Agency Anindya Kundu, 2020-07-10 How can we promote the learning and well being of all students especially those who come from some of the most disadvantaged backgrounds Anindya Kundu argues that we can fight against deeply rooted inequalities in the American educational system by harnessing student agency each person's unique capacity for positive change To make his case Kundu draws powerful narratives from a population of individuals who beat the odds to become academically and professionally successful These strivers have overcome challenges such as broken families homelessness unexpected pregnancies forms of abuse incarceration and more to make it in the world But it wasn't simply individualism tenacity resilience or grit that helped them Rather as Kundu illustrates it was a combination of social and cultural supports that paved the path towards their dreams harnessing the inherent power of their agency Book Features A counter narrative to the popular misconception that all students need is grit A strengths based approach to education that is sensitive to students communities and cultures Rich first person quotes from individuals who have overcome immense odds Useful diagrams for educational stakeholders on the relationship between grit and agency Descriptions of dense sociological concepts presented in plain terms Inclusion of fundamental and new waves in psychology Social Europe Joe

Bailey, 2014-06-03 Since the first edition of Social Europe was published in 1992 profound social changes have occurred throughout Europe as a result of conflicting pressures on the one hand to become more integrated and on the other to protect national interests and identity This second edition of Social Europe has been fully revised to provide a comprehensive and focused account of basic social issues and structures which provide the context for these changes Each chapter covers a key topic such as education crime gender health and religion and provides valuable comparisons between the key nation states of Western Europe Learning How to Be an Active Citizen in Dublin's Docklands Marianne Breen, Nicholas

Rees, 2009 Living In A Learning Society Ari Antikainen, Jarmo Houtsonen, Juha Kauppi, Hannu Huotelin, 2012-10-12 This text discusses the meaning of education through an examination of life paths identities and significant learning experiences Looking at education over three generations of war and scant education of structural change and increasing educational opportunities and of social well being and wide educational choice the book examines a variety of questions The book demonstrates how the synthesis of social and cultural interpretations of education forms four groups resource status conformity and individualism The implications to education policy in late modern or postmodern society are also discussed

Hyper Education Pawan Dhingra, 2021-09-07 An up close look at the education arms race of after school learning academic competitions and the perceived failure of even our best schools to educate children Beyond soccer leagues music camps and drama lessons today's youth are in an education arms race that begins in elementary school In Hyper Education Pawan Dhingra uncovers the growing world of high achievement education and the after school learning centers spelling bees and math competitions that it has spawned It is a world where immigrant families vie with other Americans to be at the head of the class putting in hours of studying and testing in order to gain a foothold in the supposed meritocracy of American public education A world where enrichment centers like Kumon have seen 194 percent growth since 2002 and target children as young as three Even families and teachers who avoid after school academics are getting swept up Drawing on over 100 in depth interviews with teachers tutors principals children and parents Dhingra delves into the why people participate in this phenomenon and examines how schools families and communities play their part Moving past Tiger Mom stereotypes he addresses why Asian American and white families practice what he calls hyper education and whether or not it makes sense By taking a behind the scenes look at the Scripps National Spelling Bee other national competitions and learning centers Dhingra shows why good schools good grades and good behavior are seen as not enough for high achieving students and their parents and why the education arms race is likely to continue to expand

Socialisation During the Life Course Klaus Hurrelmann, Ullrich Bauer, 2018-01-02 This comprehensive text highlights new developments in sociological educational and psychological aspects of socialisation examining how human beings as subjects experiencing thinking and acting individuals confront the material social and cultural objects of their environment and sustain their position The authors provide an overview of the most important theories of socialisation then integrate these using the Productive Processing of Reality PPR model This novel approach is applied to a life course analysis examining developmental tasks and the challenges of productive processing of the internal and external reality at various stages of development The book also considers contexts addressing the inequalities between different socio economic and ethnic groups and genders to consider how humans with their genetic dispositions and their individual instincts and needs solve the task of coping with the requirements of society culture and economy while at the same time safeguarding their status as unique individuals It is core reading for advanced students on socialisation modules in developmental or social psychology and educational sciences and is additionally of value for the professional training of sociologists teachers and social workers It is also relevant for all those interested in elementary questions of how the interaction between the society and the individual works how human beings deal not only with themselves but also with their social and physical environment and how they shape it in their own way

Netherlands      Out Of Sight, Out Of Mind Yvonne Vissing, 2021-03-17 Because they're small they're easy to overlook. Because their voices don't carry far it's hard to hear them. We'd rather not look too closely or listen too carefully. And if we don't see them maybe they'll just go away. But the invisible homeless cannot simply fly away to never-never land or pull themselves up by their bootstraps or make a wish upon a star. These homeless people are children and they are not always in the inner cities as Yvonne Vissing shows in this poignant study of families, housing and poverty. As many as a third of our nation's homeless are found in rural and small town America. They are all too commonly out of sight and out of mind. Homelessness in small towns and rural areas is on the rise. Drawing on interviews with and case studies of three hundred children and their families with supporting statistics from federal, state and private agencies Vissing illustrates the impact this social problem has upon education, health and the economy. Families vividly describe the ways they have fallen through cracks in the social structure from home ownership into homelessness. Looking toward the future Vissing asks if homeless children are destined to become dysfunctional adults and provides a sixteen-year-old girl's moving testimony of the vagabond life her homeless family led. While the economy and the very nature of the family have changed over past decades housing, education and human service industries have failed to adapt. Vissing provides a planning model for improving support networks within communities and challenges Americans with a fundamental philosophical question: Do homeless children merit full-scale social intervention? Ultimately Out of Sight, Out of Mind compels us not merely to voice concerns for family and community values but also to assert this commitment consciously through improved essential services.      Equity, Teaching Practice and the Curriculum Ninni Wahlström, 2022-02-07 This book explores how different classroom discourses and concepts of knowledge permeate teaching in high and low performance classrooms. Drawing on empirical research from classrooms in Sweden it presents a theory-based framework for classroom research. The book examines the central concepts of knowledge, curriculum, pedagogy and equity to discuss differences in access to knowledge and the implications of these differences for students' future opportunities and well-being. It analyses the relationships between different teaching factors and discusses teaching from democratic perspectives developed within curriculum theory. Combining insights from curriculum theory with insights from sociolinguistic and sociocultural classroom research this project breaks new ground in how knowledge from curriculum content is recontextualised into concrete teaching practices in the context of a standards-based curriculum. Providing valuable insights into the intersections between classroom practice, student performance and teacher expectations this book will be of great interest to academics, researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of curriculum research, education policy, teacher education and classroom practice.      Women and Sport in Latin America Rosa Lopez de D'Amico, Tansin Benn, Gertrud Pfister, 2016-05-20 This multidisciplinary book draws on sociology, cultural studies, anthropology and history to explore the diversity, challenges and achievements of Latin American women in sport. It offers an in-depth analysis of women's sport in ten countries across Latin America, insights into the sport activities of indigenous peoples and the contributions of Latin American women to sport living outside of the region The book also provides a comprehensive overview of international developments in gender and sport research policy development and theory and addresses sport participation at many levels including in school based physical education community and high performance contexts
