The Old Mens Running Club:

From Pastime to Passion Patricia Millen, 2001-01-01 While baseball's favorite myth regarding Abner Doubleday is proven to be false America's favorite pastime is clearly a part of American history Ice baseball prison camps Albert Spalding and the quest to prove baseball's American origin and much more are discussed M1775HB 15 95 Harper's New Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden, 1897 Harper's informs a diverse body of readers of cultural business political literary and scientific affairs

Brave Men Ernie Pyle, 2022-08-16 In Brave Men Ernie Pyle crafts a poignant and unvarnished portrayal of American soldiers during World War II Written in the first person the narrative employs a blend of journalistic precision and lyrical prose resonating with both emotional depth and stark realism Pyle's accounts from the front lines illuminate the experiences of ordinary men caught in extraordinary circumstances revealing their vulnerabilities camaraderie and heroism amidst the chaos of war Set against the backdrop of the tumultuous 1940s the book serves as both a historical document and a deeply human exploration of courage loss and sacrifice Ernie Pyle a Pulitzer Prize winning journalist became renowned for his vivid reporting from the front during World War II His deep empathy and commitment to showcasing the everyday lives of soldiers stemmed from his own experiences as a war correspondent Having covered various theaters of war Pyle's encounters with these brave individuals inspired him to humanize the conflict reflecting their struggles and triumphs in a manner that transcended mere battlefield accounts Brave Men is highly recommended for readers seeking an authentic and heartfelt perspective on the realities of war Pyle's ability to capture the essence of the human spirit in dire times resonates powerfully making this work a vital resource for anyone interested in military history journalism or the profound complexities of human nature

The Community Life of Older People in Ireland Carmel Gallagher, 2008 This book is a contemporary sociological account of the lives of older people in two different communities in Ireland one urban and one rural The book is based on primary research that examined the social and community participation of older people in Rathmore and Rathbeg using both ethnographic and survey approaches The data presented provides insights into the nature of a community in a rapidly changing society and into older people's contributions to that community It points to realms of activity that offer genuine meaning and value in older people's lives A model of connectedness is developed in the study that identifies key characteristics and processes involved in sociability and solidarity within neighbourhoods and communities A typology of ten relational patterns describes the different ways in which older adults may be connected within their communities The author proposes an explanatory framework for understanding the complex and varied connections between people in communities The book also demonstrates what older people in Ireland perceive as a good life

Not Just Beer and Bingo! a Social History of Working Men's Clubs Ruth Cherrington, 2012-07-25 In Not Just Beer and Bingo A Social History of Working Mens Clubs Ruth Cherrington traces the history of working men's clubs from their mid 19th origins to their current state of declining popularity and numbers This book is a unique and comprehensive account of a social movement that has provided companionship education recreation and a great deal of pleasure to working class communities for over 150 years All aspects of club life are covered here in a highly readable often funny but sometimes poignant manner At all times Ruth Cherrington maintains a scholarly approach drawing upon wide ranging research and the wealth of information collected from scores of club goers officials and entertainers from across the country They tell their own stories throughout this book from nights out with the kids to seaside outings the concerts and Christmas parties the place of women the popularity of games and gambling and the many charitable roles and activities that clubs are involved in Ruth Cherrington illustrates throughout the book how clubs were much loved social and community institutions that have always been about much more than beer drinking and bingo playing They were often central to working class leisure time as well as at the heart of the communities where they were located She shows how clubs played numerous social and cultural roles making important contributions to the lives of their members and their families She does not shy away from tacking the downsides of clubs life and the criticisms that they have sometimes received for some of their policies and practices The role of the Club and Institute Union CIU is also considered here Established by a Temperance minister in 1862 it helped to nurture the early clubs fight some battles on their behalf eventually becoming a nationwide organization that represented the Union of working mens clubs As clubs now face many challenges and with around half the number that existed during their heyday in the early 1970s the key reasons for the decline are laid out for the reader to consider The discussion doesnt end there with an account of the fight back and what club people from members through to officials and the CIU are doing to keep their doors open and to adapt to the rapidly changing times we live in The work concludes by offering some thoughts about their future prospects Older, Faster, Stronger

Margaret Webb,2014-10-07 One part personal quest to discover running greatness after age 50 one part investigation into what the women s running boom can teach athletes about becoming fitter stronger and faster as we age Older Faster Stronger is an engrossing narrative sure to inspire women of all ages A former overweight smoker turned marathoner Margaret Webb runs with elite older women follows a high performance training plan devised by experts and examines research that shows how endurance training can stall aging She then tests herself against the world s best older runners at the world masters games in Torino Italy Millions of women have taken up running in recent decades the first generation of women to train in great numbers Women are qualifying for the Olympic marathon in their 50s running 100 mile ultra marathons in their 60s completing Ironmans in their 80s competing for world masters records in their 90s What are the secrets of these ageless wonders How do they get stronger and faster long after their athletic prime Is there an evolutionary reason women can maintain endurance into advanced years Webb immerses herself in these questions as she as she trains to see just how fast she can get after 50 Multisystemic Therapy and Neighborhood Partnerships Cynthia Cupit

Swenson,Scott W. Henggeler,Ida S. Taylor,Oliver W. Addison,2009-01-26 Social problems Social Research Matthew David,Carole D Sutton,2011-01-19 The new edition of David and Sutton s text provides those new to social research with a comprehensive introduction to the theory logic and practical methods of qualitative quantitative and mixed methods research Covering all aspects of research design data collection data analysis and writing up Social Research An Introduction is the essential companion for all undergraduate and postgraduate students embarking on a methods course or social research project Designed for social science students with no previous experience this book provides a balanced foundation in the principles and practices of social research

Running While Black Alison Mariella Désir, 2022-10-18 A searing expos on the whiteness of running a supposedly egalitarian sport and a call to reimagine the industry Runners know that running brings us to ourselves But for Black people the simple act of running has never been so simple It is a declaration of the right to move through the world If running is claiming public space why then does it feel like a negotiation Running saved Alison Désir's life At rock bottom and searching for meaning and structure Désir started marathon training finding that it vastly improved both her physical and mental health Yet as she became involved in the community and learned its history she realized that the sport was largely built with white people in mind Running While Black draws on Désir's experience as an endurance athlete activist and mental health advocate to explore why the seemingly simple human act of long distance running for exercise and health has never been truly open to Black people Weaving historical context from the first recreational running boom to the horrific murder of Ahmaud Arbery together with her own story of growth in the sport Désir unpacks how we got here and advocates for a world where everyone is free to safely experience the life changing power of movement As America reckons with its history of white supremacy across major institutions Désir argues that as a litmus test for an inclusive society the fitness industry has the opportunity to lead the charge fulfilling its promise of empowerment
