The Old Railway Station:

The Heart of Victoria Joseph Kinsela, 2004 This book unlocks the secrets of an extraordinary region Covering many of the world's richest goldfields the heart of Victoria is home to dramatic landscapes and a unique treasure trove of 19th century architecture THE HOTEL BOOK(NO.1) □□□, 2002-12-27 Beeching: 50 Years On Anthony Poulton-Smith, 2013-02-01 In 1963 Dr Beeching's infamous report signalled the end for over 15 000 miles of track a third of Britain's stations and for 70 000 jobs as well as making irrevocable changes to the way of life of many consumers Much misery was caused and Beeching's name was muddled but in hindsight the report probably did more than any other single factor to preserve the nation's railway heritage Without the Beeching cuts much of the locomotives stock tracks signals and signs would have crumbled been forgotten or rotted However the gentle railway gradients lend themselves perfectly to walkways and cycle paths buildings have been refurbished memorabilia now commands prices at auction which would astonish those who painted the metal And of course the heritage lines continue to draw many thousands of visitors each year After the initial shock of the cuts this fresh appraisal considers these benefits and more which may not have come about without the Beeching Report Manzini (Eswatini) , Country Roads of Alberta Liz Bryan, 2007 Experience Alberta's heritage and the outdoors in Country Roads of Alberta an intriguing photographic guidebook that takes you to places off the beaten track Alberta's scenery is as diverse as its topography Fringed along its western edge by high mountains the land descends through foothills to stretch into undulating plains sculpted by ancient ice into ridges hills and deep coulees Under the changing light of the prairie sky the rolling landscape reveals tipi rings and medicine wheels remnants of the first people to call this land home as well as marks of later civilization homesteads old barns churches and the graveyards of the first immigrants Antelope wild goats moose beaver prairie dogs and birds are among the bountiful wildlife that flourishes here In Country Roads of Alberta Liz Bryan guides readers along the back roads of this beautiful landscape In addition to driving directions and maps Bryan includes snippets of archaeology history geology and other interesting information Her magnificent full colour photos celebrate Alberta's many landscapes some still wild and all most beautiful Ali Sabieh (Djibouti) , Buildings of Empire Ashley Jackson, 2013-11-28 Buildings of Empire takes the reader on an exciting journey through thirteen territories of the British Empire From Dublin Castle to the glass and steel of Sir Norman Foster's Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank skyscraper these buildings capture the essence of the imperial experience painting an intimate portrait of the biggest empire the world has ever seen the people who made it and the people who resisted it as well as the legacy of the imperial project throughout the world Ashley Jackson visits classic examples of the buildings that the British governed from the forts they often brutally imposed their rule from the railway stations they travelled from the banks they traded from the educational establishments they spread their values from as well as the grand colonial hotels they stayed in the sporting clubs and botanical gardens where they took their leisure and the monumental exhibition spaces in which they celebrated the achievements of settlement and imperial endeavour The history of these buildings does not end with the empire that built them Their story in the aftermath of empire highlights the continuing legacy of many of the structures and institutions the British left behind as well as the sometimes unexpected role that these former symbols of alien rule have played in the establishment of new national identities in the years since independence Preservation and Reuse of Railway Stations of Historic Or Architectural Merit United States.
