Annual Report of the New York State Board of Social Welfare and the New York State Department of Social Services New York (State). Department of Social Services,1878 Democracy Without Decency William M.

Epstein,2015-10-20 The conservative attacks on the welfare system in the United States over the past several decades have put liberal defenders of poverty relief and social insurance programs on the defensive In this no holds barred look at the reality of American social policy since World War II William Epstein argues that this defense is not worth mounting that the claimed successes of American social programs are not sustained by evidence Rather than their failure being the result of inadequate implementation or political resistance stemming from the culture wars these programs and their built in limitations actually do represent what the vast majority of people in this country want them to be However much people may speak in favor of welfare the proof of what they really want is in the pudding of the social policies that are actually legislated The stinginess of America s welfare system is the product of basic American values rooted in the myth of heroic individualism and reinforced by a commitment to social efficiency the idea that social services need to be minimal and compatible with current social arrangements

Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations Kathryn A. Agard,2011 Leadership in Non Profit Organizations tackles issues and leadership topics for those seeking to understand more about this dynamic sector of society A major focus of this two volume reference work is on the specific roles and skills required of the non profit leader in voluntary organizations Key features include contributions from a wide range of authors who reflect the variety vibrancy and creativity of the sector itself an overview of the history of non profit organizations in the United States description of a robust and diverse assortment of organizations and opportunities for leadership an exploration of the nature of leadership and its complexity as exemplified in the non profit sector availability both in print and online this title will form part of the 2010 Encyclopedia Collection on SAGE Reference Online The Handbook includes topics such as personalities of non profit leaders

□□□□□□□□□□ Frank Joseph Shulman,Anna See Ping Leon Shulman,2001-01-01 A descriptively annotated multidisciplinary cross referenced and extensively indexed guide to 2 395 dissertations that are concerned either in whole or in part with Hong Kong and with Hong Kong Chinese students and emigres throughout the world The Routledge Handbook of Poverty in the United States Stephen Haymes,Maria Vidal de Haymes,Reuben Miller,2014-12-17 In the United States the causes and even the meanings of poverty are disconnected from the causes and meanings of global poverty The Routledge Handbook of Poverty in the United States provides an authoritative overview of the relationship of poverty with the rise of neoliberal capitalism in the context of globalization Reorienting its national economy towards a global logic US domestic policies have promoted a market based strategy of economic development and growth as the obvious solution to alleviating poverty affecting approaches to the problem discursively politically economically culturally and experientially However the handbook explores how rather than alleviating poverty it has instead exacerbated poverty and pre existing inequalities privatizing the services of social welfare and educational institutions transforming the state from a benevolent to a punitive state and criminalizing poor women racial and ethnic minorities and immigrants Key issues examined by the international selection of leading scholars in this volume include income distribution employment health hunger housing and urbanization With parts focusing on the lived experience of the poor social justice and human rights frameworks as opposed to welfare rights models and the role of helping professions such as social work health and education this comprehensive handbook is a vital reference for anyone working with those in poverty whether directly or at a macro level Web-Based Education in the Human Services Richard Schoech,Brenda Moore,Robert James Macfadden,Marilyn Herie,2014-02-25 Web Based Education in the Human Services reflects the vitality and diversity of Web based courses currently delivered within human services Unlike previous texts that have combined technologies such as Interactive Television ITV and two way audio where Web involvement was minimal this unique book focuses on Web based models tools and techniques used in courses where the majority of the content is delivered online The book s contributors emphasize the social aspects of learning examining topical areas not usually associated with Web based education as they remind us of the need to move beyond the similarities between WBE and face to face FTF approaches Contractualism and Citizenship Terry Carney,Gaby Ramia,Anna Yeatman,2001 Contractualism and Citizenship is a special issue Volume 18 No 2 of the journal Law in Context The contents are listed below You can read the abstract for each chapter by clicking on its title You can purchase a single copy of this issue through this page or subscribe to the journal from the journal page Evaluation in Child and Family Services Tiziano Vecchiato,Anthony N. Maluccio,Cinzia Canali, As child and family interventions assume greater international application it will be helpful to examine the various ways in which service innovations are being evaluated As demonstrated in the seminar from which these chapters resulted only by sharing our specific professional interests our too frequent problems in measurement our despair in implementing complicated studies and our successes can we advance the evaluation of human services and their outcomes This volume considers a variety of programs and issues in the field of child and family services While different perspectives are evident among the authors in terms of their focus and or emphasis there is common concern about the value of examining each program or service so as to maximize its impact as well as its potential for dissemination Intervention research should spur and motivate cross national efforts not only among researchers but also among social workers and other practitioners from diverse professions engaged in the delivery of human services Such collaboration would contribute to the ultimate goals of achieving greater clarity about the specifics of best practices in child and family services protocols for assessing outcomes and ways of improving service delivery How then can researchers and policymakers in diverse settings within diverse countries improve practice and service delivery on behalf of children and families What particular program findings can be generalized to improve services How can we share and implement new solutions The contributions to this volume address such questions from varying international perspectives Contributors provide answers and generate discussion points for consideration by practitioners as well as researchers The book is a must for social work parishioners in areas involving the delivery of goods as well as services Tiziano Vecchiato is scientific director of the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy Anthony N Maluccio is professor of social work at Boston College Graduate School of Social Work Chestnut Hill Massachusetts Cinzia Canali is research associate at the Fondazione Emanuela Zancan Padua Italy

Values and Practice in Children's Services Roger Smith, 2004-10-29 Values and their application are a continuing area of concern for those involved in work with children and families This book provides a means of understanding models of social welfare and children s services and relating these to the challenges of practice Key debates about values in children s services are identified and examined in their legislative policy and practice contexts The text develops a range of approaches to practice utilizing case examples to illustrate the challenges and to help practitioners with the task of reconciling competing expectations in their work with children New to this Edition Increased coverage of authoritarian states and hybrid regimes A wider range of international case studies than ever before particularly including expanded coverage of Latin America and Africa A resource packed companion website featuring student and lecturer materials such as interactive quizzes video tutorials essay papers testbanks and an exclusive web only chapter on Political Economy

A Man's World? Bob Pease, Keith Pringle, 2001 Men face common issues but are experiencing them all over the world in very different contexts and are coming up with different priorities and strategies to address them This new series provides a vehicle for understanding this diversity
