The Capitation Sourcebook Peter Boland, 1996. Here is a challenge to conventional wisdom that will change the way you think about capitation. This hands-on resource is a collection of articles detailing the most advanced methods used by leading healthcare operational experts on how to provide high quality care at less cost, manage financial risk more efficiently, design operational, clinical and information systems to meet the needs of patients, practitioners and managed care organizations, structure financial incentives to promote successful collaborations and make the transition from fee for service to risk sharing arrangements. You'll find practical examples of how to build the trust necessary to create win-win solutions to problems that arise between competing yet interdependent interests of the various stakeholders. Edited by Peter Boland, PhD and based on a best practices approach, each of the articles in the book illustrates compensation methodologies that have been successfully implemented with the support of physicians and hospitals.
