with issues that transcend the particularities of his urban study Postsocialist Landscapes Thomas Lahusen, Schamma Schahadat, 2020-04-02 Since the fall of the Iron Curtain formerly socialist countries have gone through manifold transformations whilst remnants of socialism remain ubiquitous The volume explores various spaces of the postsocialist landscape presenting a mixture of real and imaginary spaces of memory and nostalgia of aesthetic and political symbolism of the global East and the global South of academic and essayistic writing It casts a glance at the heterogeneous relics of socialism and their transformation in very different parts of the world From the description of post socialist interiors fa ades neighborhoods parks monuments and objects towards the imaginary spaces of literature the contributors describe the concreteness and intimacy of some of the places that span across and even beyond of what is left of the second world today

From Socialist to Post-Socialist Cities Alexander C. Diener, Joshua Hagen, 2016-04-14 The development of post socialist cities has become a major field of study among critical theorists from across the social sciences and humanities Originally constructed under the dictates of central planners and designed to serve the demands of command economies post socialist urban centers currently develop at the nexus of varied and often competing economic cultural and political forces Among these nationalist aspirations previously simmering beneath the official rhetoric of communist fraternity and veneer of architectural conformity have emerged as dominant factors shaping the urban landscape This book explores this burgeoning field of research through detailed cases studies relating to the cultural politics of architecture urban planning and identity in the post socialist cities of Eurasia This book was published as a special issue of Nationalities Papers Cultural Landscapes of Post-Socialist Cities Mariusz Czepczynski, 2016-04-22 The cultural landscapes of Central European cities reflect over half a century of socialism and are marked by the Marxists vision of a utopian landscape Architecture urban planning and the visual arts were considered to be powerful means of expressing the people s power However since the velvet revolutions of 1989 this urban scenery has been radically transformed by new forces and trends infused by the free market democracy and liberalization This has led to landscape cleansing and recycling as these former communist nations used new architectural functional and social forms to transform their urbanscapes their meanings and uses Comparing case studies from different post socialist cities this book examines the culturally conditional variations between local powers and structures despite the similarities in the general processes and systems It considers the contemporary cultural landscapes of these post socialist cities as a dynamic fusion of the old communist forms and new free market meanings features and democratic practices of global influences and local icons The book assesses whether these urbanscapes clearly reflect the social cultural and political conditions and aspirations of these transitional countries and so a critical analysis of them provides important insights Film and Domestic Space Baschiera Stefano Baschiera, 2020-05-28 Although film and media studies have widely engaged with the different aspects of social space domestic space in film has rarely been studied in its multiple dimensions Drawing on a broad range of theoretical disciplines and with case studies of directors such as Chantal

Akerman Agnes Varda Claire Denis Todd Haynes Amos Gitai Martin Ritt John Ford Ila Beka and Louise Lemoine this book goes beyond the representational approach to the analysis of domestic space in cinema in order to look at it as a dispositif Adopting this innovative two fold approach that couples representation and dispositif the home is studied as an architecture as the place that embodies defines and perpetuates the family history as the milieu of gender and generational struggle as well as the first site where manifestations of power unfold All chapters contribute to explore unpack the complexities and expand on the richness encapsulated in the notion of domesticity and dwelling in its fascinating relation to moving images

Space in Romanian and Hungarian Cinema Anna Batori, 2018-05-07 This book examines the structuring of space in Romanian and Hungarian cinema and particularly how space is used to express the deep imprint of a socialist past on a post socialist present It considers this legacy of the Eastern European socialist regimes by interrogating the suffocating tyrannical and enclosing structures that are presented in film By tracing such paradigmatic models as horizontal and vertical enclosure this book aims to show how enclosed spatial structuring restages the post socialist era to produce an implicit and collective form of remembrance While closely scrutinizing the interplay of location and image Space in Romanian and Hungarian Cinema offers a new approach to the cinema of the region which unites the filmic productions under a defined post socialist Eastern European spatial umbrella By simultaneously portraying the gloom of a socialist past while also conveying a sense of longing for a pre capitalist era these films convey how sense of unity and also ambivalence is a defining hallmark of Eastern European cinema overview for all students of this region Post-Communist Romania at Twenty-Five Lavinia Stan, Diane Vancea, 2015-06-24 2014 marked the 25th anniversary of the collapse of communist regimes in Eastern Europe. The events of 1989 are widely seen as having ushered in new all-encompassing reforms in almost all areas of life. In few other places were reforms more contested and divisive than in Romania, a country that suffered greatly under the sultanistic cum totalitarian dictatorship of Nicolae Ceausescu. Faced with the region's only bloody anti-communist revolt and as such had the longest to travel on the road from communism to democracy. We now have a generation's worth of experience with these wrenching reforms that have deeply affected Romania's political institutions and political culture and ultimately allowed it to become a member of the coveted European Union club. This volume gathers key lessons for democratic theory and practice from Romania's first twenty-five years of post-communist transformation. Written by leading experts in the field of Romanian Studies, the chapters focus on the most important factors that have shaped the country's political transformation during the first 25 years of post-communism.

Socialist and Post-Socialist Urbanisms Lisa B.W. Drummond, Douglas Young, 2020-02-24 Socialist cities have special qualities which endure in particular subtle and often under-theorized ways. This book engages with socialism on a global scale as well as the variety of socialist urbanisms and post-socialist urbanisms and the range of ways in which globalization intersects with changes in socialist and post-socialist cities. Offering a unique international comparative focus, the book's fourteen case studies from Asia, Europe, Latin America, and Africa are grouped under three main themes: housing, experiences, and life trajectories; planning and architecture; and governance and social order. Featuring contributors from a range of disciplinary backgrounds and research foci, Socialist and Post-Socialist Urbanisms brings together a collection of essays on cities that are often overlooked in mainstream urban studies.

Architecture, Democracy and Emotions Till Großmann, Philipp Nielsen, 2018-11-06 After 1945 it was not just Europe's parliamentary buildings that promised to house democracy; hotels in Turkey and Dutch shopping malls proposed new democratic attitudes and feelings. Housing programs in the United Kingdom, the United States, and the Soviet Union were designed with the aim of creating new social relations among citizens and thus better, more equal societies. Architecture, Democracy and Emotions focuses on these competing promises of consumer democracy, welfare democracy, and socialist democracy. Spanning from Turkey across Eastern and Western Europe to the United States, the chapters investigate the emotional politics of housing and representation during the height of the Cold War as well as its aftermath post-1989. The book assembles detailed research on how the claims and aspirations of being democratic influenced the affects of architecture and how these claims politicized space. Architecture, Democracy and Emotions contributes to the study of Europe's democratic age beyond Cold War divisions without diminishing political differences. The combination of an emotional history of democracy with an architectural history of emotions distinguishes the book's approach from other recent investigations into the interconnection of mind, body, and space.

Utopian Reality Christina Lodder, Maria Kokkori, Maria Mileeva, 2013-10-24 This collection of essays deals broadly with the visual and cultural manifestation of utopian aspirations in Russia of the 1920s and 1930s while examining the before and after life of such ideas both geographically and chronologically The studies document the pluralism of Russian and Soviet culture at this time as well as illuminating various cultural strategies adopted by officialdom The result serves to complicate the excessively simplistic narrative that avant garde dreams were suddenly and brutally crushed by Soviet repression and to contest the notion of the avant garde s complicity in Stalinism Naturally some essays document episodes in the defeat and dismantling of utopian projects but others trace the persistence of avant garde ideas and the astonishing tenacity of creative individuals who managed to retain their personal integrity while continuing to serve the cause of Soviet power Contributors include John E Bowlt Natalia Budanova David Crowley Evgeny Dobrenko Maria Kokkori Christina Lodder Muireann Maguire Nicholas Bueno de Mesquita Maria Mileeva John Milner Nicoletta Misler Maria Starkova Vindman Brandon Taylor and Maria Tsantsanoglou
