Trench Pictures From France Major Willie Redmond, 2014-08-15 Trench sketches by well known Irish nationalist MP Major Willie Redmond A memorial volume published after his death at Messines in June 1917 This is much more than a run of the mill account of an officer's life in the trenches of the Great War The author of these sketches Major Redmond 1861 1917 was a well known moderate Irish nationalist politician Willie Redmond was himself a nationalist MP but at the outbreak of the war although well over military age he took the view that the war was a fight for all small oppressed nations and that Irishmen should not stand apart from the struggle The deaths of women and children in German Zeppelin raids seems to have been the final spur that impelled him to don a British uniform In his own words If the Germans come here they will be our masters and we at their mercy What that mercy is likely to be judge by the mercy shown to Belgium Redmond helped found the Irish Division and arrived at the front in the winter of 1915 He saw service on the Somme One of his favourite themes and the subject of a chapter in this book was the brotherhood forged in the trenches between the politically divided Protestants of Northern Ireland and his fellow Catholics from the south Ironically it was Protestant stretcher bearers who brought the severely wounded Redmond in from the battlefield of Messines to the dressing station where he died of his wounds in June 1917 at the opening of the successful British offensive Much mourned by Irish people of all political and religious beliefs Redmond left a legacy of political tolerance and self sacrifice These sketches first published in the Daily Chronicle cover such subjects as religion in the trenches the capture of Ginchy on the Somme No Man's Land and pets in the trenches Will interest not only those keen on Great War literature but also all students of Irish history Print ed France
