The Complete Poetry George Herbert, 2015-04-16 A wonderful edition of Herbert's poetry edited by his acclaimed biographer John Drury and including elegant new translations of his Latin verse by Victoria Moul. George Herbert wrote but never published some of the very greatest English poetry recording in an astonishing variety of forms his inner experiences of grief recovery hope despair anger fulfilment and above all else love. This volume edited by John Drury collects Herbert's complete poetry including such classics of English devotional poetry as The Altar Easter Wings and Love. It also includes the verse Herbert wrote in Latin newly translated into English by Victoria Moul. George Herbert was born in 1593 and died at the age of 39 in 1633 before the clouds of civil war gathered. He showed worldly ambition and seemed sure of high public office and a career at court but then for a time lost himself in a humble way devoting himself to the restoration of a church and then to his parish of Bemerton three miles from Salisbury. When in the year of his death his friend Nicholas Ferrar published Herbert's poems under the title The Temple his fame was quickly established. John Drury is Chaplain and Fellow of All Souls College Oxford. His books include The Burning Bush 1990 Painting the Word 1999 and most recently Music at Midnight the culmination of a lifetime's interest in Herbert. Victoria Moul is Lecturer in Latin Literature and Language at Kings College London. She is author of Jonson Horace and the Classical Tradition 2010 and editor of Neo Latin Literature 2014.

The Complete Poetry of Giacomo da Lentini Giacomo da Lentini, 2018-05-04 This volume presents the first translation in English of the complete poetry of Giacomo da Lentini the first major lyric poet of the Italian vernacular. He was the leading exponent of the Sicilian School c. 1220-1270 as well as the inventor of the sonnet. Featuring illustrations and new English translations of some forty lyrics Richard Lansing revives the work of a pioneer of Italian literature a poet who helped pave the way for later writers such as Dante and Petrarch. Giacomo da Lentini is hailed as the earliest poet to import the Occitan tradition of love poetry into the Italian vernacular. This edition of Giacomo fills a gap in the canon of translations of Italian literature in English and serves as a vital reference source for students as well as scholars and teachers interested in the literature of the romance languages.

The Complete Poetry of John Keats John Keats, 2024-01-05 In The Complete Poetry of John Keats the reader is invited to explore the sublime and sensuous verses of one of the most celebrated poets of the Romantic era. This comprehensive compilation encompasses Keats's profound engagement with themes such as beauty mortality nature and love showcasing his unique blend of rich imagery and passionate lyricism. The collection documents Keats's aesthetic theory heavily influenced by his admiration for art and experiences in nature reflecting a deep understanding of the interplay between sensory perception and emotional response making his work eternally relevant in the literary canon John Keats born in London in 1795 emerged as a pivotal figure in Romantic poetry despite his brief life which ended at the age of 25 His background as a physician and his personal struggles with adversity and illness infused his work with a transcendental quality bridging the corporeal and the spiritual His letters reveal a keen intellect and a passionate devotion to the craft of poetry illuminating his motivations rooted in a quest for beauty amidst human suffering I highly recommend The Complete Poetry of John Keats not only to students of literature but to anyone seeking to connect with the essence of human experience through poetry Keats's ability to articulate complex emotions with striking clarity makes this collection an essential addition to any literary collection promising to evoke contemplation and appreciation long after the final page

The Complete Poetry of Robert Herrick

Tom Cain, Ruth Connolly, 2013-11-01 This is the first edition for fifty years of one of the greatest of English lyric poets Volume I concentrates on Herrick's large printed collection Hesperides published in 1648 and the product of nearly four decades of writing The text is based on a collation of all fifty seven known surviving copies of Hesperides In addition it includes a much needed new biography covering the suicide of his father his apprenticeship as a goldsmith banker and his subsequent career in Cambridge London and Devon It provides a survey of Herrick's fluctuating critical reputation from the first in rank and station of English song writers to trivially charming and a detailed reconstruction of the original printing and publishing just after the first Civil War of a book which was the first Complete Works to be published by an English poet There is also a newly ordered sequence of Herrick's letters from Cambridge his only surviving prose An extensive commentary on Hesperides is placed in Volume II so that readers can use it side by side with the poems if they wish The commentary gives new translations of Herrick's hundreds of classical allusions and quotes his equally numerous Biblical ones both of them far more extensive and frequently far more playful than has hitherto been realised It also notes many parallels between Herrick's work and that of contemporaries especially Jonson Shakespeare Burton and John Fletcher and his habit of echoing or quoting himself a tendency which reinforces the strong sense of Herrick's persona dominating the collection Full explanations are given of contemporary personal political and cultural references
