Latin American Documentary Narratives Liliana Chávez Díaz, 2021-11-04 Winner of the Victor Villaseor Best Latino Focused Nonfiction Book Award English from the 2022 International Latino Book Awards What defines the boundary between fact and fabrication fiction and nonfiction literature and journalism Latin American Documentary Narratives unpacks the precarious testimonial relationship between author and subject where the literary journalist rather than the subject being interviewed can become the hero of a narrative in its recording and retelling Latin American Documentary Narratives covers a variety of nonfiction genres from the 1950s to the 2000s that address topics such as social protests dictatorships natural disasters crime and migration in Latin America This book analyzes and includes an appendix of interviews with authors who have not previously been critically read together from the early and emblematic works of Gabriel García Márquez and Elena Poniatowska to more recent authors like Leila Guerriero and Juan Villoro who are currently reshaping media and audiences in Latin America In a world overwhelmed by data production and marked by violent acts against those considered others Liliana Chávez Díaz argues that storytelling plays an essential role in communication among individuals classes and cultures

Tradition and Modernity Idoya Puig, 2009 The Spanish Golden Age novelist Miguel de Cervantes has long cast a shadow over the writers who have followed in his wake This book explores the great novelist's influence on contemporary Spanish writers The links between the Golden Age tradition and contemporary writing are examined by leading academics in the field of the Spanish contemporary novel The collection focuses on aspects of literary technique and metafiction particularly the role of the narrator the mixing of fictional and real characters and self reflection and literary criticism within the novel These are all techniques that have recognisable Cervantine traits Other parallels with Cervantes's writing are explored such as the portrayal of a hero with quixotic characteristics and the imitation of specific episodes from Cervantes's works
