In 1897 the year Richard Brevard Russell Jr was born the world was poised for a dramatic swing into a century that would see more changes in religion politics society science technology and war than almost all other centuries of human history combined It was a wild ride for a boy born to fulfill great expectations in the mercurial modern political arena yet reared to venerate the worn and vanishing splendor of the American South He would become one of the half dozen most powerful men in Washington for a period of almost twenty years and it would be frequently admitted most notably by President Harry Truman that if Russell had not been from Georgia if he had been from a state such as Indiana Illinois or Missouri the Presidency could not have been denied him His love of the South and his native state was such that when Truman s remark was quoted to him Russell replied I d rather be from Georgia than be President This book acquaints the reader with a fascinating and complex man of contrasts An ardent segregationist who fought civil rights legislation Richard B Russell was also the devoted father of the School Lunch Program A Georgia farm boy Russell almost idolized the agricultural society from which America sprang but embraced the nuclear age and space technology An intense family man he appreciated women fell in love easily and conducted numerous affairs Yet Russell never married Deeply private he lived his entire adult life in the public eye Richard Russell was good company His personal story makes good reading The Boss Next Door Roz Denny Fox,2013-03-01 Love family success Can you really have it all Garrett Lock wants it all He s a single father with a child he adores He has a successful career And now he wants a second chance at marriage another shot at love with Sherry Campbell Despite her desire for a family Sherry doesn t believe that love and independence are compatible But when Garrett becomes her boss and her neighbor she starts to question her assumptions falling first for his eight year old son and then for him Maybe with a bit of compromise and a lot of trust you can have it all Reports to the General Assembly of Illinois ...
