Hovey,2018-03-07 This second volume of the songs of Scottish poet Robert Burns contains 70 songs excerpted from the chapter The Lassies in a larger collection of 324 Burns songs compiled and researched by Serge Hovey It includes songs expressing the poet s passion for his wife Jean and for that other species Robert Burns 1759 1796 spent his life collecting Scottish songs using fragments of existing lyrics as the basis for his own poems and wrote original lyrics for traditional melodies Burns left for posterity about 270 poems and more than 300 songs which are usually printed without their tunes Serge Hovey meticulously examined Burns own sources letters and manuscripts to determine the origin of every tune and all the verses as well as Burns intended match of words and music He then arranged each song with highly imaginative and beautiful accompaniments geared for pianists with average skills This volume is illustrated with reproductions of paintings drawings and prints These volumes also contain a glossary of frequently appearing Scots words and insightful historical notes for each song The Land Of The Leal James Barke,2009-05-01 This huge novel closer in scope to a Russian epic than to any English counterpart opens at the turn of the century in the extreme poverty of the Rhinns of Galloway an agricultural backwater of the southern most part of Scotland With a loving regard for the land and its people Barke traces the lives of David and Jean Ramsay who full of hope painstakingly uproot themselves and their family in the search for prosperity Their efforts to retain respect and a decent way of life are thwarted by unemployment in increasingly hostile circumstances and a harsh environment inevitably leaves its mark But a new generation emerges to question the authority of an uncaring society and even as Fascism rages through Europe a new hope is born Songs & Poems of Robert Burns Ralph Knight,1959 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www rowmanlittlefield com The Well of the Silent Harp James William Barke,2022-08-16 DigiCat Publishing presents to you this special edition of The Well of the Silent Harp by James William Barke DigiCat Publishing considers every written word to be a legacy of humankind Every DigiCat book has been carefully reproduced for republishing in a new modern format The books are available in print as well as ebooks DigiCat hopes you will treat this work with the acknowledgment and passion it deserves as a classic of world literature The Oxford Handbook of Robert Burns Gerard Carruthers,2024 Robert Burns 1759-96 was a producer of lyrical verse satirical poetry in English and Scots a song writer and song collector a writer of bawdry journals commonplace books and correspondence Sculpting his own image his untutored rusticity was a sincere persona as much as it was not entirely accurate Burns was an antiquarian national patriot pioneer of what today we would call folk culture and a man of the Enlightenment and Romanticism This handbook considers Burns's reception in his own time and beyond extending to his iconic status as a world writer *The G. The Popular Front Novel in Britain, 1934-1940 Elinor Taylor,2017-11-01 In The Popular Front Novel in Britain 1934-1940 Elinor Taylor provides the first study of the relationship between the British novel and the anti fascist Popular Front strategy endorsed by the Comintern in 1935 Through readings of novels by British Communists including Jack Lindsay John Sommerfield Lewis Jones and James Barke Taylor shows that the realist novel of the left was a key site in which the politics of anti fascist alliance were rehearsed Maintaining a dialogue with theories of populism and with Georg Lukács's vision of a revived literary realism ensuing from the Popular Front this book at once illuminates the cultural formation of the Popular Front in Britain and proposes a new framework for reading British fiction of this period The Song Remembers when Hilary Claire,2006 In 1964 in a daring night time escape the author and her husband fled Johannesburg and slipped across the border under the eyes of the security police This autobiography documents her transformation from model school girl to saboteur and her family's history of flight and exile through the generations A Battlement of Spears Bernard Botes Kruger,2006-05 A century ago one of the five most recognizable names in the world was arguably that of Paul Kruger president of the Transvaal Republic a small Southern African country inhabited by a white tribe who took on the overwhelming superiority of the mighty British Empire in defense of his people's sovereign independence It was a David and Goliath story As most of the world including the US cheered the Boers on they fought a desperate war to the bitter end 1899-1902 against colonialism until their country lay smoldering in ruins and an estimated 27 929 Boer women and children as well as an untold number of blacks had died in British concentration camps Yet within little more than half a century those same Afrikaners had squandered their political capital and gone from being the world's favorite underdog to one of the most reviled names in history Their subsequent social engineering project known as apartheid became an abhorrent concept in the eyes of the international community Bernard Botes Kruger is a fifth generation descendant of the wartime president Paul Kruger He is an Afrikaner who lived most of his life in the turmoil and conflict that has dominated his country's history His new historical novel A Battlement of Spears tells the remarkable story of how not only the Afrikaners but also the many other former sovereign nations within the redrawn borders of the postwar South Africa struggled to come to terms with a common identity often with devastating consequences What cruel twist of tectonic irony caused the deepest scar on the earth's surface across the face of that continent that would also suffer the most appalling of human tragedies the author asks Set against the backdrop of the timeless mountain called in Zulu uKhahlamba Barrier of Spears a dramatic geographic boundary that divided nations throughout history A Battlement of Spears is an epic story spanning twenty four years and two continents of two young men with similar interests but vastly different cultural backgrounds who become unlikely friends In a tragic series of events they will discover what sacrifices are exacted from those who would dwell in the symbolic no man's land of the summit where fog often obscures the vision and deprivation dulls the senses until it becomes all too easy to drift into hostile territory or stumble into the jaws of the precipice In the process they will become separated spending a lifetime before finding each other again a world away on a different continent But in the course of their respective journeys they will also learn that barriers are not always what they seem and that choices are sometimes inevitable with far reaching consequences In that hauntingly beautiful land it is never merely about survival but about the things that make it truly worthwhile such as loyalty friendship and honor regardless of the price Do not go into this story expecting to encounter the usual themes of race To consider South Africa synonymous with racial hatred would be an oversimplification This story is not about race In fact despite the elaborately drawn details highlighting many of the customs of traditional cultures Portuguese Zulus KhoiSan Afrikaners rural and urban conservative and revolutionary the story is not even uniquely South African It is not about apartheid or about Blacks or Whites Rather it is about the countless gray people of many different cultures ordinary individuals simply looking to survive who become trapped in the consummation of historical inevitabilities that are neither of their doing nor of their choosing Written in a style that endeavors to entertain while enlightening the uninformed about South Africa
