Oversight Hearing on the Fair Labor Standards Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Economic and Educational Opportunities. Subcommittee on Workforce Protections,1997      Stress Inside Police Departments Jon

Shane,2019-12-06 This book offers researchers police practitioners and policymakers a platform for organizational reform and an understanding of how the police organization creates stress which contributes to reduced officer performance This book based on an in depth study exploring the relationship between perceived organizational stressors and police performance indicates which features of the police organization generate the most stress affecting performance and provides a model of organizational stress that applies to police agencies While much stress research portrays the operation of policing as the greatest source of contention among officers this research shows the ever present rigid hierarchical design of the police agency to be contributing factor of stress that affects performance Ideal for scholars police personnel and policymakers who are interested in how the police organization contributes to lower officer performance this book has implications for policing agencies in the United States and worldwide      Traumatic Stress in Police Officers Douglas

Paton,2009 The objective of this book is to demonstrate how adopting a career perspective can provide a more comprehensive conceptualization of traumatic stress processes as they apply to police officers and agencies and provide a framework that can be used to guide research and intervention agenda in ways that reflect the changes that can occur over the course of a police career that can span decades The book examines the nature and effectiveness of the police role in dealing with adverse events as they unfold within a career perspective It begins with pre employment experiences and their implications for operational well being and concludes with a discussion of the implications of a police career for disengagement or retirement from this role It draws upon empirical research to provide an evidence based approach to traumatic stress risk management and well being in contemporary policing Based on state of the art research the book provides a framework that police agencies can use to develop their officers and their organizations in ways that enhance their capability to confront an increasingly uncertain future in ways that maximize the interests of front line policing Areas of discussion include incorporation of police trauma into a life career course perspective changing context and nature of police work recruitment selection and socialization in the context of critical incident and terrorist work changing gender balance training in uncertain times managing risk and vulnerability organizational context family dynamics inter and intraorganizational teams health and mental health consequences of long term exposure to hazards and disengagement and retirement The text will be of significant interest to police organizations and agencies whose officers face a high risk of experiencing disaster and traumatic stress law enforcement managerial and supervisory personnel human resource and health and safety professionals and mental health professionals and consultants The text will also be relevant to those researching traumatic stress disaster stress and emergency management as well as other protective services
