1894 TO 1904 Robert Wright,2012-11-01 Big game hunting and trading in Central Africa from 1894 to 1904 The Robert Wright memoirs are an interesting and sometimes humorous window into the life of the European pioneers of Northern Rhodesia and the British East African Protectorate from 1894 to 1904 Robert and his brother David were initially employed as coffee farmers in the Blantyre district Their sense of adventure soon led them to start a business hunting trophy animals and trading for ivory and rubber from Lake Tanganyika to the Katanga province of the Congo Robert was a keen photographer and fortunately many of his photographs have survived and are included in this book My Name is not Mzungu Lars Peter Jensen,2023-06-22 A hopefully reasonably coherent string of tales about the odd funny exhilarating and at times sad experiences I have survived through many years in Africa From a childhood and teenage years in Tanzania and then around many countries in Africa until today where I am still fortunate to live work and travel around this incredible continent I have endeavoured to let the characters I have met along the way be the thread that carries the reader through the abundance of colour music pure human energy and determination to succeed which constantly confronts the observer in Africa Restless and aimless but with highs of love and lows of broken promises some dreams came true others not My relationship with Africa is complicated The Africa that will never let go of me The Carey Type Book Carey Printing Company, inc., New York,1918
