Economic Inequality - Trends, Traps and Trade-offs Medani P. Bhandari, Shvindina Hanna, 2022-09-01 The book Economic Inequality Trends Traps and Trade offs presents the unexplored issues of economic inequality including case studies of various countries Inequality is a chronic divisive factor of society It is well known that inequalities such as economic social cultural religious geographical etc have been omnipresent in human society Inequalities can be found within each family each community and each nation and thus globally Inequality is a major cause of political economic social instability and creates crisis and conflict within society A major cause of inequality is unequal uneven biased power centric distributions of human economic social political cultural and spiritual human necessities The edited book examines the major parameters of the socio economic issues of inequality and focuses on the key economic issues of inequality namely income and wealth distribution equity equality of outcome and equality of opportunities Economic inequality is measured by wealth income dsiproportions in distribution and consumption patterns in a specific area Mostly inequality is measured using various statistical tools including the Gini Coefficient inequality adjusted human development index 20 20 ratio Palma ratio Hoover index Galt score Coefficient of variation Theil index wage share etc However not all income can be measured by these tools By using case studies this book encourages us to reframe economic development through the lens of growing inequalities and disparities Economic growth per se is disproportional and the efforts of scholars practitioners and policymakers should be directed to empower the marginalized of society in a way that no one should left behind UN Slogan

Inequality - the unbeatable challenge Medani P. Bhandari, Shvindina Hanna, 2022-09-01 This edited book presents some unexplored issues of economic inequality including case studies of various countries Inequality is a chronic and divisive factor of society Inequality exists as an integral attribute of human development Communities nations and systems are not evolving at the same speed and rate and thus require different resources in different amounts However the distribution of winnings is also uneven due to the multidimensionality of influencing factors When we talk about inequality it is not just inequality of income or wealth it is first inequality in access to priorities and human needs to shelter to clean water air health care and also to appropriate vaccination systems and assistance security systems and safety guarantees for the future Past financial crises and the current pandemic shock has revealed bugs in the system shaking it and changing our perception of the norms We may have no doubts that inequality is an unsolved problem but now we need to find out is it unbeatable There is still lack of knowledge around how inequality has been grounded throughout human civilization why society is stratified and classified economically politically socially and religiously and why the discrimination due to gender sexual orientation country of origin language differences immigration status caste race and ethnicity This book addresses these issues in a holistic way as well as including case studies of various countries It tries to find out why inequality has been unbeatable and what would be the best policies to overcome this challenge

The Global Lives of German Migrants Marcel Erlinghagen,Andreas Ette,Norbert F. Schneider,Nils Witte,2021-04-29 Based on the German case this open access book highlights the increasing flows of migration and the internationalisation of individual life courses It analyses the experiences of migration across four central domains employment and income partners and families health and wellbeing as well as friends and social participation which potentially have far reaching consequences for social inequalities and life chances The book showcases results from an innovative probability sample that is representative of German emigrants who recently moved abroad and remigrants who recently returned from abroad and compares their international experiences with the sedentary population in Germany Stays abroad whether temporary or permanently have become the new normal for increasing numbers of people from highly developed welfare states Unnoticed from mainstream migration studies these countries are today not only major immigration countries but also important sources of international mobility By providing an empirically founded prism of the global lives of German migrants this book is a valuable resource for students and researchers of migration social inequality and the life course and provides practitioners with insights into these regularly overlooked aspects of international migration

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

Income Justice in Ukraine Kseniia Gatskova, 2015-01-12 This book presents the results of an empirical study of distributive justice attitudes in the post Soviet transforming society of Ukraine The focus of this study is on the mechanisms of the formation of justice attitudes which are explained within the methodological framework of analytical sociology Two perspectives of research were applied in this study a contextual and a comparative approach in order to test the hypotheses stemming from a combination of the major statements of human capital labor market rational choice socialization adaptation and cognitive dissonance theories and the analysis of the current political and socio economic situation in Ukraine The innovative factorial survey method was applied as a measurement technique for people s distributive justice attitudes Bringing together fundamental theoretical statements on the nature of social justice and unique novel data on attitudes to justice this study contributes to several research areas including inequality studies and post communist transformation research Bondage Alessandro Stanziani,2015-11 For the first time this book provides the global history of labor in Central Eurasia Russia Europe and the Indian Ocean between the sixteenth and the twentieth centuries It contests common views on free and unfree labor and compares the latter to many Western countries where wage conditions resembled those of domestic servants This gave rise to extreme forms of dependency in the colonies not only under slavery but also afterwards in form of indentured labor in the Indian Ocean and obligatory labor in Africa Stanziani shows that unfree labor and forms of economic coercion were perfectly compatible with market development and capitalism proven by the consistent economic growth that took place all over Eurasia between the seventeenth and the nineteenth centuries This growth was labor intensive commercial expansion transformations in agriculture and the first industrial revolution required more labor not less Finally Stanziani demonstrates that this world did not collapse after the French Revolution or the British industrial revolution as is commonly assumed but instead between 1870 and 1914 with the second industrial revolution and the rise of the welfare state Post-school Pathways of

The Sociology of Health and Illness Sarah Nettleton,2006-07-04 This reader brings together recent writing on health illness and health care in contemporary society It emphasizes the empirical nature of medical sociology and its relationship with the development of sociological theory Whiteness and Nationalism Nasar Meer,2020-12-17 Naming whiteness is becoming an increasingly pressing issue across a variety of social and political contexts In this book an international set of authors discuss how and why this has come to be the case Studying whiteness as either a social identity or political ideology is a relatively recent area of scholarship Unusually within the fields of race and ethnicity it is a concept that sits at an intersection between historical privilege and identity At the same time white privilege is not universally shared in or can be distant to how many white people feel they experience their identities Whiteness as a site of privilege is therefore not absolute but rather cross cut by a range of other concerns too Nonetheless recent political developments serve to illustrate the political potency of appeals to whiteness in a way that suggests whiteness coupled with nationhood is a central social and political topic In this book authors from the USA Australia and Europe consider the contemporary relationships between whiteness and national identity by focusing on mainstream electoral politics the normalisation of white supremacy and where whiteness stands in relation to pluralised national identities The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Identities Global Studies in Culture and Power

Integration and Inequality in Educational Institutions Michael Windzio, 2013-03-12 This volume addresses questions that lie at the core of research into education It examines the way in which the institutional embeddedness and the social and ethnic composition of students affect educational performance skill formation and behavioral outcomes It discusses the manner in which educational institutions accomplish social integration It poses the question of whether they can reduce social inequality or whether they even facilitate the transformation of heterogeneity into social inequality Divided into five parts the volume offers new insights into the many factors processes and policies that affect performance levels and social inequality in educational institutions It presents current empirical work on social processes in educational institutions and their outcomes While its main focus is on the primary and secondary level of education and on occupational training the book also presents analyses of institutional effects on transitions from vocational training into tertiary educational institutions in an interdisciplinary and internationally comparative approach

Changing Societies Anthony M. Orum, John Wallace Claire Johnstone, Stephanie Riger, 1999 Changing Societies seeks to explain sociology through processes of global and local change It also covers the way in which issues such as racial gender and ethnic differences can affect particular social institutions and processes
