

"During the Spanish civil conflict I became a war photographer. Later I photographed the 'phony war' and ended up taking pictures of the hot war. When all this was over I was very happy to become an unemployed war photographer, and I hope to stay unemployed as a war photographer till the end of my life."

Robert Capa

"The camera is my tool through which I try to give a reason to everything and to every happening around me. Everything is a subject. Every subject has a rhythm. To feel this rhythm is the 'raison d'être'. The photo is a fixed moment of such a 'raison d'être' which lives on in itself."

André Kertész

"Why am I a photographer? It's the desire of retaining my sanity, the exploration of the mind's limit and man's limitation. I wish to preserve, to contain, to measure, and to expand. I photograph strangers, the shell of things, not the mind."
