Joykumar Singh, 2006 Exploring Social Movements Biswajit Ghosh, 2024-06-18 This book introduces the readers to the dynamics of various kinds of social movements It examines how social movements have become an instrument of social change including assertion of identity and protest against marginalisation This book describes three major domains conceptual experiential and the impact of globalisation on social movements The volume begins by locating social movements within broad and contemporary social processes and explores the intrinsic and complex patterns of dynamics among state market and social movements from a critical sociological perspective It explains the meaning basic features origins and types leadership and ideology and perspectives of social movements and probes into major experiences of eight social movements in India namely peasant and farmers tribal Naxalite and Maoist Dalit working class women ethnic and environmental movements This book also analyses the role of information technology media and civil society in the spread and continuation of such movements The experiences of queer new religious anti systemic and anti displacement movements would also help readers understand how globalisation has offered new avenues of protest to diverse sections of the population Lessons of anti globalisation movements across the world provide a futuristic perspective in assessing the strength of social movements in a global society This book will be useful to the students researchers and faculty working in the field of political science sociology gender studies and post colonial contemporary Indian politics in particular It will also be an invaluable and interesting reading for those interested in South Asian studies Nation and Its Modes of Oppressions in South Asia Sajal Nag, 2022-12-30 This volume examines nationhood as a concept and how it became the basis of political discourse in South Asia It studies the emergence of nationalism in modern states as a powerful omnipotent and omnipresent form of political identity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This book examines the idea of a nation as it originated in medieval Europe as an unending process of othering individuals groups and communities to establish its hegemony exclusivity and absolute power within a political discourse It sheds light on how these new political frameworks in the name of nationalism resulted in conflicts and bloodshed It unleashed politics of retribution and facilitated majoritarianism minority persecution and collective authoritarianism which devastated individuals and collectivities Further the author also discusses various prominent ideas and contemporary theories on nationalism alongside pivotal socio cultural factors which have significantly shaped the formation of modern nation states and their politics Topical and nuanced this book will be indispensable to researchers scholars and readers interested in nationalism political science modern history political theory political philosophy political sociology political history post colonial studies and South Asia studies Law and Society

Naorem Sanajaoba,1991 Communities, Institutions and Histories of India's Northeast Charisma K. Lepcha,Uttam Lal,2021-11-09 People from India s Northeast have crafted distinct as well as diverse cultural cryptograms discernments and personality which is frequently at loggerheads with the power politics from outside the region Thus attention is often on the societies of the Northeast India as they putter with transforming institutions and more intensive resource consumption in the wake of modernization and development activities This volume is an examination into questions of who exercises control who constructs knowledge ideas about the region and how far such discourses are people centric It inspects how India s Northeast have been understood in colonial and post colonial contexts through the contributions from research scholars and faculties from different academic spaces These contributions are both from within the region as well as from neighbourhood Thus presenting a cross dimensional gaze on social political economic as well as issues related to space relation Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Encyclopaedia Of Manipur (3 Vol.) Khomdan Singh Lisam,2011 Self Determination Movement in Manipur Aheibam Koireng Singh,Shukhdeba Sharma Hanjabam,Homen Thangjam,2015-01-01 This edited volume dwells on the erstwhile sovereign and pre merger times of Manipur and the changes in her political status after becoming an integral part of India Underscoring the armed conflict situation that have plagued the state for years it examines whether Manipur fulfills the criteria of possessing the right to self determination set out by the United Nations and other internationally accepted benchmarks Women's Role in the 20th Century Manipur Tingneichong G. Kipgen,2010 The Gaidinliu Uprising in British India Sajal Nag,2024-03-19 This book studies the Gaidinliu uprising led by Rani Gaidinliu a spiritual and political leader from Northeast India It follows the journey of Gaidinliu who was at the forefront of the revolt which turned into a political movement seeking to drive out the British from Manipur and the surrounding Naga areas The book looks at the Gaidinliu movement as one of many tribal responses to colonial transformation deprivation alienation and extreme oppression of the tribal formations in India It also critically analyses the diverse colonial modes of tackling the different types of opposition to its rule and examines how the State devised to permanently erase the idea of rebellion from the minds of its subjects as a future strategy A unique contribution the book will be indispensable to political science modern history gender studies subaltern studies political theory tribal studies political sociology political history colonialism post colonial studies and South Asia studies particularly those interested in Northeast India Violence and Identity in North-east India S. R. Tohring,2010 Society, Politics, and Development in North East India Asok Kumar Ray,Satyabrata Chakraborty,2008 Contributed articles chiefly with reference to rural development in Northeastern India includes articles on cultural history of the region Social Movements in Contemporary India Bidyut Chakrabarty,1999 Wounded Land John Parratt,2005-01-01 Articles with reference to Manipur India The Emergence of Meetei Nationalism Rajendra Kshetri,2006-01-01 Politics of Soft Power Diplomacy And Its Responses Dr. Samson S Chiru, Politics of Soft Power

Diplomacy and its Responses is the outcome of Seminar Series at Mt Everest College Senapati Manipur for the past more than half dozen decade of continual effort sustained by loving promotion and encouragement received from reputed ICSSR and UGC in granting Seminar grant to me as convener of this series The book covers wide ranges of inclusion and exclusion in accessing mainstream projects and government programmes which are dealt and discussed here by different contributors of papers from various academic disciplines It is felt that Soft Power Diplomacy is very instrumental in shaping the image of a country abroad Joseph Nye coined the term and domestic policies are as important as foreign policies Classical Realists too have informed consent on the similar understanding of domestic domain having ramification on foreign policies for a country The author editor of this book feels that the work will contribute in its bit to researches and analyses and expected that the gap in formulating the issues pertaining to the marginalized and suppressed groups in policy formulation and implementation can be further carried in future I always said that soft corner given to minorities and dominated section in any given group society is pre requisite to development of the country If in a given country only the the majority rules then that country would never be called a pluralistic and cosmopolitan approach in its shape of designing the structure of its government and governance Besides the author editor also has no doubt that such studies as this will be of special interest to academicians policy makers policy implementers legal practitioners politicians activists students and public at large As issues discussed here are all Soft Power Diplomacy domain that pertain to flexible and diversified components that are most required to address the grievances of the discriminated and dominated lots in the society

North-East India: Land, People and Economy K.R. Dikshit, Jutta K Dikshit, 2013-10-21 North East India comprising the seven contiguous states around Assam the principal state of the region is a relatively unknown yet very fascinating region The forest clad peripheral mountains home to indigenous peoples like the Nagas Mizos and the Khasis the densely populated Brahmaputra valley with its lush green tea gardens and the golden rice fields the moderately populated hill regions and plateaus and the sparsely inhabited Himalayas form a unique mosaic of natural and cultural landscapes and human interactions with unparalleled diversity The book provides a glimpse into the region's past and gives a comprehensive picture of its physical environment people resources and its economy The physical environment takes into account not only the structural base of the region its physical characteristics and natural vegetation but also offers an impression of the region's biodiversity and the measures undertaken to preserve it The people of the region especially the indigenous population inhabiting contrasting environments and speaking a variety of regional and local dialects have received special attention bringing into focus the role of migration that has influenced the traditional societies for centuries The book acquaints the readers with spatial distribution life style and culture of the indigenous people outlining the unique features of each tribe The economy of the region depending originally on primitive farming and cottage industries like silkworm rearing but now greatly transformed with the emergence of modern industries power resources and expanding trade is reviewed based on authentic data and actual field observations The epilogue the last chapter in the book summarizes the authors perception of the region and its future
