Luft,2020-09-13 Since the 1970s I have pursued three separate but overlapping and sometimes simultaneous careers 1 philosopher writer teacher historian of the long nineteenth century 1789 1914 2 editor translator photographer publisher biographer encyclopedist 3 cataloging librarian rare books and special collections librarian historian of medicine Somehow these three vocations have garnered me some acclaim even an entry in Who s Who in America Each of them has resulted in some published or presented works Because these works have been scattered in a wide variety of venues some of which have gone out of print or have otherwise become generally unavailable and of course with the oral presentations being gone as soon as they are given I have thought it wise to select epitomize and bring them together in one place here Thus what follows in these volumes is what I consider to be the most important of my shorter works All translations are my own unless otherwise indicated

Saving Big Ben John Satterfield, 2011-04-15 Father Joe O Callahan S J was the unlikeliest war hero A bespectacled math professor from Holy Cross he became the U S Navy's first Jesuit chaplain in World War II and served in combat operations in the Atlantic and Pacific theaters Father O Callahan was on the aircraft carrier Franklin known as Big Ben in the Okinawa campaign in early 1945 when massive explosions and fire from a kamikaze bomb attack nearly destroyed his ship Hundreds of sailors died within moments of the attack and the Franklin lay dead in the water drifting toward Japan just 60 miles distant As flames consumed the carrier the chaplain organized and led fire fighting crews and prevented a potentially fatal explosion while ministering to injured dying and terrified sailors Father O Callahan's deeds were instrumental in saving the Franklin and he stayed with the ship on its voyage under power to New York Harbor The carrier's captain called him the bravest man I ever saw and Father Joe became the first American military chaplain to receive the Medal of Honor the nation's highest decoration for valor But the price of glory was high for Father O Callahan He suffered a stroke after returning to Holy Cross and spent the rest of his life enduring incapacitating pain Through it all the priest displayed the same leadership and strength derived from unwavering faith that enabled him to help save his ship and comrades The book incorporates primary sources interviews with Franklin survivors and O Callahan family members and other materials never before published including documentation of the Navy's review of Father O Callahan's recommendation of the Medal of Honor and the process leading to the priest's receipt of the decoration
