Woodstock, Complete Walter Scott,2016-01-27 THE PREFACE TO THE ENSUING NARRATIVE Since it hath pleased the Almighty God out of his infinite mercy so to make us happy by restoring of our native King to us and us unto our native liberty through him that now the good may say magna temporum felicitas ubi sentire quoe velis et dicere licet quoe sentias we cannot but esteem ourselves engaged in the highest of degrees to render unto him the highest thanks we can express Although surpris d with joy we become as lost in the performance when gladness and admiration strikes us silent as we look back upon the precipice of our late condition and those miraculous deliverances beyond expression Freed from the slavery and those desperate perils we dayly lived in fear of during the tyrannical times of that detestable usurper Oliver Cromwell he who had raked up such judges as would wrest the most innocent language into high treason when he had the cruel conscience to take away our lives upon no other ground of justice or reason the stones of London streets would rise to witness it if all the citizens were silent And with these judges had such councillors as could advise him unto worse which will less want of witness For should the many auditors be silent the press as God would have it hath given it us in print where one of them and his conscience keeper too speaks out What shall we do with these men saith he Aeger intemperans crudelem facit medicum et immedicabile vulmis ense recidendum Who these men are that should be brought to such Scicilian vespers the former page sets forth those which conceit Utopias and have their day dreams of the return of I know not what golden age with the old line What usage when such a privy councillor had power could he expect who then had published this narrative This much so plainly shows the devil himself dislikt their doings so much more bad were they than he would have them be severer sure than was the devil to their Commissioners at Woodstock
