This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1877 edition Excerpt t c jton pallet With this town is connected the history of Nancy Camel who lived in some period of history either never ascertained or so remote that time has effaced all traces from mortal memory Tradition however relates for the benefit of posterity that when the manufacture of stockings formed a portion of the daily work of its inhabitants and when old and young worked their fingers to the bone to obtain money there lived an old lady of the above name in the neighbouring woods and was of course accounted a witch or wise woman Regarded as an object of ridicule if not of dread stiunned by her own sex and without kit or kin in her seclusion and retirement she laboured at her stockings unceasingly Sundays not excepted and here she mourned over the bitterness of her wretched life In the midst of her solitude she too is visited by the evil one What transactions passed between them history relates not the result of the interview never transpired perhaps she broke like many of her companions in sorcery the compact duly signed and sealed to deliver over her soul to her lord and master for favours conferred However one evening after a most sultry day the dark clouds gathered and terminated the day with gloom thunder silled the sky accompanied too by the flash of vivid lightning As night drew on so the fury of the elements increased In the midst of the storm was heard a loud and piercing shriek that faintly echoed till the morning broke there too was heard the cracking of a whip and the creaking of wheels Morn came at last calm and glorious after the storm some persons half suspecting the cause of the shrieks they had heard and half out of curiosity to see how Nancy had fared visited the The customs, superstitions and legends of the county of Somerset Charles Henry Poole,1970 Albion Restored

Arthur Eedle,2013-03-11 Arthur Rosalind Eedle spent some years researching the history of the centuries before Augustine coupled with field trips to Cornwall and Somerset Fired by the enthusiasm of men like Henry Arden Lewis who had the same life long urgency to prove that Britain was the first nation to espouse Christianity they have made known their results in this volume It is a detective story which grips one s attention and imagination to reveal the hand and purpose of God for our nation Middle English Saints' Legends John Scahill,Margaret Rogerson,2005 Annotated bibliography covering two centuries of scholarly criticism on the extensive corpus of medieval saints legends with the assistance of Margaret Rogerson Saints legends are being increasingly recognised as one of the most important genres of the middle ages and attract much critical attention This volume surveys the scholarly literature of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries on the extensive Middle English corpus It also provides a conspectus of the genre s history in the Middle English period and its place in the development of the modern discipline of Middle English while both the introduction and the annotations give attention to the problematic boundaries between genres and to the issues involved in separating out texts from their manuscript contexts General studies of the corpus as a whole are covered as well as discussions and editions of individual legends of the various extended cycles of legends and of sermon collections that include hagiographic legends and exempla the volume has been structured so as to provide an overview of the research on major works for example the South English Legendary and St Erkenwald and authors such as Osborn Bokenham John Capgrave William Caxton and John Mirk It includes an Index of Scholars and Critics keyed to the Bibliography an Index of Middle English Texts that covers all works of whatever genre mentioned in the annotations and an Index of Manuscripts that gathers the references to the over 170 manuscripts cited

Call of Classical Literature in the Romantic Age K. P. Van Anglen,2018-10-31 Examines the role that cinema played in imagining Hong Kong and Taiwan s place in the world The Downside Review ,1926 Myths and Legends from Korea James H. Grayson,2012-12-06 This book contains 175 tales drawn equally from the ancient and modern periods of Korea plus 16 further tales provided for comparative purposes Nothing else on this scale or depth is available in any western language

Three broad classes of material are included foundation myths of ancient states and clans ancient folktales and legends modern folktales Each narrative contains information on its source and provenance and on its folklore type similarities to folklore types from China Japan and elsewhere The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends Simon Young, 2022-06-27 Winner of the 2023 Brian McConnell Book Award from the International Society for Contemporary Legend Research In the last fifty years folklorists have amassed an extraordinary corpus of contemporary legends including the Choking Doberman the Eaten Ticket and the Vanishing Hitchhiker But what about the urban legends of the past These legends and tales have rarely been collected and when they occasionally appear they do so as ancestors or precursors of the urban legends of today rather than as stories in their own right In The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends Simon Young fills this gap for British folklore and for the wider English speaking world of the 1800s Young introduces seventy Victorian urban legends ranging from Beetle Eyes to the Shoplifter's Dilemma and from Hands in the Muff to the Suicide Club While a handful of these stories are already known the vast majority have never been identified and they have certainly never received scholarly treatment Young begins the volume with a lengthy introduction assessing nineteenth century media emphasizing the importance of the written word to the perpetuation and preservation of these myths He draws on numerous nineteenth century books periodicals and ephemera including digitized newspaper archives particularly the British Newspaper Archive an exciting new hunting ground for folklorists The Nail in the Skull and Other Victorian Urban Legends will appeal to an academic audience as well as to anyone who is interested in urban legends Evidence of Arthur Flint F. Johnson, 2014-02-07 Making use of the methodology developed in his Origins of Arthurian Romances McFarland 2012 the author explores the question of King Arthur's existence in several original approaches to the subject Examining the extant literature and other evidence the author searches for the truth of the who when and where of King Arthur These explorations are grouped into historicity geography and the years in which he flourished The conclusion is that Arthur was indeed an historical entity and the author places him in a specific area and narrows the time frame of his period of activity
