From a Far Distant Time & Place Thomas Peter Glass, 2005-11-01 This book is the genealogical history of the ancestry of Jacob Stephen Gruben and Maria Emilie Krmer who came to the United States from Germany in the early 1880's The book traces each of their ancestries back through German civil registration records and the earlier Catholic Church records to the 17th century The book includes information about the first generation born in the United States Similarly the book traces the family of Johann Gottfried Godfrey Nienhaus a nephew of Jacob Stephen Gruben who also came to the United States at about the same time The book contains information on the first generation of the Nienhaus family that was born in the United States The book is of wider interest because there is a discussion of the nature of and idiosyncrasies of the German civil registration and Catholic records available in the Dsseldorf Cologne area of Germany There is an extensive discussion of a method of determining a family line when faced with the sometimes scant information available in the early Catholic Church records There are large numbers of collateral relatives listed in the lines of descendants contained in the book with over 1800 people listed most of whom were born lived and died in the Dsseldorf Cologne area of Germany There is a surname index to the lines of descendants in the Gruben section and a surname index to the lines of descendants in the Krmer section of the book

Performing Queer Modernism Penny Farfan,2017 Focusing on some of the best known and most visible stage plays and dance performances of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Penny Farfan s interdisciplinary study demonstrates that queer performance was integral to and productive of modernism that queer modernist performance played a key role in the historical emergence of modern sexual identities and that it anticipated and was in a sense foundational to the insights of contemporary queer modernist studies Chapters on works from Vaslav Nijinsky s Afternoon of a Faun to No l Coward s Private Lives highlight manifestations of and suggest ways of reading queer modernist performance Together these case studies clarify aspects of both the queer and the modernist and how their co productive intersection was articulated in and through performance on the late nineteenth and early twentieth century stage Performing Queer Modernism thus contributes to an expanded understanding of modernism across a range of performance genres the central role of performance within modernism more generally and the integral relation between performance history and the history of sexuality It also contributes to the ongoing transformation of the field of modernist studies in which drama and performance remain under represented and to revisionist historiographies that approach modernist performance through feminist and queer critical perspectives and interdisciplinary frameworks and that consider how formally innovative as well as more conventional works collectively engaged with modernity at once reflecting and contributing to historical change in the domains of gender and sexuality
