The Haida Lifeways:

LIFEWAYS: THE HAIDA RAYMOND. BIAL, 2001 DISCUSSES THE HISTORY CULTURE SOCIAL STRUCTURE BELIEFS AND CUSTOMS OF THE HAIDA PEOPLE Shaping the Future on Haida Gwaii Joseph Weiss, 2018-09-01 Colonialism in settler societies such as Canada depends on a certain understanding of the relationship between time and Indigenous peoples Too often these peoples have been portrayed as being without a future destined either to disappear or assimilate into settler society This book asserts quite the opposite Indigenous peoples are not in any sense out of time in our contemporary world Shaping the Future on Haida Gwaii shows how Indigenous peoples in Canada not only continue to have a future but are at work building many different futures for themselves and for their non Indigenous neighbours Through the experiences of the Haida First Nation this book explores these possible futures in detail demonstrating how Haida ways of thinking about time mobility and political leadership are at the heart of contemporary strategies for addressing the dilemmas that come with life under settler colonialism From the threat of ecological crisis to the assertion of sovereign rights and authority Weiss shows that the Haida people consistently turn towards their possible futures in order to work out how to live in and transform the present Claiming Back Their Heritage Geneviève Susemihl, 2023-10-04 This book provides a unique in depth look at three Indigenous World Heritage sites in Canada and their use for Indigenous empowerment and community development Based on extensive ethnographic field studies and comprehensive narrative interviews it shows how the three First Nation communities presented in the case studies enforce recognition of their collective rights to preserve their cultural heritage and assert their right to political economic cultural and social self determination It also considers the prevailing universalistic discourses around World Heritage and the various ways in which they serve to either reinforce existing oppressive conditions regarding Indigenous communities and voices or provide opportunities to overcome them The book will be of interest to scholars and students working on social and cultural histories histories of colonialism and in heritage and museum studies The National Museum of the American Indian Amy Lonetree, Amanda J. Cobb, 2008-11-01 The first American national museum designed and run by indigenous peoples the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of the American Indian in Washington DC opened in 2004 It represents both the United States as a singular nation and the myriad indigenous nations within its borders Constructed with materials closely connected to Native communities across the continent the museum contains more than 800 000 objects and three permanent galleries and routinely holds workshops and seminar series This first comprehensive look at the National Museum of the American Indian encompasses a variety of perspectives including those of Natives and non Natives museum employees and outside scholars across disciplines such as cultural studies and criticism art history history museum studies anthropology ethnic studies and Native American studies The contributors engage in critical dialogues about key aspects of the museum's origin exhibits significance and the relationship between Native Americans and other related museums Sustainable Tourism and Indigenous Peoples Anna

Carr, Lisa Ruhanen, Michelle Whitford, Bernard Lane, 2019-05-17 This book provides a comprehensive detailed and insight rich review of both the positive capacity building cultural conservation and economic opportunities and negative commodification cultural change and possible loss of ownership and control aspects of tourism development in indigenous communities The relationship between tourism and indigenous people provides the ultimate test of sustainable tourism as a concept for tourism management and cultural conservation The chapters range geographically from Central and North America through Africa and Asia to Australia Issues covered include governance and engagement research minority language issues visitor codes of conduct trail development Indigenous product design Indigenous urban festivals Indigenous values and capitalism gentrification heritage interpretation marketing demand world views and representation This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism Tourism and Wellness Kellee Caton, Bryan S. R. Grimwood, Heather Mair, Meghan Muldoon, 2018-11-15 Tourism and Wellness Travel for the Good of All enhances academic understandings and analyses of tourism as a social and worldmaking force by situating broad questions of well being health and equity within the scaffolds of critical tourism studies Contributors touch on power and politics space and place reflexivity and relationships values and affect and inequality and equity as viewed through critically informed and social justice perspectives This collection of cutting edge critical tourism analyses contextualizes and disrupts how wellness is understood in tourism For more information check out A Conversation with the Editors of Tourism and Wellness Travel for the Good of All Encyclopedia of Native American Tribes Carl Waldman, 2014-05-14 A comprehensive illustrated encyclopedia which provides information on over 150 native tribes of North America including prehistoric peoples Disjunctures Yann Allard-Tremblay, Assistant Professor Department of Political Science McGill University Senior Research Associate African Centre for Epistemology and Philosophy of Science Yann Allard-Tremblay, 2025-10-10 Disjunctures demonstrates the transformative potential of Indigenous political traditions in settler states that seek reconciliation Though there exist irreconcilable differences between Indigenous and dominant Euro modern political structures and identities Yann Allard Tremblay argues that these disjunctures highlight a way forward In contrast to Euro modern politics Indigenous ways of thinking and acting politically emphasize harmony not just among humans but within the broader ecological context Reconciliation thus requires a deep transformation of political theory and conduct to recenter decolonial Indigenous political traditions A Guide for Prescribed Fire in Southern Forests Dale D. Wade, 1989 The Routledge Handbook of Tourism and Indigenous Peoples Richard Butler, Anna Carr, 2024-08-30 The Routledge Handbook of Tourism and Indigenous Peoples presents an up to date critical and comprehensive overview of established and emerging themes around Indigeneity and connections between Indigenous peoples and tourism development Offering socio cultural perspectives and multidisciplinary insights from leading Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars and tourism practitioners the book explores contemporary issues challenges and trends Organised into six sections the handbook explores Indigenous community involvement in tourism Indigenous entrepreneurship and innovation Indigenous tourism policies and politics and the complexities of colonialism and decolonisation issues This text focuses on the active role that Indigenous peoples have in the industry and uses international case studies and experiences to explore the global context of Indigenous tourism This handbook fills a notable gap by offering a critical and detailed understanding of the role of Indigenous practitioners and societies in tourism and how they interact within the tourism nexus It will be of interest to scholars students tourism practitioners and policymakers working in tourism development studies anthropology human geography and sociology

The First Nations of British Columbia Robert James Muckle, 1998 The First Nations of British Columbia presents a concise and accessible overview of First Nations peoples' cultures and issues in the province. Its primary purpose is to provide an understanding of today's pertinent concerns and initiatives by familiarizing readers with the history, diversity, and complexity of First Nations. It does so from an anthropological perspective from which crucial archaeological, ethnographic, historic, and legal-political issues are explored.

Transcultural Pedagogies for Multilingual Classrooms Rahat Zaidi, Umit Boz, Eve Moreau, 2023-10-31 This book explores the ways in which transcultural pedagogies can support learning and literacies in critical, creative, and socially just ways, highlighting research initiatives from across the globe. Each chapter provides a different and innovative perspective with respect to reimagining language and literacy pedagogies in conjunction with students' diverse literacies and resources. Presenting a collection of classroom and community-based research, the book addresses the intersections of plurilingualism, identity, and transcultural awareness in various contexts, including schools, universities, as well as local and Indigenous communities. These settings have been deliberately chosen to profile the range of research in the field, showcasing transcultural plurilingual translanguaging and community-engaged pedagogies among others.
