author John Southard illustrates how thousands of soldiers tasked with counterinsurgency duties came to perceive the Vietnamese people and their mission This unique study counters prevailing stereotypes and provides a new perspective on the American infantryman in the Vietnam War Illuminating the fear felt by many Americans as they served among groups of understandably suspicious civilians Defend and Befriend offers important insights into the future development of counterinsurgency doctrine Semper Fidelis Allan Reed Millett, 1991 Traces the history of the Marine Corps from the American Revolution to the present and reveals how the force has adapted to changing times
