The Computer And Africa Applications Problems And Potential:

The Computer and Africa David Ruxton Fraser Taylor, Robert A. Obudho, 1977 Monograph on computer and EDP applications in Africa discusses feasibility of establishing an integrated electronic network of public administration information use of computers in university research demography psychology mapping and humanities management information systems and forecasting etc Bibliography pp 309 to 332 diagrams flow charts and maps Microcomputers In African Development Suzanne Grant Lewis, 2021-10-28 Drawing on recent research in the Sudan Ivory Coast Kenya and Tanzania the contributing authors analyze broad patterns of social and political change brought about by the rapidly increasingly use of microcomputer technology in Africa Technology and Innovation in the International Economy Charles Cooper, 1994 The two major review essays Jeffrey James on microelectronic technology and Martin Fransman on biotechnology assess the impact of these new technologies on production trade employment and welfare in developing countries Development, Modernism and Modernity in Africa Augustine Agwuele, 2013-03-01 This anthology examines the unfinished project of modernity with respect to the unrealized potential for economic social and political development in Africa It also shows how facing the consequences of modernism Africans in and out of the continent are responding to these unfinished projects drawing on a the customary b the novelty of modernity and c positive aspects of modernism for the organization of their societies and the enrichment of their lives even as they contend with the negative aspects of modernity and modernism Foreign Affairs Research Papers Available Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center, 1978 The Application of Microcomputers in Information, Documentation, and Libraries Klaus-Dieter Lehmann, Hilde Strohl-Goebel, 1987 Many current applications of micro computers and recent developments in the field of information and libraries are presented in this volume A wide variety of topics is covered at various levels and in various countries In addition to the bases of hardware design and software requirements expert systems electronic publishing networks workstations education and training bibliographic and factographic databases decision making criteria and economic aspects all receive close attention Both operative and planned systems are described Intercultural Encounters Wim M. J. van Binsbergen, 2003 This book brings together fifteen essays investigating aspects of interculturality Like its author it operates at the borderline between social anthropology and intercultural philosophy It seeks to make a contribution to intercultural philosophy by formulating with great precision and painful honesty the lessons deriving from extensive intercultural experiences as an anthropologist Its culminating section presents an intercultural philosophy revolving on the tenet cultures do not exist The kaleidoscopic nature of intercultural experiences is reflected in the diversity of these texts Many belong to a field that could be described as meta anthropology others are more clearly philosophical occasionally they spill over into belles lettres ancient history and comparative cultural and religious studies The ethnographic specifics supporting the arguments are diverse deriving from various African situations in which the author has conducted participatory field research Tunisia Zambia Botswana and South Africa The Mazruiana Collection Revisited Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 2005 Consists of 650 annotated entries covering Mazrui's books dissertations edited works about him major essays in books academic journals and conference papers This work contains essays including pamphlets magazine and newspaper articles and audio visual recordings Situating Globality Wim van Binsbergen, Rijk van Dijk, 2004-03-01

Situating Globality challenges the dominant view that globalization is a primary threat to African societies and economies It explores how these societies are appropriating elements of the emerging global culture arguing the significance of this appropriation in local struggles the expression of critical thinking ideologies and ritual styles of behaviour Combining an interest for micro level processes of situating the multifaceted process of globality with the exploration of reflexivity creativity and the production of knowledge Situating Globality straddles the divide between anthropological and philosophical representations of Africa in the new world order The first section examines philosophical issues relating to the production of knowledge in and about Africa from a globalizing perspective while the other sections include case studies showing how these processes are accommodated in everyday life The Global African Omari H. Kokole, 1998 Anticipating the auspicious convergence of his 60th birthday and the 30th anniversary of his professorial debut Ali A Mazrui's students friends and colleagues seized the opportunity to critically assess the significance of the prodigious body of scholarship affectionately dubbed Mazruiana In November 1992 in Seattle Washington four panels devoted exclusively to Mazruiana were convened at the annual meetings of the African Studies Association with the added attraction of Mazrui's attendance at the convocation and his immediate personal response to the original papers presented there While no single volume could do justice to Mazrui's colossal literary output here at least is gathered the collective investigative insight of a team of well informed critics into select salient facets of this provocative but stimulating literary and intellectual phenomenon The long list of contributors to this Festschrift includes John W Harbeson Dunstan M Wai Darryl C Thomas Negussay Ayele Parviz Morewedge Hussein M Adam Alamin M Mazrui Claude E Welch Peter N Thuynsma Richard L Sklar Betty J Craige Molar Ogundipe Leslie Chaly Sawere Bujor Avari Diana Frank Omari H Kokole and Ali A Mazrui himself The Challenge of Information Technology Kenneth Richard Brown, 1983 Technology and today Technology and tomorrow New technologies intermediaries end users Special interests New technology and the developing countries The future of secondary services Closing addresses *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
