Somewhere In Ecclesiastes Poems:

Somewhere in Ecclesiastes Judson Mitcham, 1991 Poems drawn from common experiences and a variety of backgrounds explore the nature of change growth and loss Made Thing: an Anthology of Contemporary Southern Poetry, 2nd Ed (p) Leon Stokesbury, 1999 The second edition features twelve new poets as well as new work by Donald Justice T R Hummer Dave Smith Pattiann Rogers Andrew Hudgins Henry Taylor Gerald Barrax Rodney Jones and others Among the new additions are Mark Jarman Cathy Smith Bowers and Charlie Smith Many teachers realize that the best way to get their students to relate to poetry is to show them poems that contain landscapes and subjects they understand and can identify with Leon Stokesbury has put together a richly varied collection used in classrooms not only in the South but all over the country as a means of studying the important influence of southern poetry on American literature With the publication of the second edition of The Made Thing Stokesbury has marked the end of the twentieth century and the rise to prominence of southern writers This collection serves as a substantial sampling of poets whose works span more than five decades and who explore the rich personal and cultural history that extends beyond the boundaries of the South The New Georgia Encyclopedia Companion to Georgia Literature Hugh Ruppersburg, John C. Inscoe, 2011-08-15 Georgia has played a formative role in the writing of America Few states have produced a more impressive array of literary figures among them Conrad Aiken Erskine Caldwell James Dickey Joel Chandler Harris Carson McCullers Flannery O Connor Jean Toomer and Alice Walker This volume contains biographical and critical discussions of Georgia writers from the nineteenth century to the present as well as other information pertinent to Georgia literature Organized in alphabetical order by author the entries discuss each author's life and work contributions to Georgia history and culture and relevance to wider currents in regional and national literature Lists of recommended readings supplement most entries Especially important Georgia books have their own entries works of social significance such as Lillian Smith's Strange Fruit international publishing sensations like Margaret Mitchell's Gone With the Wind and crowning artistic achievements including Jean Toomer's Cane The literary culture of the state is also covered with information on the Georgia Review and other journals the Georgia Center for the Book which promotes authors and reading and the Townsend Prize given in recognition of the year's best fiction This is an essential volume for readers who want both to celebrate and learn more about Georgia's literary heritage A Little Salvation Judson Mitcham, 2007 This new collection from acclaimed novelist and poet Judson Mitcham features poems from the last twenty five years including forty new works and poems from his previously published collections Somewhere in Ecclesiastes 1991 and This April Day 2003 Wise witty and deceptively plainspoken Mitcham's poems show how the moments that truly save us that make us human are necessarily the most fleeting It is up to us he reminds us to create meaning from those moments and in doing so to create our own salvation The transitory nature of human experience is both the boon and the bane of the existence of the speakers in these poems and every poem seems to recognize its own temporality trying to find meaning rather than a definitive answer to the questions it raises The tone of these poems combines a strong sense of humor with a pervasive feeling of loss both celebrating and mourning that a true note is still so hard to hit These voices revel in the human condition even as they are often saddened by it While Mitcham's background and settings are distinctly southern his interests extend far beyond the regional He intimately understands the problems and the people of the South but recognizes that these are above all human problems and human beings His poems evoke Flannery O'Connor Otis Redding the Bible and the Baptist Church but they also respond to Walt Whitman Wallace Stevens and the death of Jacques Derrida
