Social Evolution Of Indonesia The Asiatic Mode Of Production And Its Legacy:

The Social Evolution of Indonesia F. Tichelman, 2012-12-06 At a fairly early stage of socialism's penetration into the Afro-Asian world a handful of European social democrats established an Indian Social Democratic Association (ISDV). They did so in a country (Indonesia) that was economically little developed and far away from any of the centres of European socialism and Asiatic radical nationalism. The ISDV was soon able to bring its influence to bear on sections of the urban proletariat and to build up an Indonesian revolutionary movement. This occurred in sharp competition with a nascent nationalist leadership and then without the usual intermediary role played by radicalizing groups of native intelligentsia. In this way Dutch social democrats laid the foundations for one of the first communist parties in Asia and Africa a party which was destined to become one of the few communist mass parties of the Third World. However in contrast to the major communist movements of China, Vietnam, this Indonesian party was to demonstrate a basic weakness successive and catastrophic defeats. If we leave out Japan the only non-Western country where a capitalist industrial revolution occurred we see that foreign and particularly Western minorities frequently did play a dominant role in the initial and formative phases of the socialist and workers movements of the Afro-Asiatic world.

Islamic Connections R Michael Feener, Terenjit Sevea, 2009 Well over half of the world's Muslim population lives in Asia. Over the centuries a rich constellation of Muslim cultures developed there and the region is currently home to some of the most dynamic and important developments in contemporary Islam. Despite this the internal dynamics of Muslim societies in Asia do not often receive commensurate attention in international Islamic Studies scholarship. This volume brings together the work of an interdisciplinary group of scholars discussing various aspects of the complex relationships between the Muslim communities of South and Southeast Asia. With their respective contributions covering points and patterns of interaction from the medieval to the contemporary periods they attempt to map new trajectories for understanding the ways in which these two crucial areas have developed in relation to each other as well as in the broader contexts of both world history and the current age of globalization.

Capitalism and Colonial Production Hamza Alavi, P.L. Burns, G.R. Knight, P.B. Mayer, Doug McEachern, 2023-05-03 Capitalism and Colonial Production 1982 examines the ways in which capitalism has transformed the societies it came to dominate and the link between colonialism and capitalism. These essays confront the complex of issues using as material the various countries in Asia. They advance the debate by reconsidering the problems involved by identifying pre-colonial modes of production and by analysing the precise details of the changes wrought by colonial domination. They argue that capitalism does not in these countries co-exist side by side with feudalism but that colonialism has created distinctive forms of capitalism depending for their character on pre-colonial modes of production.

Comparative History of India and Indonesia, Volume 2 India and Indonesia from the 1830s to 1914

and Authoritarianism in Indonesia and Malaysia S. Alatas, 1997-10-29 The fact that the Malaysian state has managed to maintain a relatively democratic regime while an authoritarian regime came to power in Indonesia has never been the focus of historical and comparative analyses despite certain cultural social and historical affinities between these two countries This book takes a look at contrasting class structures and alliances elite cohesion state strength as well as differences in political challenges to the state in order to understand two different paths to post colonial state formation Changing Financial Landscapes in India and Indonesia Heiko Schrader, 1997 Heiko Schrader is an economist and sociologist He wrote his Ph D thesis and a book on traditional and contemporary trading patterns in the Nepal Himalayas and beyond Furthermore he edited a book together with Hans Dieter Evers on The Moral Economy of Trade Ethnicity and Developing Markets This book is the outcome of a five year research project on the history of finance in India and Indonesia that he completed with his Habilitation at the Faculty of Sociology University of Bielefeld

Pancasila and the Search for Identity and Modernity in Indonesian Society Darmaputera, 2023-07-31 Linking Destinies Peter Boomgaard, Dick Kooiman, Henk Schulte Nordholt, 2008-01-01 Trade flows cities and kinship relations can all be seen as elements of complex networks In this collection of essays all of which deal with Asia we argue that there are good reasons to envisage them as various dimensions of the same networks Nevertheless it is fairly rare to find trade cities and kinship relations as intimately linked as we have portrayed them in this volume because they are usually classified within different sub disciplines of history whose practitioners are all too often not inclined to talk to people outside their own field The Australian born historian Heather Sutherland who recently retired from the VU university in Amsterdam is an exception in this respect because most of her work gravitates towards an approach which aims to integrate this trinity of topics This collection of essays written by a number of her students and close colleagues has taken its cue from her approach It is not the case that all the contributions deal with all three topics but they as a collective demonstrate how flows of trade cities both as urban centres and nodes in wider networks and kinship relations hang together and how the study of one topic opens new vistas on the other two revealing causal links that otherwise would have remained hidden Thus the essays in this collective volume support the idea that trade towns and kin although often dealt with quite separately can be viewed as various aspects of the same networks connecting people places and commodities

Two Colonial Empires C.A. Bayly, D.H. Kolff, 2012-12-06 by C A Bayly and D H A Kolff The papers published in this volume were originally presented at two meetings of the Cambridge Leiden group for the comparative study of colonial India and Indonesia held in June 1979 and September 1982 These meetings were jointly sponsored by the Centre for the History of European Expansion at Leiden and the Centre for South Asian Studies at Cambridge The Cambridge Centre had been restricted to the study of India Pakistan Sri Lanka Burma and Nepal but had recently incorporated Southeast Asia into its area of interest the Leiden Centre which had encouraged comparative study from the beginning necessarily found itself concentrating attention on Indonesia as the most important region of the former

Dutch colonial empire The meetings were intended to be exploratory as much to alert the participants to work being done in the respective countries and to their different types of academic discourse as to compare India and Indonesia Nor were the meetings intended to be exclusive Scholars from several British and Netherlands Universities were involved from the beginning More recently a wider series of conferences has been inaugurated This brings scholars in India and Indonesia into a project which seeks to develop the comparisons between the two colonial societies on a more systematic basis

Financial Landscapes Reconstructed F. J. A. Bouman, 2019-03-11 The past few decades have seen special and changing emphasis in policy frameworks of rural financial intermediation in developing countries varying from the distribution of cheap credit via specialized farm credit institutions to the building of linkages between banks and savings groups to attempts to use traders or NGOs as new conduits of lending The destructive impact of cheap credit programs on rural financial markets has been the subject of two conferences organized by the Ohio State University in the USA in 1976 and 1981 in conjunction with the Agency for International Development and the World Bank They resulted in a collection of readings edited by J D Von Pischke Dale W Adams and Gordon Donald Rural Financial Markets in Developing Countries Baltimore Johns Hopkins Press 1983 followed by Undermining Rural Development With Cheap Credit edited by Dale W Adams Douglas H Graham and J D Von Pischke Boulder Westview Press 1984 Acknowledging the increasing interest of researchers and policymakers in the roles and uses of informal financial intermediaries the Ohio State University subsequently organized a Seminar in Washington D C in 1989 that produced Informal Finance in Low Income Countries edited by Dale W Adams and Delbert A Fitchett Boulder Westview Press 1992

German Communism, Workers' Protest, and Labor Unions Larry Peterson, 2013-03-07 This book analyzes how a sizable group of German workers came to support Communism and how they in turn influenced the emergence and development of the German Communist Party KPD in its formative period as a mass party It reconstructs the interaction between a party and the constituency to which it appealed within the constraints and opportunities set by social structures economic conditions and political competitors This interaction revolved around the elaboration and implementation of a specific concept of revolutionary politics and this study investigates both the rise of the KPD as a mass party and its failure to set off a socialist revolution in the early 1920s in light of the contradictory ways German workers responded to its revolutionary strategy When I began to study the KPD in the mid 1970s scholarly works in the West portrayed a party so out of touch with the realities of German life from 1918 to 1933 that its history was a litany of political mistakes that led from crisis to catastrophe The KPD was dominated by the foreign policy interests of the Soviet Union by factional disputes and personal rivalries among the leadership by an authoritarian centralized party structure that stifled rank and file initiative and imposed a party line determined in Moscow and Berlin and by a rigid ideology largely irrelevant to trends in German economy society and politics with at best compensatory value for a minority of the most impoverished workers

Politics and Society in Early Modern Iraq T. Nieuwenhuis, 2012-12-06 1 This study deals with the Mamluk period in Iraqi history 1750 1831 and more particularly with later Mamliik times 1802 1831 The year 1831 marks the watershed between an era of local rule and one of restored Turkish centralization During the Mamliik period the influence of external powers in Iraq was not excessive after that year direct Turkish rule coincided with growing British influence which increasingly opened the country to the forces of the world market As an object of study the period of local rule is interesting particularly because it formed the background to and in some aspects also the start of the modern history of Iraq The literature available on Mamliik rule and tribal power is scarce and unsatisfying in various ways The best history of Ottoman Iraq is still that of Longrigg which was written in the 1920 s However although based on an admirable range of sources it provides the reader with little more than a political chronology Generally the social and political historian of early modern Iraq is confronted with a lack of information of a very basic kind if indeed he can find any relevant information For example there is hardly any information on the Mamliik institution Only the most scanty evidence exists on the history of the Yanissaris of Baghdad or on the socio political history of the lower orders of the town Again almost nothing is known about the lower orders of the sedentary rural world

A Show Trial Under Lenin M. Jansen, 2012-12-06 Soviet Russia will conquer all the millions of problems that stand in its way on one condition as long as the cause of the political education of the broad masses of the people continually advances We have nothing to be afraid of if our people fully learns to distinguish who are its friends and who are its enemies The trial of the Socialist Revolutionaries must and shall be a great step forward in the cause of the political instruction of the very broadest masses in town and country Grigorii Zinov'ev Pravda and Krasnaia gazeta 20 June 1922 For my part I considered this trial to be unnecessary the Socialist Revolutionaries had been beaten and represented no visible danger at all Charles Rappoport Ma vie Paris 1926 1927 Vol 2 p 80 The Bolsheviks seized power in Russia in October 1917 by staging a coup d'etat and then established a dictatorship The new rulers suppressed all armed resistance in a bloody civil war after which they made every effort to uproot and exterminate even peaceful political opposition of all kinds Even now it is impossible in the Soviet Union to subject these developments to critical historical study The political opponents of the Soviet regime of the time are still regarded by official Soviet historiography as counter revolutionaries and the measures taken against them are seen as completely justified

Constituting the Minangkabau Joel Kahn, 2020-05-26 This account of culture and society in the villages of West Sumatra Indonesia during the period of Dutch colonialism is based on materials collected from the colonial archives local Indonesian newspapers and recent fieldwork in Malaysia and Indonesia The author argues that the impact of colonial land grabbing and political control led to the formation of a peasant economy in the period At the same time the author tackles issues in the recent anthropological debates about ethnography and culture to argue that this period also witnessed the construction of what we now call Minangkabau Culture a process that involved western ethnographers colonial officials and Minangkabau intellectuals in an often conflicted process of

Annual Conference, Olle Törnquist, 1991      Anarchosyndicalism, Libertarian Communism and the State Graham Kelsey,      State and Trade in the Indonesian Archipelago G.J. Schutte, 1994-01-01 The theme of this volume state formation and mercantile evolution in Indonesia has been the subject of historiographical debate for quite some time In recent decades the focus of this debate has shifted from the external challenge posed by westerners towards the indigenous response to that challenge and towards local and regional situations adding to the knowledge of state and state formation Nine case studies on state formation in the Indonesian archipelago illustrate this approach They deal with widely differing states in different periods and regions ranging from the twelfth century Javanese state of Kadiri to the twentieth century Netherlands Indies colonial state and from Riau and West Borneo to Buton and the Seram Sea Most of the studies concern states that came under the influence of the Dutch East Indies Company or its successor the Dutch colonial state The contributors to this volume are from Indonesia Muhammad Gade Ismail R Z Leirissa Edi Sedyawati and Suhartono and from the Netherlands F van Baardewijk V J H Houben L W Nagtegaal J W Schoorl and R Vos Based on in depth bibliographical and archival research these studies shed new light on historical situations and processes thus contributing significantly to the knowledge of Indonesia s past and its historiography      Refugees from Nazi Germany in the Netherlands 1933-1940 R. Moore, 2012-12-06 My interest in the refugee question of the 1930s stemmed initially from time spent as an undergraduate at Manchester University an interest which has been expanded via a doctoral thesis to the writing of this book In writing about the German and Austrian refugees who fled to the Netherlands before the country was occupied in May 1940 the main aim has been to re turn the refugee question of the 1930s into its pre war context a context from which it has often been dragged to provide an introduction to the events of the war period and the policies carried out by the Germans in occupied Europe A study of the Netherlands provides the opportunity to look at refugees as a whole not just as Jews social democrats or communists and also to examine the reaction and response of an European government to what was essentially a unique problem I take great pleasure in recording my gratitude to the many people who have helped me in the course of my work To the Dutch Ministerie van On derwijs en Wetenschappen and the Twenty Seven Foundation for grants which enabled me to spend time in the Netherlands completing the research for this project and to the British Academy for their financial assistance with publication costs The research for this book took me to many libraries and archives in a number of countries
