Kapsis, 2016-02-29 This revised and updated edition gathers interviews and profiles covering the entire forty five year span of Woody Allen's career as a filmmaker including detailed discussions of his most popular as well as his most critically acclaimed works. The present collection is a complete update of the volume that first appeared in 2006. In the years since Allen has continued making movies including Midnight in Paris and the Oscar winning Blue Jasmine. While many interviews from the original edition have been retained in the present volume, nine new entries extend the coverage of Allen's directorial career through 2015. In addition, there is a new in-depth interview from the period covered in the first edition. Most of the interviews included in the original volume first appeared in such widely known publications and venues as the New York Times, the Washington Post, Time, the New Yorker, Rolling Stone, and Playboy. A number of smaller and lesser known venues are also represented especially in the new volume. Several interviews from non-American sources add an international perspective on Allen's work. Materials for the new volume include pieces focusing primarily on Allen's films as well as broader profiles and interviews that also concentrate on his literary talent. Perhaps Stephen Mamber best describes Allen's distinctiveness especially early in his career: Woody Allen is not the best new American comedy director or the best comedy writer or the best comedy actor; he's simply the finest combination of all three. The planet personalities and signs of astrology speak to us through superchannel Robert Shapiro, sharing not only long lost information but also new ways of being for an awakening humanity. As the planet personalities and signs speak through Robert, their personality traits and interests, many of which have been unknown since ancient times, can be clearly heard and felt. In addition, you, humanity, have made such progress that other new energies and traits of the planets and signs are expressed through their words. These energies, traits, and characteristics were only potential in earlier times but now are becoming available to you to become aware of and to express within your life on Earth as you awaken to your natural self. The Yale Alumni Weekly, 1912. The Autobiography of God Julius Lester, 2005-12-27. A critically acclaimed author melds the classic college mystery with deeply theological ruminations on suffering and death, richly absorbing. Publishers Weekly. Rebecca Nachman is a Rabbi without a synagogue. Having resigned from her dwindling congregation, she now works as a college counselor at a small Vermont college, advising students about private matters and offering the Jewish perspective on issues raised at faculty dinner parties. Deeply lonely and on the edge of losing her faith, she comes into possession of a Torah, the last relic of Czechowicz, a village of Polish Jews who were exterminated by the Nazis. With the Torah, the unquiet spirits of the village dead begin to visit Rebecca. On one visit, they leave a manuscript written in Hebrew and titled My Life, an autobiography by God, who like any eager author is seeking a sympathetic reader. No one has ever finished reading the manuscript, including Thomas Aquinas, Martin Luther, Maimonides, and Augustine. God thinks Rebecca will. Rebecca's life is further complicated when one of her advisees, a troubled young woman who seemed on the verge of confessing something, is found murdered. As the college struggles to comprehend the tragedy and a police investigation is launched, Rebecca begins reading and so comes to confront the central
