strange characters Bat Boy automatons taxidermied mermaids snake oil salesmen and Benjamin Franklin all from the annals of science and pseudoscience Equal parts fact and folklore these poems look to the marvelous and the weird for a way to understand childbirth parenthood sickness death and of course joy The Night Guard at the Wilberforce Hotel Daniel Anderson,2014-04-21 In his third collection of poems Daniel Anderson ponders and celebrates the images sounds and tastes of contemporary life The poems in The Night Guard at the Wilberforce Hotel navigate the evanescent boundaries between the public and the private self Daniel Anderson's settings are often social but never fail to turn inward drowning out the chatter of conversation to quietly observe the truths that we simultaneously share and withhold from one another even as we visit friends celebrate a young couple's union or eavesdrop on the conversations of others These twenty poems include meditations on teaching hungover undergraduates wine tasting among snobs and engaging the war on terror from the comfort of the suburbs They are alternately driven by ornamental language that seeks to clarify and crystallize the beauties of our common world and the poet's faith that fellowship ultimately trumps partisanship Even as they weigh and measure the darkness of the heart and the sometimes rash and stingy movements of the mind the poems refrain from pronouncing judgment on their characters As much as they ponder they also celebrate in exact careful and loving terms the haunting and bracing stimuli from which they originate The View We're Granted Peter Filkins,2012-08-15 These poems consider large events such as 9 11 and the Holocaust as well as everyday concerns like quilting ice skating or the beauty of a stand of sugar maples in winter Co Winner of the Sheila Motton Book Award of the New England Poetry Club In the pivotal poem Marking Time which appears almost exactly halfway through Peter Filkins's fourth collection of poetry the speaker reflects on the death of a sibling and how time is marked by our memories These memories these moments whether spent contemplating a painting by Vermeer or the simple toss of a bean bag ultimately shape who we are Yet you are with me here with me here again where neither that moon nor you exist but live tethered to this memory composed of words These are poems unafraid to be graceful and engaging They attain an assurance and stability rare in contemporary poetry while their careful balance of sadness and joy reminds the reader of the difficult negotiations we make in life Acts of Mind Richard Jackson,1984-05-30 There have been any number of books of interviews with contemporary writers but none precisely like this one The author editor has somehow managed to get these very different poets to follow his lead and in many cases for the first time anywhere to reveal much about their intellectual habits assumptions and preconceptions In almost every case he has been able to get these poets to talk more openly and freely than anyone else has ever done George Garrett You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye,2005 In You and Yours Naomi Shihab Nye continues her conversation with ordinary people whose lives become through her empathetic use of poetic language extraordinary Nye writes of local life in her inner city Texas neighborhood about rural schools and urban communities she's visited in this country as well as the daily rituals of Jews and Palestinians who live in the war torn Middle East The Day I missed the day on which it was said others should not have certain weapons but we could Not only could but should and do I missed that day Was I sleeping I might have been digging in the yard doing something small and slow as usual Or maybe I wasn t born yet What about all the other people who aren t born Who will tell them Balancing direct language with a suggestive aslantness Nye probes the fragile connection between language and meaning She never shies from the challenge of trying to name the mysterious logic of childhood or speak truth to power in the face of the horrors of war She understands our lives are marked by tragedy inequity and misunderstanding and that our best chance of surviving our losses and shortcomings is to maintain a heightened awareness of the sacred in all things Naomi Shihab Nye poet editor anthologist is a recipient of writing fellowships from the Lannan and Guggenheim foundations Nye s work has been featured on PBS poetry specials including NOW with Bill Moyers The Language of Life with Bill Moyers and The United States of Poetry She has traveled abroad as a visiting writer on three Arts America tours sponsored by the United States Information Agency In 2001 she received a presidential appointment to the National Council of the National Endowment for the Humanities She lives in San Antonio Texas
