So Sure Of Life:

Home Life; a Journal Elizabeth Missing Sewell, 1867      The Little Ball O' Fire; or, the Life and ures of John Marston Hall G. P. R. James, 2016-09-10 My father was a gentleman of small estate in Lincolnshire whose family possessions under a race of generous ancestors had dwindled from splendid lordships to bare competence His blood which was derived from as noble a source as that of any in the land had come down to him pure through a number of knights and nobles who though they were little scrupulous as to the means of spending their riches were very careful not to augment them by cultivating any but the somewhat barren field of war He made a love match with a daughter of the second Lord Wilmerton and in order that his wife might not draw unpleasant comparisons between the station of her husband and that of her father he frequented the court and lived beyond his means He was already in difficulties when I was born but like a brave man he resolved to meet them boldly and after some solicitation obtained a small military appointment which increased his revenue without adding to his expenses Loyalty with him was a passion which like love in other men prevented him from seeing any faults in its object and of course as the court well knew that no benefits could make him more loyal than he already was it showered its favours upon persons whose affection was to be gained leaving him to struggle on without further notice      The Panorama of Life
