Smoke The Story Of A Flight:

A Sociology of Commercial Flight Crew Bennett Simon, 2016-12-05 There are numerous psychological studies of pilots and piloting but little has been done in the way of sociological examination Commercial aviation is one of the world's biggest industries yet there are few studies of pilots as social beings and of their place of work the flight deck Developing a sociological understanding of front line staff and of pilots working environments is an important step to developing a more detailed understanding of this increasingly important sector This book performs such a function and also adds to our understanding of pilots in general from those who work for flag carriers to those who fly for regional or corporate jet operators The readership includes the general public industry legislators regulators managements employees trainers journalists academics and students of sociology psychology organisation theory and business management

Decisions, Decisions David A. Welch, 2009-12-02 You're tempted to accept a promising job offer in another city but moving would entail considerable sacrifice on the part of your family What should you do Your elderly mother can no longer take care of herself but she doesn't get along with your husband and dreads the prospect of moving into a nursing home What is the solution Whether you are faced with decisions momentous or trivial how you go about resolving everyday dilemmas will definitely affect your level of satisfaction in life In this engrossing and entertaining guide David Welch who has studied the decision making process at the highest levels shows how both the science and the art of decision making are essential to us all Welch lays out nine steps to effective decision making and then demonstrates how to apply these steps to real world situations He gives readers the intellectual tools to assess their strengths and weaknesses and stresses that self knowledge is critical for making the right decisions This enjoyable clearly written guide will enable decision makers at every level to find the best possible solution for dilemmas both big and small

Community Intervention Trial for Smoking Cessation Edward Lichtenstein, 2019-04-01 The Community Intervention Trial for smoking cessation COMMIT is sponsored by the National Cancer Institute and involves eleven pairs of communities in North America COMMIT emphasizes a partnership between the eleven research institutions and their respective intervention communities in developing the structures needed to implement the intervention protocol We summarize the epidemiological data and describe the prior community interventions that set the stage for COMMIT and discuss how COMMIT may inform state wide tobacco reduction demonstration programs An overview of the articles that describe the COMMIT intervention and evaluation plan is presented
