Firstly, it proves itself a good combination of the history of thoughts of literature as well as thoughts of art. This book manages to break the barrier barring the two categories of literature and art apart by regarding the literature and art as the expressive form of the leading artistic spirit or aesthetic taste of one period. Secondly, the book makes itself a unification of history of thoughts in general and thoughts of fine arts. The book puts the thoughts of literature and art into the integral structure of social thoughts and ideas to disclose the mutual fusion and combination of the thoughts of literature and art with the other and to observe the profound implications of the literary thoughts in a circumstance of intertextual interpretation. Thirdly, this book is also a good mixture of general history and monographic study. In another word, this book displays itself as an overview of the history of thoughts in the one hand and constantly probes into particular topics as monograph in the other hand. This book is designed to outline the general thoughts of literature and art for learners in this field and to provide particular topics for researchers who endeavor to acquire featured observation in history of literature or art in Pre-Qin period. The original scale of the book was about 1 million Chinese characters and now it is abridged to 300 thousand characters. History and Chronology of the Myth-Making Age J.F. Hewitt, Babylonian Creation Myths Wilfred G. Lambert, 2013-10-03 For much of the last half of the twentieth century, W. G. Lambert devoted much of his research energy and effort to the study of Babylonian texts dealing with Mesopotamian ideas regarding creation, including especially Enuma Elish. This volume, which appears almost exactly 2 years after Lambert's death, distills a lifetime of learning by the world's foremost expert on these texts. Lambert provides a full transliteration and translation of the 7 tablets of Enuma Elish based on the known exemplars as well as coverage of a number of other texts that bear on or are thought to bear on Mesopotamian notions of the origin of the world, mankind, and the gods. New editions of seventeen additional creation tales are provided, including Enmesharra's Defeat, Enki and Ninmah, The Slaying of Labbu, and The Theogony of Dunnu. Lambert pays special attention, of course, to the connection of the main epic Enuma Elish with the rise and place of Marduk in the Babylonian pantheon. He traces the development of this deity's origin and rise to prominence and elaborates the relationship of this text and the others discussed to the religious and political climate of Babylonia. The volume includes 70 plates, primarily hand copies of the various exemplars of Enuma Elish, and extensive indexes. History and Chronology of the Myth-making Age James Francis Hewitt, 1901 Reference
