some of the key issues facing education and educationists today Evidence-Based Policy Ray Pawson, 2006-04-07 In this important new book Ray Pawson examines the recent spread of evidence based policy making across the Western world Few major public initiatives are mounted these days in the absence of a sustained attempt to evaluate them Programmes are tried and tried again and researched researched and researched again And yet it is often difficult to know which interventions and which inquiries will withstand the test of time The evident solution going by the name of evidence based policy is to take the longer view Rather than relying on one off studies it is wiser to look to the weight of evidence Accordingly it is now widely agreed the most useful data to support policy decisions will be culled from systematic reviews of all the existing research in particular policy domains This is the consensual starting point for Ray Pawson s latest foray into the world of evaluative research But this is social science after all and harmony prevails only in the first chapter Thereafter Pawson presents a devastating critique of the dominant approach to systematic review namely the meta analytic approach as sponsored by the Cochrane and Campbell collaborations In its place is commended an approach that he terms realist synthesis On this vision the real purpose of systematic review is better to understand programme theory so that policies can be properly targeted and developed to counter an ever changing landscape of social problems The book will be essential reading for all those who loved or loathed the arguments developed in Realistic Evaluation Sage 1997 It offers a complete blueprint for research synthesis supported by detailed illustrations and worked examples from across the policy waterfront It will be of especial interest to policy makers practitioners researchers and students working in health education employment social care criminal justice regeneration and welfare Young Men in Prison Joel Harvey, 2012-12-06 This book examines how young men between the ages of 18 and 21 make the transition to prison life and how they adapt practically socially and psychologically Based on extensive research in Feltham Young Offenders Institution this book examines in particular the role of social support both inside and outside prison in relation to their adaptation along with the constructs of trust locus of control and safety It concentrates both on the successful adaptation to prison life and on the experience of individuals who have difficulties in adapting it pays special attention to those who harm themselves whilst in prison It is the first study to provide an in depth account of the psycho social experience of imprisonment for young adults Understanding this early stage of imprisonment is of major importance to policy makers and practitioners in the light of the fact that up to a half of completed suicides occur within the first month in prison Concepts in Action , 2017-11-06 Rather than treating concepts and their application in a static and iconic manner Concepts in Action provides us with examples of the active and creative use of concepts for constructing and generating new knowledge Examples of theoretic constructions and topics discussed refers to the function of theory in main stream sociology concepts enabling us to expand the range of interpretations a critical view and approach to general concepts of culture nature and consumption concepts dealing with organization institutions and actors and examples of travelling concepts such as class gender race and social recognition Concepts in Action follows on the earlier Theory in Action 2016 as part of a three volume project broadening our understanding of the interplay of theory and methods The forthcoming third volume will focus on the strategy of constructing and analyzing the object in social science This volume is highly relevant for researchers and students interested in theoretical construction in the social sciences Contributors are G ran Ahrne Mette Andersson Harriet Bjerrum Nielsen Anne Britt Flemmen Antje Gimmler Willy Guneriussen Roar Hagen Raimund Hasse H kon Leiulfsrud Willy Martinussen John Scott Peter Sohlberg P l Strandbakken Richard Swedberg and Erik Olin Wright Pierre Bourdieu, Organization, and Management Ahu Tatli, Mustafa Ozbilgin, Mine Karatas-Ozkan, 2015-04-17 Pierre Bourdieu the French sociologist philosopher and anthropologist has been widely studied and analyzed in academic circles particularly in sociology where his ideas about power relations in social life helped to define the contemporary field While many other sociological theories and figures have been extensively discussed and analyzed within the contexts of organization studies and management Bourdieu s ideas have until recently been largely ignored Offering an authoritative evaluation of Bourdieu s work this book provides readers with conceptual frameworks empirical examples and methodological considerations for advancing theory and research in management and organization studies This book presents an in depth review of the relevance of Bourdieu s social theory for organization and management studies outlining the key aspects of Bourdieu s approach and situating his work in its historical and intellectual context of the time An outline of the treatment of Bourdieuan theory by management and organization scholars and a critique of the selective reception of his work are offered The first edited collection to explore the benefits of Bourdieuan sociology for a management audience this book is relevant for theory research and practice and will appeal to an international scholarly audience of academics and research students Recidivism in the Caribbean Dacia L. Leslie, 2019-04-26 This book provides a detailed and practical exploration of criminal recidivism and social reintegration in Jamaica It uses various methods to seek the authentic voices of inmates ex prisoners deported migrants and practitioners drawing on an original study to examine factors that might help ex prisoners more successfully transition from a prison environment to life within the community Leslie also raises important questions about the Jamaican state s capacity to meet the needs of inmates particularly as a large number of its citizens are subject to forced repatriation to their homeland by overseas jurisdictions due to their offending Recidivism in the Caribbean provides a unique insight into institutional and community life in a post colonial society whilst linking practices theories of offender management It will particularly appeal to criminologists and sociologists interested in tertiary crime prevention but also those interested in correctional policy and practice punishment and deviance JSL Vol 25-N1 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 2015-02-27 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement

Readings in Post-Compulsory Education Yvonne Hillier, Anne Thompson, Dr. Anne Thompson, 2005-01-01 The editors provide an illuminating commentary to eleven key articles covering the main issues affecting the post compulsory education sector today Contributions include an analysis of what influences students to drop out from their learning programmes how the participation of hard to reach learners can be widened how adults with basic skills can be encouraged to learn and how research can help make sense of the muddle of middle management in Further Education colleges Book jacket Studies in Symbolic Interaction Norman K. Denzin, 2008-10-23 Contains five papers which examine the future of symbolic interaction This work features additional essays that offer theoretical developments in the areas of social work race media identity and politics Accountability Research Hugo Letiche, Ivo De Loo, Carolyn Cordery, Jean-Luc Moriceau, 2024-07-12 This book discusses auto ethnographies of accountability undertaken in close collaboration by a multinational group of accounting and organization theory researchers over a period of three years The key assumption underlying the book is that accountability is inherently an identity creating process where the study of account making has to be done participatively with radical openness to the one s being researched as well as to their context That openness we call ethnography The values or assumptions inherent to the practices of account and identity making in a specific context are what auto ethnographies seek to describe and identify These values and assumptions warrant critical ethical reflection and this is what the researchers presented here have tried to provide The chapters in this book all are mini studies of relatedness The scale of examination is intimate the reflections provided by the researchers are mainly methodological This book is of interest to accounting and organization theory students and scholars who believe that accountability can fruitfully be studied through auto ethnography The book extends currently existing views on how accountability can be handled and discharged between researchers and their researched when local intimate settings are studied Civil Society in China Runya Qiaoan, 2021-09-30 Chinese civil society groups have achieved iconic policy advocacy successes in the areas of environmental protection women s rights poverty alleviation and public health This book examines why some groups are successful in policy advocacy within the authoritarian context while others fail A mechanism of cultural resonance is introduced as an innovative theoretical framework to systematically compare interactions between Chinese civil society and the government in different movements It is argued that civil society advocacy results depend largely on whether advocates can achieve cultural resonance with policymakers and the mainstream public through their social performances The effective performance is the one in which advocates employ symbols embraced by the audience policymakers and the public in their actions and framings While many studies have tried to explain the phenomena of successful policy advocacy in China through institutional or organizational factors this book not only contains extensive empirical data based on field research but takes a cultural sociological turn to identify the meaning making process behind advocacy actions Civil Society in China will appeal to students and scholars of sociology political science social work and Chinese and Asian studies more broadly The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Criminological Foundations of Penal Policy Lucia Zedner, Andrew Ashworth, 2003 The Criminological Foundations of Penal Policy brings together leading international criminologists to examine the link between the fruits of criminological research and the development of criminal justice policy This volume includes comparative discussions of the United States Germany Australia England and Wales It is divided into four parts Part 1 discusses the theoretical issues surrounding the relationship between public policy and the discipline of criminology Part 2 consists of three essays exploring historical aspects of that relationship Part 3 then examines three distinct areas of penal policy sentencing policing and parole as case studies of the influence of research upon the development of policy Finally in Part 4 which is explicitly devoted to international comparisons there is a consideration of the factors that distinguish research projects that do influence criminal justice policy from those that appear not to

The Criminological Foundations of Penal Policy is a volume in honour of Roger Hood Professor of Criminology and Director of the Centre for Criminological Research in the University of Oxford

Continuity and Change in Voluntary Action Rose Lindsey, John Mohan, 2018-05-30 There are great expectations of voluntary action in contemporary Britain but limited in depth insight into the level distribution and understanding of what constitutes voluntary activity Drawing on extensive survey data and written accounts of citizen engagement this book charts change and continuity in voluntary activity since 1981 How voluntary action has been defined and measured is considered alongside individuals accounts of their participation and engagement in volunteering over their lifecourses Addressing fundamental questions such as whether the public are cynical about or receptive to calls for greater voluntary action the book considers whether respective government expectations of volunteering can really be fulfilled Is Britain really a shared society or a big society and what is the scope for expansion of voluntary effort This pioneering study combines rich qualitative material from the Mass Observation Archive between 1981 and 2012 and data from many longitudinal and cross sectional social surveys Part of the Third Sector Research Series this book is informed by research undertaken at the Third Sector Research Centre funded by the Economic and Social Research Council and Barrow Cadbury Trust
